Women in Korean Zen Martine Batchelor, Son'gyong Sunim, 2006-03-09 In this engagingly written account Martine Batchelor relays the challenges a new ordinand faces in adapting to Buddhist monastic life the spicy food the rigorous daily schedule the distinctive clothes and undergarments and the cultural misunderstandings inevitable between a French woman and her Korean colleagues She reveals as well the genuine pleasures that derive from solitude meditative training and communion with the deeply religious whom the Buddhists call good friends Batchelor has also recorded the oral history autobiography of her teacher the eminent nun Son gyong Sunim leader of the Zen meditation hall at Naewonsa It is a profoundly moving often light hearted story that offers insight into the challenges facing a woman on the path to enlightenment at the beginning of the twentieth century Original English translations of eleven of Son gyong Sunim s poems on Buddhist themes make a graceful and thought provoking coda to the two women s narratives Western readers only familiar with Buddhist ideas of female inferiority will be surprised by the degree of spiritual equality and authority enjoyed by nuns in Korea While American writings on Buddhism increasingly emphasize the therapeutic self help and comforting aspects of Buddhist thought Batchelor s text offers a bracing and timely reminder of the strict discipline required in traditional Buddhism

Modernizing the Korean Welfare State Neil Gilbert, 2019-01-22 Modernizing the Korean Welfare State

analyzes recent developments in social and public policy in South Korea Its focus is the new approach to Korea s system of social protection known as the productive welfare paradigm This volume brings together an international group of scholars to examine the new paradigm and associated policy developments In the first part contributors examine the significance of the productive welfare paradigm and recent policy developments within a broader comparative and international perspective

They question the commitment to welfare in the paradigm viewing it largely as an example of a global trend towards the enabling state in which social welfare serves largely economic goals Other contributors situate the new paradigm in relation to globalization and its implications for national strategies of social protection developed in earlier times The new departure in Korea is compared to European welfare state development and contributors find it a bold attempt to fashion a comprehensive welfare state based on social rights In the second part contributors focus on specific issues and policy areas These include the degree to which Korea has been following a pro poor growth policy They evaluate developments in the area of unemployment and work injury insurance They review the progress of policies in the area of social insurance and assistance and the American system of income support for low income earners and its lessons for Korean policymakers Other contributors review the public pensions system in Korea and environmental protection policies are discussed and the impact of those policies on the poor and people of color who are disproportionately exposed to environmental hazards

Companion to Korean Literature consists of 35 chapters written by leaders in the field who explore significant topics and who have pioneered innovative approaches. The collection highlights the most dynamic current scholarship on Korean literature, presenting rigorous literary analysis, interdisciplinary methodologies, and transregional thinking so as to provide a valuable and inspiring resource for researchers and students alike. This Companion has particular significance as the most extensive collection to date of English language articles on Korean literature; it both offers a thorough intellectual engagement with current scholarship and addresses a broad range of topics and time periods from premodern to contemporary. It will contribute to an understanding of literature as part of a broad sociocultural process that aims to put the field into conversation with other fields of study in the humanities and social sciences. While presenting rigorous and innovative academic research that will be useful to graduate students and researchers, the chapters in the collection are written to be accessible to the average upper level undergraduate student and include only minimal use of academic jargon. In an effort to provide substantially helpful material for researching teaching and learning Korean literature, this Companion includes as an appendix an extensive list of English translations of Korean literature.

Integrated Korean Young-mee Yu Cho, Hyo Sang Lee, Carol Schulz, Ho-min Sohn, Sung-Ock Sohn, 2019-12-31. This is a thoroughly revised edition of Integrated Korean Beginning 2, the second volume of the best-selling series developed collaboratively by leading classroom teachers and linguists of Korean. All the series volumes have been developed in accordance with performance-based principles and methodology: contextualization, learner-centeredness, use of authentic materials, usage-orientedness, balance between skill-getting and skill-using, and integration of speaking, listening, reading, writing, and culture. Grammar points are systematically introduced in simple but adequate explanations and abundant examples and exercises. Each situation/topic-based lesson of the main texts consists of model dialogues, narration, new words and expressions, vocabulary notes, culture, grammar usage, and English translation of dialogues. In response to comments from hundreds of students and instructors of the second edition, this new third edition features an attractive color design with new photos and drawings and lesson and vocabulary exercises that have been fully reorganized. Each lesson contains a conversational text with its own vocabulary list and a reading passage. The accompanying workbook, available online as well as in paperback, provides students with extensive skill-using activities based on the skills learned in the main text. Integrated Korean is a project of the Korean Language Education and Research Center (KLEAR) with the support of the Korea Foundation. In addition to the five-level Integrated Korean textbooks and workbooks, volumes include Korean Composition, Korean Language in Culture and Society, Korean Reader for Chinese Characters, Readings in Modern Korean Literature, A Resource for Korean Grammar Instruction, and Selected Readings in Korean.
