Selected Works of Jawaharlal Nehru: 1 July 1953-30 September 1953 Jawaharlal Nehru, Prophet and Statesmen in Crafting Democracy in India Fabio Leone, 2019-09-05 Drawing on expert works early political and government records and personal correspondence Fabio Leone examines the most commonly cited explanations of the unlikely and puzzling democratization of India He concludes that the creation of Indian democracy is best understood when assessing the combination of capacities and behaviors of the Indian political leadership Through a theoretical framework he demonstrates that Indian democratization was the result of successful interplay between a limited number of key leaders with the main player being Jawaharlal Nehru Prophet and Statesmen in Crafting Democracy in India offers an explanation of the origins of Indian democracy that will interest scholars and students of comparative politics democratization political leadership and South Asian politics and history Selected Works of Jawaharlal Nehru: 1 June 1954-30 Sept. 1954 Jawaharlal Nehru, 1984 This volume covers nearly eleven weeks from October 6 1948 when Nehru left India for London to attend the Commonwealth Prime Ministers Conference to December 19 when the annual session of the Indian National Congress at Jaipur concluded It collects Nehru s addresses and articles related to this stressful time in world history Among his articles are support for the causes of Indonesia and the Africans in their battles against alien rulers arguments for the continued membership of India in the Commonwealth and a piece on the importance of protecting Indian interests in neighboring countries Above all Nehru stressed the need to maintain secular values and the urgency of restructuring the economy to meet the demands of free India

Syria and the Doctrine of Arab Neutralism Rami Ginat, 2010-02-03 This book examines the modern history of post mandatory Syria The evolution of the Syrian ideology and policy of neutralism since the early stages of the Cold War is explained and the effects that Arab neutralism had on shaping Syria s foreign policy and the shaping of its national identity are identified The phenomenon of Arab neutralism has never before been comprehensively investigated The prevailing belief is that the formulation and realisation of the policy of anti alignment began only during Nasser s first years in power in Egypt However the author demonstrates that the roots of neutralism were already sown in Arab soil in the early 1940s and that successive Syrian governments carved out this policy during the final stages of World War II A core issue in the analysis is the dynamic between ideology and policy A conceptual framework is developed to explain the various patterns of neutralism that emerged and the complex of relationships between features exhibited by Syria the Arab world and the Third World The book makes extensive use of newly declassified material gleaned from archives in India the former USSR Poland Britain the United States and Israel primary sources studied and interpreted in the original Arabic are also widely utilised Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000

Civilizing Missions in Colonial and Postcolonial South Asia Carey A. Watt,Michael Mann,2011-03-15 Civilizing Missions in Colonial and Postcolonial South Asia offers a series of analyses that highlights the complexities of British and Indian civilizing missions in original ways and through various historiographical approaches The book applies the concept of the civilizing mission to a number of issues in the colonial and postcolonial eras in South Asia economic development state building pacification nationalism cultural improvement gender and generational relations caste and untouchability religion and missionaries class relations urbanization NGOs and civil society 1998 Massimo Mastrogregori,2013-05-08 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors India and the Anglosphere Alexander Davis,2018-12-07 India has become known in the US the UK Canada and Australia as the world s largest democracy a natural ally the democratic counterweight to China and a trading partner of massive economic potential This new foreign policy orthodoxy assumes that India will join with these four states and act just as any other democracy would A set of political and think tank elites has emerged which seek to advance the cause of a culturally superior if ill defined Anglosphere Building on postcolonial and constructivist approaches to international relations this book argues that the same Eurocentric assumptions about India pervade the foreign policies of the Anglosphere states international relations theory and the idea of the Anglosphere The assertion of a shared cultural superiority has long guided the foreign policies of the US the UK Canada and Australia and this has been central to these states relationships with postcolonial India This book details these difficulties through historical and contemporary case studies which reveal the impossibility of drawing India into Anglosphere type relationships At the centre of India Anglosphere relations then is not a shared resonance over liberal ideals but a postcolonial clash over race identity and hierarchy A valuable contribution to the much needed scholarly quest to follow a critical lens of inquiry into international relations this book will be of interest to academics and advanced students in international relations Indian foreign policy Asian studies and those interested in the Anglosphere as a concept in international affairs Selected Works of Jawaharlal Nehru: 1 July 1953-30 Sept. 1953 Jawaharlal Nehru, India at the Global High Table Teresita C.
