Sacramental Pastoral Care:

Recovering the Riches of Anointing National Association of Catholic Chaplains (U.S.). International Symposium, Kevin Tripp, 2002 Recovering the Riches of Anointing A Study of the Sacrament of the Sick is a collection of the papers presented at the international symposium sponsored by the National Association of Catholic Chaplains in May 2001 as part of a long term exploration of topics of theological and pastoral concern in the pastoral care of the sick Book jacket A History of Pastoral Care G. R. Evans, 2000-05-01 A history of pastoral care is a history of the Christian church in action But if any sense is to be made of the centuries of Christian work and effort not only the practicalities of making the message of the Gospel a reality on earth but also the ideas which have shaped the attempt century by century must be examined This is the history of 2000 years of thought and practice in Christian pastoral ministry Until comparatively late in that story the bulk of the formative thinking took place in the Middle East and in Europe and this forms the background for recent developments in understanding human nature and the ways in which that understanding has influenced our thinking in pastoral care Subjects covered range from the Biblical foundations to the sects and new religious movements from the Fathers the monks the Friars the Templars to the changes at the end of the twentieth century A Roman Catholic Theology of Pastoral Care Regis A. Duffy OFM, 2010-05-01 Drawing upon the long history of care in the sacramental mission of the clergy especially since the reforms of Vatican II Father Duffy offers a new model that can stimulate both Catholic and Protestant pastoral care to fresh thinking and imaginative reconstruction The model derives from the catechumenate that lengthy process of study and service which down through the ages has preceded baptism and guided Christian formation Reflecting a judicious use of interdisciplinary insights and praxis theology Father Duffy's vision represents an ecumenical contribution to sharpened focus and strengthened identity for pastoral care and practice Sacramental Pastoral Care Robert L. Kinast, 1988 Guide for Celebrating the Pastoral Care of the Sick J. Philip Horrigan, 2019 A thorough and pastoral walk through Pastoral Care of the Sick Rites of Anointing and Viaticum Understanding Sacramental Healing Father John Kasza, 2022-01-07 The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick plays a significant role in the lives of many throughout the Church but confusion over the sacrament can result in individuals not receiving this important comfort from the Church Understanding Sacramental Healing Anointing and Viaticum explores the rich history of the sacrament and addresses the changes that have occurred since the Second Vatican Council by providing a theological basis for the history and pastoral practice of the sacrament of the sick Father John Kasza offers a cohesive and concise synthesis of the disciplines of theology canon law medicine anthropology and liturgy geared toward assisting the practitioner in using the ritual to the fullest extent possible He also builds a greater appreciation of the sacrament and its part in the Church's role as healer in today's society By recognizing the theological tradition of the sacrament of the sick Understanding Sacramental Healing Anointing and Viaticum becomes an incisive reflection on the current state of the sacrament that will bring all priest and ministers of care to a greater

Pastoral Care as a Means to Prevent Inactivity Quintin Michael Cundiff, 2022 Pastoral Care and the Means of Grace Ralph L. Underwood, 1992-10-01

The emphasis on pastoral freedom is nearly spent and found wanting. Many caregivers today are seeking to balance such freedom with a sense of God's transcendence and communal order which entail personal and ritual formation. In Underwood's resulting spirituality the soul of pastoral care is prayer. The substance is Scripture studied in both liturgical and personal settings. The evangelical principle is reconciliation. Baptism lays the foundation for pastoral care by providing the paradigm for all transformations. Eucharist constitutes the eschatological horizon for pastoral care as ministry in the human encounter of God's presence. This winsomely written book stands at the forefront of a broad movement among scholars and clergy in nonliturgical traditions that aims at retrieving explicitly religious resources, the means of grace. The result is a rare truly ecumenical contribution to pastoral care which deepens practice by providing a vision and a spirituality.
