Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology Opened by the World Jos Francisco Morales Torres constructs a new theological anthropology that begins with wonder He contends that the visceral experience of wonder is an opening up of the human by an excess that saturates the world This opened by ness points to a transforming receptivity as the basis of the person and to an extravagant Generosity that grounds all creation Thus wonder which is grounded in generous Excess is not only a gift but a demand it calls for a liberative praxis that resist the forces that flatten the fullness of life into what is useful and profitable and that reduce the limitless worth of fellow humans to mere commodities to be exploited and exchanged at the altar of the idolatrous Market Wonder reveals a primordial receptivity in the human person which demands of us an ethic of sustainability that does not reduce the other to commodity a vulnerability that risks being opened by the other a commitment to solidarity and liberation that resist the forces of an insatiable idolatrous Market that seeks only to steal and kill and destroy Phenomenologies of Love ,2025-03-13 This edited volume offers a comprehensive view of various possible phenomenological approaches of the experience of love ranging from classical historical perspectives up to contemporary and critical viewpoints It explores both the crucial importance of the question of love for the history of phenomenology as well as the rich potential of phenomenology for a deeper insight in the experience of love and its various dimensions such as its affective relational but also ethical and religious aspects The Moral Psychology of Shame

Alessandra Fussi,Raffaele Rodogno,2023-02-01 Few emotions have divided opinion as deeply as shame Some scholars have argued that shame is essentially a maladaptive emotion used to oppress minorities and reinforce stigmas and traumas an emotion that leaves the self at the mercy of powerful others Other scholars however have argued that the absence of a sense of shame in a subject their shamelessness is tantamount to a vicious moral insensitivity As the eleven original chapters in this collection attest however shame scholars are entering a new phase one in which scholarship no longer attempts to defend one side of shame against the other but rather accepts both faces as faithful to the phenomenon to be explained At the core of our understanding of shame there are profound disagreements about the importance of the Other in shaping our moral identity As this collection shows by its study of shame the difficulty of the connection between Self Other and morality spans over millennia and cultures and currently animates important debates at the core of feminism and disability studies Contributors Mark Alfano Alessandra Fussi Lorenzo Greco JeeLoo Liu Katrine Krause Jensen Heidi L Maibom Tjeert Olthof Imke von Maur Alba Montes S nchez Raffaele Rodogno Alessandro Salice Krista K Thomason ngrid Vendrell Ferran

Hagberg, 2019-11-15 This exciting new edited collection bridges the gap between narrative and self understanding The problem of self knowledge is of universal interest the nature or character of its achievement has been one continuing thread in our philosophical tradition for millennia Likewise the nature of storytelling the assembly of individual parts of a potential story into a coherent narrative structure has been central to the study of literature But how do we gain knowledge from an artform that is by definition fictional by definition not a matter of ascertained fact as this applies to the understanding of our lives When we see ourselves in the mimetic mirror of literature what we see may not just be a matter of identifying with a single protagonist but also a matter of recognizing long form structures long arc narrative shapes that give a place to and thus make sense of the individual bits of experience that we place into those structures But of course at precisely this juncture a question arises do we make that sense or do we discover it The twelve chapters brought together here lucidly and steadily reveal how the matters at hand are far more intricate and interesting than any such dichotomy could accommodate This is a book that investigates the ways in which life and literature speak to each other Science Meets Philosophy Hans Christian Garmann Johnsen, 2023-04-26 The book is an attempt to bring together what are often seen as incommensurable scientific and philosophical positions Its core argument is that a main reason for the divisions about what constitutes scientific knowledge relates to disagreements on philosophical issues The book explores what these disagreements are about and discusses whether they can be overcome Taking a historical perspective the book traces the divides in science back to three main philosophical traditions realism idealism and scepticism It maps how these have inspired three main current positions in science logical empiricism phenomenology and sociology of scientific knowledge The book is intended for a general audience concerned with today's debates on scientific knowledge and society It will be useful for students and researchers studying philosophy of science sociology of scientific knowledge realism phenomenology positivism logical empiricism analytical philosophy and sustainable scientific knowledge The Matrix of Christian Ethics Patrick Nullens, Ronald T. Michener, 2013-12-06 Patrick Nullens and Ronald T Michener seek to revitalize Christian ethics through an integrative approach to classical ethics Their matrix of consequential principle virtue and value ethics provides an alternative to postmodern situation ethics and brings the framework of biblical wisdom to bear on contemporary ethical questions

