Sacred Canopy Elements Of A Sociological Theory Of Religion:

The Sacred Canopy Peter L. Berger, 1990-09-01 An absorbing and original examination that brilliantly argues that religion is a product of the society from which it springs featuring illustrations drawn from a variety of primitive ancient and contemporary religions In this book Berger that religion is the sacred canopy which every human society builds over its world to give it meaning expanding on theories of knowledge that he first explored with Thomas Luckmann in The Social Construction of Reality The sacred canopy : elements of a sociological theory of religion Peter L. Berger, 1969

The Sacred Canopy Peter L. Berger, 1969 The Sacred Canopy; Elements of a Sociological Theory of Religion, by Peter L. Berger Peter L. Berger, 1967 The Encyclopedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth Beyond Foundationalism Stanley James Grenz, John R. Franke, 2001-01-01 Grenz and Franke provide a methodological approach for doing theology in the postmodern world They call for a theological method that moves beyond the Enlightenment way of ordering and understanding information foundationalism They propose a theological method that takes seriously the Spirit tradition and contemporary culture while stressing trinitarian structure community and eschatology In the World, But Not of the World Andrew L. Fitz-Gibbon, 2000-01-01 In the World But Not of the World explores the threefold tension among Alasdair MacIntyre s prognosis for Western society the desires of some for a social transformation with a Christian moral vision at the sacred centre and a baptist understanding of Christianity as essentially voluntary non sacralist discipleship Andrew Fitz Gibbon uses five contemporary Christian social thinkers from different traditions as conversation partners Through his examination of these thinkers Fitz Gibbon explores how the church may continue to truthfully narrate the Christian story in the midst of the moral tensions of late capitalist Western society His creative conclusion is that the church at the beginning of the twenty first century can move toward a resolution of the central tension of being in the world but not of the world through a synthesis of the believers church tradition and an affirmation of communitarian liberal democracy

Sociological Theory and the Question of Religion Andrew McKinnon, Marta Trzebiatowska, 2016-04-01 Religion lies near the heart of the classical sociological tradition yet it no longer occupies the same place within the contemporary sociological enterprise This relative absence has left sociology under prepared for thinking about religion s continuing importance in new issues movements and events in the twenty first century This book seeks to address this lacunae by offering a variety of theoretical perspectives on the study of religion that bridge the gap between mainstream concerns of sociologists and the sociology of religion Following an assessment of the current state of the field the authors develop an emerging critical perspective within the sociology of religion with particular focus on the importance of historical background Re assessing the themes of aesthetics listening and different degrees of spiritual self discipline the authors draw on ethnographic studies of religious involvement in Norway and the UK They highlight the importance of power in the sociology of religion with help from Pierre Bourdieu Marx and Critical Discourse Analysis This book points to emerging currents in the field and offers a productive and lively way forward not just for sociological theory of religion but for the sociology of religion more generally New Patterns for Comparative Religion William E. Paden, 2016-05-19 The cross cultural study of religion has always gone hand in hand with the worldview sciences or intellectual frameworks of the time These frames whether focused on psychology or politics gender or colonialism bring out perspectives for understanding religious behavior Today one of our common civic worldviews is represented in the shift from scriptural to evolutionary history This volume brings together in one place key essays by professor emeritus William Paden showing a progression of steps he has taken in exploring bridgeworks between comparative religion and evolutionary models of religious behavior One of the leading scholars in religious studies Paden shows ways that religion can be contextualized as part of the natural world and thus seen as reflecting the ingrained sociality and world making drive of the human species Paden argues that although comparativism has been challenged as too culture bound too western or too gendered cross over categories and concepts between religious traditions cannot be avoided Arguing that there are recurrent patterns of human behavior common to our species and that thereby underlie all cultures he proposes that the missing link in the Religion Evolution debate is comparative religion a global cross cultural perspective on religious behaviours throughout time Each article is contextualized within this overall trajectory of thought within Paden s work and the history of the discipline as a whole

Friedrich Schleiermacher: Between Enlightenment and Romanticism Richard Crouter, 2005-12-22 Friedrich Schleiermacher s groundbreaking work in theology and philosophy was forged in the cultural ferment of Berlin at the convergence of the Enlightenment and Romanticism The three sections of this book include illuminating sketches of Schleiermacher s relationship to contemporaries Mendelssohn Hegel and Kierkegaard his work as public theologian dialogue on Jewish emancipation founding the University of Berlin as well as the formation and impact of his two most famous books On Religion Speeches to its Cultured Despisers and The Christian Faith Richard Crouter examines Schleiermacher s stance regarding the status of doctrine Church and political authority and the place of theology among the academic disciplines Dedicated to the Protestant Church in the line of Calvin Schleiermacher was equally a man of the university who brought the highest standards of rationality linguistic sensitivity and a sense of history to bear upon religion
