Spaces for the Sacred Philip Sheldrake, 2001-01-31 In Spaces for the Sacred Philip Sheldrake brilliantly reveals the connection between our rootedness in the places we inhabit and the construction of our personal and religious identities Based on the prestigious Hulsean Lectures he delivered at the University of Cambridge Sheldrake s book examines the sacred narratives which derive from both overtly religious sites such as cathedrals and secular ones like the Millennium Dome and it suggests how Christian theological and spiritual traditions may contribute creatively to current debates about place

The Politics of Sacred Places Nimrod Luz, 2023-09-07 The Politics of Sacred Places is a study of the socio political dimensions of sacred sites in Israel Palestine drawing on over 20 years of in depth ethnographic research which introduces cutting edge theories on secularization struggles for recognition and diversity issues This book focuses on contemporary sacred sites and their socio political meanings for minorities within a hegemonic and a secularizing state system It argues that sacred places provide a space that is less scrutinized by the state and where alternative visions of the socio political may be produced A plethora of sites and case studies are examined including the rural shrine of Maqam abu al Hijja in the lower Galilee the Mosque of Hassan Bek in the heart of Tel Aviv Jaffa and the most disputed sacred place in the region the Haram al Sharif in Jerusalem These sites are explored through mostly a phenomenological lens and in various contexts from the individual body to the global This book offers a critical analytical study of the socio political aspects of sacred sites in contemporary societies within the broader understanding of scale and the spatial turn in the study of religion

Sacred Space for the Missional Church William R. McAlpine, 2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out. The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission. Rather, it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission. The book begins with a working definition of the missional church, underscoring the connection between God's mission (missio Dei) and the Church's mission. The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church. The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function, pragmatics, and fiscal astuteness. The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such as "form must follow function" and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs, only that it occurs. The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church.

Prayer Practice Place Sacred Place, 2024-05-02 Sacred Place Volume 1 is an anthology of Prayers, Practices, and Places. It is a tangible tool to help cultivate love for our neighbors and neighborhoods. The design resembles a travel book printed to provide an introduction and important information about a particular place. The place this guidebook introduces us to is the place we already call home. It is a guidebook created to replace our faith. The Prayers are words for us to be present to God, to others, and to ourselves. The prayers are a way to reframe the commonplace as holy ground. The Story of God is the story of God, People, and Place. Our best prayers remind us of who God is, of who we are as the People of God, and the Place he calls us to live and love is the ground beneath our feet. The Practices are ways to notice the sacred right out our front door. Practices because there is no point of arrival or perfection of loving your neighbor. Instead, we come to see the summary of Jesus of Love: God Love Neighbor as an interwoven reality. The practices of loving your neighbor and neighborhood are pathways of spiritual formation. The Places are invitations to see the beauty and creativity of God not only in the expected places of worship but in places people are seen and where our community is cared for. The places we live and work, shop and play, walk and rest form us. Each place provides an invitation to see the world with wonder and wake to the reality that God is in this place. The hope for this guidebook is for us to see, pray, live, and lead more rooted in our place. Our hope is this guidebook contributes to people taking spiritual and social responsibility for every neighbor and neighborhood in our city and state as we believe it is a sacred place.