Wilfrid Sellars and Twentieth-Century Philosophy Stefan Brandt, Anke Breunig, 2019-08-13 This collection features eleven original essays divided into three thematic sections which explore the work of Wilfrid Sellars in relation to other twentieth century thinkers Section I analyzes Sellars s thought in light of some of his influential predecessors specifically Ludwig Wittgenstein Rudolf Carnap John Cook Wilson and Kazimierz Ajdukiewicz The second group of essays explores from different perspectives Sellars s place within the analytic tradition including his relation with analytic Kantianism and analytic pragmatism The book s final section extracts some of the most significant lessons Sellars s work has to offer for contemporary philosophy These chapters address his views on inference his views on truth and its connection to recent discussions about truth relativism and truth pluralism his conception of self knowledge and his theory of perceptual experience Wilfrid Sellars Willem deVries, 2005-11-28 Wilfrid Sellars 1912 1989 has been called the most profound and systematic epistemological thinker of the twentieth century Many of his ideas have become widely acknowledged including his attack on the myth of the given his functionalist treatment of intentional states his proposal that psychological concepts are like theoretical concepts and his suggestion that attributions of knowledge locate the knower in the logical space of reasons Notoriously difficult to understand Sellars essays are not only complex but were never situated within a unified exposition of his thought Willem deVries addresses these difficulties and provides a careful reading and remarkable overview of Sellars systematic philosophy This clear comprehensive and authoritative work will become the standard point of reference for all philosophers seeking to understand Sellars s hugely significant body of work Phenomenology and Lacan on Schizophrenia Alphonse de Waelhens, Wilfried Ver Eecke, 2001 In Phenomenology and Lacan on Schizophrenia Alphonse De Waelhens provides a clear summary of Lacan s theory of schizophrenia as Lacan derived it from his commentary of Freud s study of the Memoirs of Schreber De Waelhens also shows how Lacan s understanding of the schizophrenic as having a defective relation to language can also explain four other characteristics of schizophrenic behavior the fragmented body image lack of realistic evaluation of the world so called bisexuality and confusion of birth and death Third De Waelhens gives a Hegelian interpretation of the pre Oedipal experience of the child He makes use of Freud s study on his grand child using a bobbin and later the words fort da away here to demonstrate that a transitional object allows the child to take distance from its attachment to the mother so that it can start to separate itself from the mother Taking distance is according to De

Waelhens introducing the Hegelian negative which is the birth of the subject Fourth De Waelhens gives a dialectic reading of the history of German and French psychiatry He shows the epistemological contradictions in the work of some of the great nineteenth century psychiatrists relying too exclusively on a biological model of schizophrenia In his contribution to this volume Wilfried Ver Eecke draws several lessons from evaluating the literature on schizophrenia He argues that epistemologically neither a biological nor a psychological method of reasoning can capture all the factors that can play a role in the creation of schizophrenia He relies heavily but not exclusively on the Finnish studies of Tienari Myrman and Wahlberg and their colleagues to provide statistical evidence that non biological factors also play an important role in causing schizophrenia He relies heavily but again not exclusively on the study by Karon and VandenBos to demonstrate statistically the efficiency of psychodynamically inspired therapy of schizophrenics Ver Eecke also addresses an apparent inconsistency in De Waelhens presentation of Lacan's theory of schizophrenia Where De Waelhens seemed to argue at one time that the mother figure was the crucial figure to explain schizophrenia leading to a defective relation to the body and at another time that it was the role of the father which was crucial leading to a defective relation to language and the symbolic there Ver Eecke argues that the defective function of each influences the function of the other He then draws a conclusion for the therapy of schizophrenics to be helpful a therapist will have to address both deficiencies The problem for treating schizophrenics is that correcting an unconscious deficiency to the body a deficiency in the imaginary requires a totally different kind of intervention than an attempt to correct a symbolic deficiency a deficiency in the paternal function A correction of the imaginary requires a kind of maternal mirroring a correction of the symbolic requires making a distinction or a prohibition stick One further difficulty arises Psychotherapy uses language in its treatment However language in schizophrenics is deficient We can therefore expect that language will be inefficient This is so unless the therapist uses language first to make a repair at the imaginary level and only thereafter makes an attempt to make a correction in the symbolic In analyzing successful therapeutic techniques reported by several therapists Ver Eecke discovers that all of them first try to repair the imaginary before they attempt to make corrections to the symbolic
