Welcome to the Grief Club Janine Kwok, 2022-02 A different and very modern kind of grief book not a book about how to grieve but rather a reflection and affirmation of how we grieve with thoughtful writing and a graphic approach Janine Kwok's expression of her grief experience alongside universal truths allow readers to laugh cry take what's useful and leave what's not and ultimately feel more seen and less alone

Coderspeak Guilherme Orlandini Heurich, 2024-04-22 Software applications have taken over our lives We use and are used by software many times a day Nevertheless we know very little about the invisibly ubiquitous workers who write software Who are they and how do they perceive their own practice How does that shape the ways in which they collaborate to build the myriad of apps that we use every day Coderspeak provides a critical approach to the digital transformation of our world through an engaging and thoughtful analysis of the people who write software It is a focused and in depth look at one programming language and its community Ruby based on ethnographic research at a London company and conversations with members of the wider Ruby community in Europe the Americas and Japan This book shows that the place people write code the language they write it in and the stories shared by that community are crucial in questioning and unpacking what it means to be a coder Understanding this social group is essential if we are to grasp a future and a present in which computer programming increasingly dominates our lives Praise for Coderspeak Heurich perfectly captures the generous camaraderie quirky spirit and intellectual curiosity at the heart of the Ruby world Packed with tidbits of Ruby history code snippets and fascinating conversations this book has something to teach every Rubyist Jemma Issroff Ruby Core Team Shivers Thomas Warner,2022-09-13

It is about two happy people having purchased their dream home at last only for the woman to discover that that same house the husband just bought for their retirement home is the same house she went to have an illegal abortion in when she was just fourteen years of age And of course it all comes back to haunt her and everyone around her

Letters from a Rocking Chair J. D. Patterson,2011-06-17 Through letters Jane Wilkinson describes her life as a pioneer Iowa farm lady She was born during the Civil War and died eighty nine years later She bore seven children and although widowed she became the anchor of her family Her steady pursuit of self reliance and the importance of family and steadfastness reflected qualities which have never gone out of fashion Her credo was life is only boring if youre bored with life a condition she never allowed As a child she came to Iowa in a covered wagon and her many descendants continue her legacy
