Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Small Business,1969 Wonderful Things: Byzantium through its Art Liz James,Antony Eastmond,2016-12-05 The essays collected in this book were delivered at the XLII Spring Symposium of Byzantine Studies held in London in 2009 to accompany the exhibition Byzantium 330 1453 at the Royal Academy The exhibition was one of the most ambitious and complex exhibitions ever mounted at the Royal Academy as well as one of the most popular and the overall aim of the book is to reflect on the exhibition of Byzantine art both as an academic and popular exercise and through the choice and discussion of individual objects Exhibitions present a very different picture of Byzantium and its culture from works of history The choices of object for display their arrangement and the underlying aims of exhibition curators and designers mean that every exhibition presents a different picture of Byzantium Particular emphases can be placed whether on everyday life or high court culture Constantinople or the provinces or claims of continuity or change over the Byzantine millennium The essays explore aspects of the image of Byzantium that results from these choices Given the enormous popularity of exhibitions of Byzantine objects continued after the completion of this volume by exhibitions in Paris Bonn and Istanbul art has become one of the most popular and accessible means of popularizing Byzantium to a wide public audience Hitherto there has been no general consideration of either the historiography of Byzantine exhibitions or the ways in which they have been set up to present different aspects of Byzantine culture to an academic and general public The essays are divided into 3 sections Exhibiting Byzantium sets the 2009 exhibition into the context of other exhibitions of Byzantine art and considers the issues involved in curating and viewing such major collections of medieval art Object Lessons offers a set of studies of individual objects that were in the exhibition Byzantium through its Art moves to consider Byzantine art more widely thinking about the different ways in which objects can be used to study Byzantine culture and society These are preceded by an introduction by the editors which sets the volume in context Grayson's ... Exhibit Guide for Selected Art Museums ,1987 Duveen Meryle Secrest,2005-11 Anyone who has admired Gainsborough's Blue Boy of the Huntington Collection in California or Rembrandt's Aristotle Contemplating the Bust of Homer at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York owes much of his or her pleasure to art dealer Joseph Duveen 1869-1939 Regarded as the most influential or in some circles notorious dealer of the twentieth century Duveen established himself selling the European masterpieces of Titian Botticelli Giotto and Vermeer to newly and lavishly wealthy American businessmen J P Morgan John D Rockefeller and Andrew Mellon to name just a few It is no exaggeration to say that Duveen was the driving force behind every important private art collection in the United States The first major biography of Duveen in more than fifty years and the first to make use of his enormous archive only recently opened to the public Meryle Secrest's Duveen traces the rapid ascent of the tirelessly enterprising dealer from his humble beginnings running his father's business to knighthood and eventually apogee The eldest of eight sons of Jewish Dutch immigrants Duveen inherited an uncanny ability to spot a hidden treasure from his father proprietor of a prosperous antiques business After his father's death Duveen moved the company into the riskier but lucrative market of paintings and quickly became one of the world's leading art dealers The key to Duveen's success was his simple observation that while Europe had the art America had the money Duveen made his fortune by buying art from declining European aristocrats and selling them to the squillionaires in the United States By far the best account of Joseph Duveen's life in a biography that is rich in detail scrupulously researched and sympathetically written Secrest's inquiries into early twentieth century collecting whet our appetite for a more general history of the art market in the first half of the twentieth century John Brewer New York Review of Books The World's Master Paintings ,1992 Garò Z. Antreasian Garò Z. Antreasian,2016-01-15 Garò Z Antreasian b 1922 belongs to the great generation of innovators in mid twentieth century American art While influenced by a variety of European artists in his early years it was his involvement with Tamarind Lithography Workshop starting in 1960 that transformed his work As Tamarind's founding technical director he revolutionized the medium of lithography He discovered how to manipulate the spontaneous possibilities of lithography in the manner of the Abstract Expressionist painters In addition to reflecting on his work he writes movingly about his Armenian heritage and its importance in his art his teaching and his love affair with all sorts of artistic media Illustrating his drawings paintings and prints this book reveals Antreasian as a major American artist This book was made possible in part by generous contributions from the Frederick Hammersley Foundation and Gerald Peters Gallery
