Russian Business Relationships In The Wake Of Reform:

Russian Business Relationships in the Wake of Reform Noreena T. Hertz,1997 Russian Business Relationships in the Wake of Reform Noreena T. Hertz,1996 Changing Workplace Relations in the Chinese Economy M.

Warner,2000-05-31 Changing Workplace Relations in the Chinese Economy attempts to deal with how China's economic reforms have undermined the iron rice bowl system which since the 1950s has provided both lifetime employment and cradle to the grave welfare for many workers particularly those in state owned enterprises It starts by examining the background of these reforms and how they have changed workplace relations in the Chinese economy it will also look at key themes relating to the role of trade unions and the management of human resources in both state owned and joint venture firms finally a number of illustrative case studies involving industrial relations and human resource management are set out A set of contributors drawn from a wide range of disciplines and nationalities who are expert in these fields have contributed chapters to the volume University Theses in Russian, Soviet and East European Studies, 1907-2006 Gregory Piers Mountford Walker,John Simon Gabriel Simmons,2008 The bibliography records doctoral and selected masters theses over 3 300 in all from British and Irish universities in the field of Russian Soviet and East European studies This is broadly interpreted to include all disciplines in the humanities and social sciences as they relate to the area of Russia the former USSR and Eastern Europe Taken as a whole the work probably forms the fullest and longest record of British and Irish postgraduate research in any sector of area studies Besides its primary function as a bibliographic tool it makes it possible to trace the effects of academic developments institutional policies and the changes in direction in this highly diversified field of study over the last hundred years Entries are arranged by subject and area supported by full author and subject indexes to aid searching Dr Gregory Walker is a former Head of Slavonic and East European Collections at the Bodleian Library University of Oxford The late John S G Simmons OBE was Senior Research Fellow and Librarian All Souls College Oxford

Spain and the Reconstruction of Western Europe, 1945-57 F. Guirao,1998-09-14 Based on a wide range of archival sources this book analyses the response of the most peripheral country in Western Europe Franco's Spain to the challenges of increasing economic interdependence from the end of World War II to the establishment of the EEC 1945-57 In so doing the author sheds new light on the fundamental question of the survival of the Franco regime and stimulates further discussion on the external factors responsible for Spain's pattern of economic growth after 1945 Strategy, Structure and Performance in a Transition Economy Tobias Weigl,2008-08-26 Based on the results of 177 survey responses Tobias Weigl shows that the simple transfer of managerial and organizational skills techniques values and culture from developed countries to Russia is a false assumption among academics and practitioners Labour Relations in the Global Fast-Food Industry Tony Royle,Brian Towers,2004-08-02 The fast food industry is one of the few industries that can be described as truly global not least in terms of employment which is estimated at around ten million people worldwide This edited volume is the first of its kind providing an analysis of labour relations in this significant industry focusing on multinational corporations and large national companies in ten countries the USA Canada the UK the Netherlands Germany Australia New Zealand Singapore and Russia The extent to which multinational enterprises impose or adapt their employment practices in differing national industrial relations systems is analysed Results reveal that the global fast food industry is typified by trade union exclusion high labour turnover unskilled work paternalistic management regimes and work organization that allows little scope for developing workers participation in decision making let alone advocating widely accepted concepts of social justice and workers rights

Mastering the Globalization of Business Roger Cartwright, 2017-03-14 The book is designed to provide a basic understanding of the dynamics of globalization and its relevance for all types and sizes of business Commencing with a brief history that shows that globalization is not just a late 20th and early 21st century phenomenon but has been a factor in world trade since the 1600s the text then considers the two opposing views held about globalization The material goes on to look at the global implications for customer relationships marketing human resources finance and information These are areas in which a narrow national view is becoming increasingly of less value to the student The book includes questions and case studies to aid understanding Classical Theories of International Relations Ian Clark, Iver B. Neumann, 2016-07-27 Drawing on a tripartite taxonomy first suggested by the so called English School of International Relations of a Hobbesian tradition of power politics a Grotian tradition of concern with the rules that govern relations between states and a Kantian tradition of thinking which transcends the existence of the states system this book discusses the thinking of central political theorists about the modern states system Thinkers covered are Hobbes Grotius Kant Vitoria Rousseau Smith Burke Hegel Gentz and Vattel

Labour Relations and the New Unionism in Contemporary Brazil M. Barros, 1999-03-22 This book examines recent developments in Brazilian labour relations Analysing the current state of labour relations in Brazil the author shows how the proposals advanced by the new unionism have put strong pressure on the corporate system still legally enforced and have successfully developed a new political culture he terms the political culture of active citizenship
