W. Musgrave, 2015-08-27 Originally published in 1985 This is a fascinating account of the life cycle of a minor literary genre the boys school story It discusses early nineteenth century precursors of the school story didactic works with such revealing titles as The Parents Assistant and goes on to examine in detail the two major examples of the genre Hughes's Tom Brown's School Days and Farrar's Eric The slow development of the genre during the 1860s and 1870s is traced and its institutionalisation by Talbot Baines Reed in for example The Fifth Form at St Dominic's is described Many similar works were subsequently published for adults and adolescents and the author shows how they differ from the originals in being critical in tone and written to a formula in plot and style This development is discussed in relation to the changing social structure of Britain up to 1945 by which time the life of the genre was almost ended Bibliography of Library Economy Harry George Turner Cannons, 1910 Library Work, 1910
