Rigby believes there are grounds for optimism This passionate and motivating book shows that there are ways of reducing the likelihood of bullying occurring in a school and effective ways of tackling cases when they do occur Using up to date studies Bullying in Schools helps us to understand the nature of bullying and why it so often takes place in schools Importantly it examines and evaluates what schools can do to promote more positive peer relationships within the school community and take effective and sustainable action to deal with problems that may arise Teachers parents school leaders policy makers and health professionals will find it invaluable and empowering Best We Forget Peter

Cochrane, 2018-07-30 The preparation for a coming war and ultimately the commitment to that war was driven by White Australia's sense of vulnerability in the Pacific by various nightmare scenarios in which Australia could be left to fend for itself unaided by Britain and by the determination to have racial purity at almost any cost When the war came finally the strategy was simple enough by promising total support the Australians hoped to secure Britain's unequivocal support in return for a White Australia They hoped they would not be forsaken Dr Peter Cochrane is a writer of non-fiction opinion and travel His works have won many awards including the Fellowship of Australian Writers Award for Non Fiction 1993 for Simpson and the Donkey He also won the Age Book of the Year and the Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History in 2007 for Colonial Ambition He lives in Sydney This careful detailed account establishes that an important motive for our participation in World War I was the preservation of white Australia from Asian contamination Age A great read and an important contribution to making forgotten history more accessible the kind of book that will seep into the national consciousness over time Tim Watts federal MP and co author of Two Futures The words White Australia and Anzac rarely keep company In this brilliant and provocative reassessment Peter Cochrane strips away the layers of myth to show that for Australian leaders World War I was a white racial struggle with fear of Japan and distrust of Britain as much as loathing of Germany at its heart After Best We Forget Australia's war should never look quite the same again Frank Bongiorno professor of history at the ANU and author of The Eighties Revelatory history at its best Every Australian politician journalist and high school student should read this fluent and compelling story that exhumes an unpalatable truth about our motives for going to war in 1914 and reflect on what it tells us about race fear and the value of history Stephen FitzGerald chairman of China Matters former diplomat and author of Comrade Ambassador Cochrane sweeps away the myth to expose the uncomfortable racial truth at the heart of Anzac Paul Daley award winning journalist and author of Beersheba Unsettling and revelatory The primary purpose of Cochrane's fascinating book is to alert readers to the racial dimension of Australia's participation in World War I It also addresses the key historiographical question of what is remembered and what is forgotten and why He has succeeded admirably in this illuminating book Illuminating Australian Best We Forget is quite simply the most important book on Australia and the Great War to appear in the course of the war's centenary Cochrane has made the original and profound connection between Australian racial fears and its participation in the Great War This is something that amazingly

no one else has done Cochrane's is a most original and illuminating argument Peter Stanley Honest History The Spectacle of Skill Robert Hughes, 2015 A selection of the best writing by the most important and thunderously outspoken art and culture critic of our time including approximately 125 never before seen pages from the unfinished second volume of his memoir which he was working on at the time of his death in 2012 With an introduction by Adam Gopnik The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry The Literature of Australia Geoffrey Dutton, 1976 Social setting Australian poetry Australian fiction Australian drama Ballads and popular verse The Bulletin Henry Lawson Joseph Furphy Christopher Brennan Henry Handel Richardson Kenneth Slessor Judith Wright Patrick White Christina Stead Martin Boyd
