Proceedings From The 7th Nordic Conference On English Studies:

Proceedings from the 7th Nordic Conference on English Studies Sanna-Kaisa Tanskanen, Brita Wårvik, 1999 The (Ir)reversibility of English Binomials Sandra Mollin, 2014-09-15 This book focuses on binomials word pairs such as heart and soul rich and poor or if and when and in particular on the degree of reversibility that English binomials demonstrate Detailed and innovative corpus linguistic analyses investigate the correlates of the degree of reversibility linguistic constraints that influence the ordering and reversibility of binomials and the diachronic development of reversibility In addition judgment data are analyzed for their convergence and divergence with corpus data regarding degrees of reversibility The book thus establishes reversibility as a complex characteristic of the binomial construction at the same time throwing light on general questions in phraseology lexicalization language structure and language processing Thematics Max Louwerse, Willie Van Peer, 2002-01-01 Themes play a central role in our everyday communication we have to know what a text is about in order to understand it Intended meaning cannot be understood without some knowledge of the underlying theme This book helps to define the concept of themes in texts and how they are structured in language use Much of the literature on Thematics is scattered over different disciplines literature psychology linguistics cognitive science which this detailed collection pulls together in one coherent overview The result is a new landmark for the study and understanding of themes in their everyday manifestation Structures in Discourse Martin Gill, Aino Malmivirta, Brita Wårvik, 2024-08-15 This volume aims to stretch the boundaries of text and discourse linguistics exploring organization and structuring in discourse across a variety of communication forms from written to spoken to visual in old and new media It presents a collection of case studies ranging in focus from the micro level discourse functions of pronouns and emojis to the macro level structure of online interaction all from their different perspectives drawing inspiration from the notion of text as structure and process In a world of proliferating media and discourse types the papers collected here reflect the latest scholarship in text and discourse studies highlighting the value of combining multiple approaches and suggesting future directions and possibilities for research Structures in Discourse will be of interest to students and researchers in pragmatics discourse analysis media studies and digitally mediated communication The Reception of Charles Dickens in Europe Michael Hollington, 2013-08-29 The Reception of Charles Dickens in Europe offers a full historical survey of Dickens s reception in all the major European countries and many of the smaller ones filling a major gap in Dickens scholarship which has by and large neglected Dickens s fortunes in Europe and his impact on major European authors and movements Essays by leading international critics and translators give full attention to cultural changes and fashions such as the decline of Dickens s fortunes at the end of the nineteenth century in the period of Naturalism and Aestheticism and the subsequent upswing in the period of Modernism in part as a consequence of the rise of film in the era of Chaplin and Eisenstein It will also offer accounts of Dickens s reception in periods of political upheaval and revolution such as during the communist era in Eastern Europe or under fascism in Germany and Italy in particular English Historical Linguistics. Volume 2 Alexander Bergs, Laurel J. Brinton, 2012-10-01 Discourse Perspectives on English Risto Hiltunen, Janne Skaaffari, 2003-12-19 Covering nearly one thousand years this volume explores medieval and modern English texts from fresh perspectives Within the relatively new field of historical discourse linguistics the synchronic analysis of large textual units and consideration of text external features in relation to discourse has so far received little attention To fill that gap this volume offers studies of medieval instructional and religious texts and correspondence from the early modern period The contributions highlight writer audience relationships the intended use of texts descriptions of text type and questions of orality and manuscript contextualization The topics ranging from the reception of Old English texts to the conventions of practical instruction in Middle English to the epistolary construction of science in early Modern English are directly relevant to historical linguists discourse and text linguists and students of the history of English Collaborating Towards Coherence Sanna-Kaisa Tanskanen, 2006-01-01 This book approaches cohesion and coherence from a perspective of interaction and collaboration After a detailed account of various models of cohesion and coherence the book suggests that it is fruitful to regard cohesion as contributing to coherence as a strategy used by communicators to help their fellow communicators create coherence from a text Throughout the book the context sensitive and discourse specific nature of cohesion is stressed cohesive relations are created and interpreted in particular texts in particular contexts By investigating the use of cohesion in four different types of discourse the study shows that cohesion is not uniform across discourse types The analysis reveals that written dialogue computer mediated discussions and spoken monologue prepared speech make use of similar cohesive strategies as spoken dialogue conversations in these contexts the communicators interaction with their fellow communicators leads to a similar outcome The book suggests that this is an indication of the communicators attempt to collaborate towards successful communication How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo Pettersson, 2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s J. Russell Perkin, 2021-06-15 The 1970s

