Sacred Country:

Contemplating Country Garry Worete Deverell, 2023-10-05 Contemplating Country picks up where Gondwana Theology 2018 left off. It extends and deepens the ways in which Aboriginal spirituality and Christian theology may talk to each other. Employing the image of conversation around a campfire, Contemplating Country invites the reader to consider the ways in which Christian theology, community and practice may be transformed through a deep and profound encounter with Aboriginal ways of seeing, knowing and doing. Such transformation is necessary, according to this author, if Christianity is ever to leave behind its Eurocentric habits and truly arrive in the sovereign and unceded country of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander nations.

From Country to Nation Gideon Fujiwara, 2021-05-15 From Country to Nation tracks the emergence of the modern Japanese nation in the nineteenth century through the history of some of its local aspirants. It explores how kokugaku (Japan studies) scholars envisioned their place within Japan and the globe while living in a castle town and domain far north of the political capital. Gideon Fujiwara follows the story of Hirao Rosen and fellow scholars in the northeastern domain of Tsugaru. On discovering a newly opened Japan facing the dominant Western powers and a defeated Qing China, Rosen and other Tsugaru intellectuals embraced kokugaku to secure a place for their local country within the broader nation and to reorient their native Tsugaru within the spiritual landscape of an Imperial Japan protected by the gods. Although Rosen and his fellows celebrated the rise of Imperial Japan, their resistance to the Western influence and modernity embraced by the Meiji state ultimately resulted in their own disorientation and estrangement. By analyzing their writings, treatises, travelogues, letters, poetry, liturgies and diaries alongside their artwork, Fujiwara reveals how this socially diverse group of scholars experienced the Meiji Restoration from the peripheries. Using compelling firsthand accounts, Fujiwara tells the story of the rise of modern Japan from the perspective of local intellectuals who envisioned their local country within a nation that emerged as an empire of the modern world.

Governing India, KALMYKIAN and MONGOLIAN TRADITIONAL FAIRY TALES - 39 Kalmyk and Mongolian Children's Stories Anon. E. Mouse, 2020-03-13 Herein are 39 Kalmyk/Mongolian children's fairy and folktales which are Mongolian in origin. Herein you will find stories like The Saga Of The Well And Wise Walking Khan, The Woman Who Sought Her Husband In The Palace Of Erlik Khan, The Gold Spitting Prince, Five To One, The Fortunes Of Shrikantha, The Use Of Magic Language, The Wife Who Loved Butter, Bh xu Life, The Saga Of Ardschi Bordschi, And Vikram ditja's Throne, The Boy King Schal, the Wolf boy Vikram ditja acquires another Kingdom, The Voice charmer, How Naran Gerel swore falsely and yet told the Truth, plus many many more Kalmyk folklore, fairy tales, omens and sayings, are a little researched genre of folklore. Since early times the Kalmyk people surveyed nature, animals and the birds.

around them from which they created tales legends myths songs proverbs and sayings that are notable for their keen observation which over time have been infused with a healthy dose of deep wisdom which is highly complementary to their commonly held practise of Tengric Bhuddism or Mongolian Buddhism The Kalmyk people are members of the Oirat clan which is Mongolian in origin The Kalmyks also spelled Kalmouk migrated 3 700km 2 300miles from the steppes of southern Siberia on the banks of the Irtysh River to the Lower Volga region bordering on the northern Caspian sea arriving in about 1630AD The most compelling reason was to escape the growing dominance of the neighboring Dzungar Mongol tribe Along the route of their migration the Kalmyks would have met and mixed with pagans and shamans the Jewish Khazars Islam from the Alans and Nogais and Christianity from the Russians and other Slavic tribes As such their folklore and fairytales are interwoven with elements of all these cultures creating a rich and diverse tapestry of lore which is reflected in this volume

The Historians' History of the World Vol.1 (of 25) (Illustrations) Henry Smith Williams, A complete world history should properly speaking begin with the creation of the world as man's habitat and should trace every step of human progress from the time when man first appeared on the globe Unfortunately the knowledge of to day does not permit us to follow this theoretical obligation We now know that the gaps in the history of human evolution as accessible to us to day vastly exceed the recorded chapters that in short the period with which history proper has at present to content itself is a mere moment in comparison with the vast reaches of time which in recognition of our ignorance we term prehistoric But this recognition of limitations of our knowledge is a quite recent growth no older indeed than a half century Prior to 1859 the people of Christendom rested secure in the supposition that the chronology of man's history was fully known from the very year of his creation One has but to turn to the first chapter of Genesis to find in the margin the date 4004 B C recorded with all confidence as the year of man's first appearance on the globe One finds there too a brief but comprehensive account of the manner of his appearance as well as of the creation of the earth itself his abiding place Until about half a century ago as has just been said the peoples of our portion of the globe rested secure in the supposition that this record and this date were a part of our definite knowledge of man's history Therefore one finds the writers of general histories of the earlier days of the nineteenth century beginning their accounts with the creation of man B C 4004 and coming on down to date with a full and seemingly secure chronology Our knowledge of the world and of man's history has come on by leaps and bounds since then with the curious result that to day no one thinks of making any reference to the exact date of the beginnings of human history unless indeed it be to remark that it probably reaches back some hundreds of thousands of years The historian can speak of dates anterior to 4004 B C to be sure The Egyptologist is disposed to date the building of the Pyramids a full thousand years earlier than that And the Assyriologist is learning to speak of the state of civilisation in Chaldea some 6000 or 7000 years B C with a certain measure of confidence But he no longer thinks of these dates as standing anywhere near the beginning of history He knows that man in that age in the centres of progress had attained a high stage of civilisation and he feels sure that there were some thousands of centuries of earlier time during which man was slowly climbing through savagery and barbarism of which we have only the most fragmentary record He does not pretend to know anything except by inference of the dawns of civilisation Whichever way he turns in the centres of progress such as China Egypt Chaldea India he finds the earliest accessible records covering at best a period of only eight or ten thousand years giving evidence of a civilisation already far advanced Of the exact origin of any one of the civilisations with which he deals he knows absolutely nothing The Creation of Man with its fixed chronology is a chapter that has vanished from our modern histories To be continue in this ebook
