China s long and continuous revolution Currently this new phase is being symbolically referred to by the Chinese leaders themselves as the New Long March a continuation of the legendary and historical Long March in terms of modernization which comprises the Four Modernizations Agriculture Industry Science and Technology and Military Defense Such an all encompassing attempt at modernization may appear to some at least to be something new or may indicate a radical shift in her policy But upon closer examination this decision seems only to reflect an historical continuity in terms of the two major long term goals of the Chinese Revolution national independence and modernization or industrialization The former would make China strong the latter wealthy For ever since the Opium War in 1840 and throughout the Revolutions of 1911 and 1949 China has always pursued these two revolutionary goals though with different emphases at different times This has been especially true during the past three decades as this twofold goal has dictated all of China s important policies both domestic and foreign In other words while the concrete policies may have appeared to be lacking in unity at times they have been formulated with the specific intent of achieving national independence and modernization From this perspective the Encyclopedia of Military Science G. Kurt Piehler,2013-07-24 The Encyclopedia of Military Science provides a comprehensive ready reference on the organization traditions training purpose and functions of today s military Entries in this four volume work include coverage of the duties responsibilities and authority of military personnel and an understanding of strategies and tactics of the modern military and how they interface with political social legal economic and technological factors A large component is devoted to issues of leadership group dynamics motivation problem solving and decision making in the military context Finally this work also covers recent American military history since the end of the Cold War with a special emphasis on peacekeeping and peacemaking operations the First Persian Gulf War the events surrounding 9 11 and the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and how the military has been changing in relation to these events Click here to read an article on The Daily Beast by Encyclopedia editor G Kurt Piehler Why Don t We Build Statues For Our War Heroes Anymore Politics, Policy and Power in Translation History Lieven D'hulst,Carol O'Sullivan,Michael Schreiber,2016-09-09 The contributions in this book are partly based on papers given at the 7th congress of the European Society for Translation Studies held at the University of Mainz in Gernersheim For this publication all papers have undergone a review process In order to illustrate the variety of contents and approaches involved in the concepts of translation policy and politics the chapters are organised thematically rather than chronologically The objective in doing so was to show how policies influence a wide array of discursive practices The first group of articles is concerned with the policy of translating and interpreting in power settings A second group deals with translation policies as applied to a wide corpus of literary texts A third group is devoted to the policies of media translation Politics of the 'Other' in India and China Lion Koenig,Bidisha Chaudhuri,2016-02-22 The social sciences have been heavily influenced by modernization theory focusing on issues of economic growth political development and social change in order to develop a predictive model of linear progress for developing countries following a Western prototype Under this hegemonic paradigm of development the world tends to get divided into simplistic binary oppositions between the West and the rest us and them and self and other Proposing to shift the discussion on what constitutes the Other as opposed to the Self from philosophy and cultural studies to the social sciences this book explores how the structural asymmetries existing between Western discourses and the realities of the non Western world manifest themselves in the ideas institutions and socio political practices of India and China and in how far they shape the social scientist s understanding of their discipline in general It provides a counter narrative by revealing the relativity of geographies and by showing that the conventional presentation of core elements of the Asian socio political set up as aberrations from the Western models fails to acknowledge their inherent strategic character of adapting

Western concepts to meet local requirements Drawing on multiple disciplines concepts and contexts in India and China the book makes a valuable contribution to the theory and practice of politics as well as to International and Asian Studies

Post-Western Sociology - From China to Europe Laurence Roulleau-Berger, Li Peilin, 2018-05-15 This book is rooted in an epistemological approach to sociology in which the boundaries between Western and non Western sociologies are acknowledged and built on It argues that knowledge is organised in conceptual spaces linked to paradigms and programmes which in turn are linked to ethnocentred knowledge processes that until recently Western approaches including Post Colonial French Social Science and American approaches have dominated non Western theories and that Western theories have sometimes seemed incapable of explaining phenomena produced in other societies It goes on to argue that the blurring of boundaries between Western and non Western sociologies is very important and that such a Post Western approach will mean co production and co construction of common knowledge the recognition of ignored or forgotten scientific cultures and a global change in sociology which imposes theoretical and methodological detours displacements reversals and conversions The book brings together a wide range of Western and Chinese sociologists who explore the consequences of this new approach in relation to many different issues and aspects of sociology

On the Alternative Punishment to the Death Penalty in China Gui Huang, 2024-04-17 This book presents a study of alternative penalties to the death penalty in China aiming to promote theoretical exploration of death penalty reform in China as well as long term penal reform Currently China is endeavouring to control the use of the death penalty and is gradually moving towards its abolition The factors influencing the choice of the punishment option to replace the death penalty are complex and varied and include the traditional punishment culture penalty concepts the political system the punishment system public opinion and human rights etc Given the differences between China and developed Western democratic states when we examine these influencing factors we cannot ignore the culture of the punishment and the special political and legislation system in China In this light this work examined and analysed the factors that influence the choice of punishment option to replace the death penalty in this special political system with its clearly Chinese characteristics Criminal policy and public opinion are two significant and typical factors involving obvious political considerations in China The former normally reflects and carries out the will of the Government as expressed to the national management the latter responds to the majority of citizens view on the current legal system and it is to a great extent the basis for national leadership s running of the country Even though life imprisonment without release hereinafter LWOR has been stipulated by the Ninth Amendment for the crime of corruption it should not be the preferable option as the alternative sanction to the death penalty because it is a kind of cruel torture and violates the constitutional principle of human rights protection On the contrary life imprisonment with possibility of release hereinafter LWPR would be an option but the termination mechanisms for inmates should be set out in accordance with the principle of proportional justice aggravated life imprisonment can be chosen to replace the death penalty in China In addition there needs to be improvements made to the relevant criminal systems By examining China's death penalty reform and long term imprisonment reform this book not only explains the methodology of the reform theoretically but also pays attention to the issues of legislation and judicial practice This book is of interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of criminal justice penal reform issues and crime control in China