in Britain saw a series of industrial disputes a referendum on membership in the European Economic Community conflict about issues of immigration and citizenship and emergent environmental and feminist movements It was also a decade of innovation in the novel and novelists often addressed the state of the nation directly in their works In Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s Russell Perkin looks at social novels by John Fowles and Margaret Drabble the Cold War thrillers of John le Carr Richard Adams s best selling fable Watership Down the popular campus novels of Malcolm Bradbury and David Lodge Doris Lessing s dystopian visions and V S Naipaul s explorations of post colonial displacement Many of these highly regarded works sold in large numbers and have enjoyed enduring success a testament to the power of the political novel to explain a nation to itself Perkin explores the connections between the novel and politics situating the works it discusses in the rich context of the history and culture of the decade from party politics to popular television shows Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s elucidates a period of literary history now fifty years in the past and offers a balanced perspective on the age revealing that these works not only represented the politics of the time but played a meaningful role in them Perspectives on Variation Nicole Delbecque,Johan van der Auwera,Dirk Geeraerts,2005 Based on presentations made at the meeting of the Societas Linguistica Europaea held in Leuven in 2001 the 14 contributions in this text illustrate the ongoing evolution of the field of linguistic variation and highlight the interactions between its sociolinguistic historical and comparative subfields A sampling of topics Europe s sociolinguistic unity inflection variation in Belgian and Netherlandic Dutch experience and conceptualization in the modern English lexicon of LOVE the role of semasiological profiles in merger discontinuations development and motivation of marked plural forms in German the magic of gender assignment cleft constructions in French and Spanish and the lexicalization of speech act evaluations in German English and Dutch Annotation 2005 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com The Transnationalism of American Culture Rocío Davis,2013-01-04 This book studies the transnational nature of American cultural production specifically literature film and music examining how these serve as ways of perceiving the United States and American culture The volume s engagement with the reality of transnationalism focuses on material examples that allow for an exploration of concrete manifestations of this phenomenon and trace its development within and outside the United States Contributors consider the ways in which artifacts or manifestations of American culture have traveled and what has happened to the texts in the process inviting readers to examine the nature of the transnational turn by highlighting the cultural products that represent and produce it Emphasis on literature film and music allows for nuanced perspectives on the way a global phenomenon is enacted in American texts within the U S also illustrating the commodification of American culture as these texts travel The volume therefore serves as a coherent examination of the critical and creative repercussions of transnationalism and by juxtaposing a discussion of creativity with critical paradigms unveils how transnationalism has become one of the constitutive modes of cultural production in the 21st century Proceedings from the Fourth Nordic Conference for English Studies Nordic Conference for English Studies,1989

Confining Spaces, Resistant Subjectivities Kinana Hamam, 2014-08-11 This book represents a significant contribution to academic knowledge making a compelling case for a contemporary analytical re reading of a number of core postcolonial women s narratives such as Erna Brodber s Jane and Louisa Will Soon Come Home Buchi Emecheta s The Joys of Motherhood and Mariama B s So Long a Letter These narratives highlight diversity contextuality opposition and metachrony have a generative literary function and anticipate what have now become postcolonial feminist issues and debates Bringing together feminist writing from a range of postcolonial contexts the book contributes to a field represented by the critical writings of Francoise Lionnet Ketu Katrak and Elleke Boehmer among others The deconstructive cultural approach of the book is mobilised to support an in depth literary analysis which focuses on female oppression difference voice and agency Questions of what it means to be a woman and to be postcolonial are read as central debates which emphasise multi vocal and multi focal female narratives and perspectives That is they highlight the temporal as well as cross cultural links and implications of the selected narratives which give the project a kind of positive complexity and linkage Above all the analysis of several unconventional modes and physical imaginative spaces of female resistance such as prison widow confinement and madness yields some surprising results that are sustained by a close reading of the texts which are not only attentive to questions of genre structure imagery and narrative endings but also oppositional instructive and reconstructive Papers
