Poems for the Millennium, Volume Three Jerome Rothenberg, Jeffrey C. Robinson, 2009-01-19 The previous two volumes of this acclaimed anthology set forth a globally decentered revision of twentieth century poetry from the perspective of its many avant gardes Now editors Jerome Rothenberg and Jeffrey C Robinson bring a radically new interpretation to the poetry of the preceding century viewing the work of the romantic and post romantic poets as an international collective often utopian enterprise that became the foundation of experimental modernism Global in its range volume three gathers selections from the poetry and manifestos of canonical poets as well as the work of lesser known but equally radical poets Defining romanticism as experimental and visionary Rothenberg and Robinson feature prose poetry verbal visual experiments and sound poetry along with more familiar forms seen here as if for the first time The anthology also explores romanticism outside the European orbit and includes ethnopoetic and archaeological works outside the literary mainstream The range of volume three and its skewing of the traditional canon illuminate the process by which romantics and post romantics challenged nineteenth century orthodoxies and propelled poetry to the experiments of a later modernism and avant gardism

Poems Cyprian Norwid, 2011-11-22 Considered a Christian Socrates by one critic and a hieroglyph stylist by another Cyprian Norwid was more unanimously recognized however as one of the most vital figures in Polish letters whose verse is as idiosyncratic as it is profound Traveling against the currents of the philosophy of his day Norwid was a historicist with deep insight into the codes and ripples in the society around him This engaging bilingual collection selected and translated from the Polish by Danuta Borhardt includes many of Norwid s revered poems including Vademecum True to its Latin summons go with me the epic poem invites the reader to accompany Norwid on a journey though many lands and timeless question seeking truth We witness Norwid decrying the tight fisted city folk of London befriending Fr d ric Chopin whom he meets during his travels and lamenting the death of a friend Lyrical moving and often biting this collection gives an evocative glimpse into the world
