Crossing the Himalayas Nian Peng, Ghulam Ali, Yi Zhang, 2021-10-27 This book aims to analyze two contrasting trends of integration and rivalry among great powers and regional states of Himalaya It examines the interactions between the great powers and the small states in the Himalayan region analyzes the multiple effects of the great power rivalry on the regional cooperation and predicts the possible directions of the future of the geo politics and geo economy in the Himalayan region by incorporating the most recent developments The main content of the book is divided into 11 parts The Introduction briefly explains the aims and scope of this book The following chapter focuses on the Buddhist ties between China and the Himalayan states in the past two millennia and its dual influence in the Himalayan region The rest 9 chapters provide an in depth analyses of the security dilemma between China and India Indian perspectives on China South Asian relations Chinese perspectives on U S and Japan s engagement with South Asia and Indo Myanmar relations and Pakistan Sri Lanka

Bangladesh and Nepal's responses to the regional integration and great power rivalry in the Himalayan region respectively. This is the first study which brings the Himalaya region at the center of geopolitical and geo-economics cooperation and rivalry, thus highlighting its significance in Asian politics. It offers a comprehensive analysis of the complicated geo-political and geo-economic competition in the Himalayan region by inviting experts from both South Asia and China to contribute chapters. It also balances the west-centered views on the great power rivalry by introducing cultural perspective and small state perspective. The broad approach adopted in the book with focus on all important countries expands the scope of readership beyond specific academic community. The book will interest academics, policy makers, journalists, general reader and students of Asian politics.
