Quandaries of Belonging Michael Jackson, 2020-12-15 Those who leave their homelands either under duress or by design will see them in a different light than those who have stayed put Michael Jackson argues that the perspective of the expatriate may be compared with what ethnographers call stranger value In moving between detachment and deep immersion this bifocal perspective implicates a bicultural one which is why Jackson has recourse to Mori traditional knowledge not in order to impose a Eurocentric interpretation on them but to show how cross cultural conversations and interactions can promote new forms of sociality and coexistence Biography of a Book: Henry Lawson's While the Billy Boils Paul Eggert, 2013 Biography of a Book traces the life of an iconic Australian literary work in the lead up to and for a century after its initial publication Henry Lawson's 1896 collection While the Billy Boils Paul Eggert follows Lawson's gradual development of a pared back bush realism in the early 1890s as he struggled to forge a career writing short stories and sketches for the newspapers Lawson's famous collection came out at a decisive moment for the development of a fully professional Australian literary publishing industry then in its infancy in Sydney The volume's editing design and production were collaborative events that changed the feel and nature of Lawson's writing He had to give ground on his texts and their sequencing The collection went on to be reprinted and repackaged countless times Its production and reception histories act like a geological cross section revealing the contours of successive cultural formations in Australia In unravelling the life of Lawson's classic work Eggert's book historical approach challenges and clarifies established understandings of crucial moments in Australian literary history and of Lawson himself Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide
