Selected Prose Poets On Poetry:

On Poetry and Craft Theodore Roethke, 2001-01-01 Roethke's prose teems with fierce intelligence and outrageous quoteable quotes

Complete Poetry and Selected Prose Walt Whitman, 1959 An anthology of Walt Whitman's poetry and some of his prose works includes introductions and prefaces to some of the poems

Evolution of the Bridge Maxine Chernoff, 2004 Evolution of the Bridge Selected Prose Poems collects work from Maxine Chernoff's previous volumes written over the past thirty years. It features such classics as The Last Aurochs, A Vegetable Emergency Utopia, TV Store, New Faces of 1952 and provides the reader with ample evidence that Maxine Chernoff continues to be one of the most significant practitioners of the prose poem in America today. As Michael Benedikt, editor of The Prose Poem: An International Anthology, said of her work: "Underlying all of Maxine Chernoff's prose poems is the possibility of magic. Writing in the fabulist mode, she explores the bizarre in everyday life and questions the very rules of engagement with language, social norms, and politics. The reader is jolted out of his complacency by the lens of her writing. If the world could look through Maxine's eyes for even five minutes every day, there would be no need whatsoever for the pompous self-righteousness that currently spoils the polis. Her views of human life are wise and corrective tales that cure by correcting perspective." Andrei Codrescu. Her abiding interest in the prose poem has led to a collection that not only shows what she has done to revitalize the form but also where it may go from here. Witness the new prose poems in the section collected from World Poems 1991-2001. As Rachel Loden notes: "The absurdist playlets cum vaudeville skits are some of the best fun ever vouchsafed to a poetry book. Each of these routines is a valiant attempt to limn the shape of human logic, a project that turns out to be both daunting and curiously satisfying. What's left is the spine of language and the rippled furrows of the human brain. And perhaps Groucho Marx and Margaret Dumont at war in a sort of paradise." Ethan Paquin, referring to the same dialogue-based prose poems, states that these comedic scenes are remarkable for their transcendence of comedy. It is as if the speakers were engaged in the world's final debate. The only question is: Which world?

Selected Prose and Prose-Poems Gabriela Mistral, 2010-01-01 The first Latin American to receive a Nobel Prize for Literature, the Chilean writer Gabriela Mistral (1889-1957) is often characterized as a healing, maternal voice who spoke on behalf of women, indigenous peoples, the disenfranchised children, and the rural poor. She is that political poet and more a poet of philosophical meditation, self-consciousness, and daring. This is a book full of surprises and paradoxes. The complexity and structural boldness of these prose poems, especially the female erotic prose pieces of her first book, make them an important moment in the history of literary modernism in a tradition that runs from Baudelaire, the North American moderns, and the South American postmodernists. It's a book that will be eye-opening and informative to the general reader as well as to students of gender studies, cultural studies, literary history, and poetry. This Spanish-English bilingual volume gathers the most famous and representative prose writings of Gabriela Mistral, which have not been as readily available to English-only readers as her poetry. The pieces are grouped into four sections: Fables, Elegies, and Things of the Earth includes fifteen of Mistral's most accessible prose poems Prose and Prose Poems from Desolaci n Desolation 1922 presents all the prose from Mistral's first important book Lyrical Biographies are Mistral's poetic meditations on Saint Francis and Sor Juana de la Cruz Literary Essays Journalism Messages collects pieces that reveal Mistral's opinions on a wide range of subjects including the practice of teaching the writers Alfonso Reyes Alfonsina Storni Rainer Maria Rilke and Pablo Neruda Mistral's own writing practices and her social beliefs Editor translator Stephen Tapscott rounds out the volume with a chronology of Mistral's life and a brief introduction to her career and prose On the Poet and His Craft Theodore Roethke, 1965

Drawing from both primary and secondary sources, including previously unknown documents, correspondence, interviews, FBI files, and newspaper clippings, the introduction by Jeff Biggers stands as the most thorough insightful biographical sketch of Don West yet published in any form. The afterword by George Brosi is a stirring personal tribute to the contributions of West and also serves as a thoughtful reflection on the interactions between the radicals of the 1930s and the 1960s. The best possible introduction to his extraordinary life and work, this annotated selection of Don West's writings will be inspirational reading for anyone interested in Southern history, poetry, religion, or activism. Collected Poems and Selected Prose Charlotte Mew, 2006-08 This collection reveals the full range of Charlotte Mew's work, showcasing the urgency and passion that compelled her to reinvent forms and prosodies to explore her complex pains and loves. A blend of the straightforward, the wry, and the hopeful, the essays in The Life of Images explore subjects ranging from literary criticism to philosophy, photography to Simic's childhood in a war-torn country. Culled from five collections, each work demonstrates the qualities that make Simic's poetry so brilliant yet accessible.
