Rutherford County In World War II Volume 2 Nc:

North Carolina and World War II Anita Price Davis, 2014-11-19 North Carolina did more than its part during World War II This Southern state trained more troops than any other state in the nation Can one still find the military posts and shipyards the cemeteries and memorials the convalescent units and R R facilities today This volume describes in detail both the state s 20 plus military sites and the eight little known North Carolina prisoner of war camps Images and memories tell the story of service personnel and their families who contributed to the war effort at much personal sacrifice The book reminds readers of how those Carolinians who remained behind did their part through supporting the troops rationing salvaging metals growing Victory Gardens and purchasing War Bonds

Rutherford County in World War II Anita Price Davis, James M. Walker, 2004 This highly anticipated follow up to Rutherford County in World War II continues to illustrate the tremendous contributions of a brave community to the World War II effort Rutherford County residents participated in almost every major campaign of the war including Pearl Harbor the air offensive in Europe and D Day and those on the home front did all they could to support the troops These patriotic photographs many of which were collected by the authors during personal interviews with local veterans and other dedicated residents memorialize this proud county s service and commitment to the war effort
