Canadian Books in

Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 The Tree of Tradition Nicholas Hagger,2024-05-31 All writers and thinkers and their works are in a tradition that preceded them In The Tree of Tradition Nicholas Hagger sets out a way for all writers and thinkers to be more aware of the traditions and influences that have shaped their works in all subjects and disciplines in all civilisations using short personal reflections on how influences shaped his own works as an example Each discipline has metaphysical and secular traditions and Hagger s A New Philosophy of Literature set out the fundamental theme of world literature as a perennial conflict between a Romantic individual quest for Reality the One and a classical condemnation of social follies and vices Hagger s 60 Universalist works are innovatory in seeing the ultimate unity of the universe of all disciplines and of humankind and in reconciling Romanticism and Classicism within a unity he calls Baroque A Universalist writer is influenced by many sub traditions and Hagger particularises the traditions and sub traditions that have inspired or influenced his works in seven disciplines mysticism literature philosophy and the sciences history comparative religion international politics and statecraft and world culture and in the seven branches of literature in which he has written his works poems and poetic epics verse plays and masques short stories diaries autobiographies letters and his statement of the fundamental unity of world literature which he symbolises in a stag s two seven branched antlers This is an inspirational book that throws light on the traditions and influences behind all works in all disciplines and civilisations and the 109 traditions and 84 influences behind Hagger s Universalist works Silence, the Word and the Sacred E.D. Blodgett,Harold Coward,2010-10-30 The result of a dialogue between poets and scholars on the meaning and making of the sacred this book endeavours to determine how the sacred emerges in sacred script as well as in poetic discourse It ranges through scholarship in areas as apparently disparate as postmodernism and Buddhism The perspectives developed are various and without closure locating the sacred in modes as diverse as patristic traditions feminist retranslations of biblical texts and oral and written versions of documents from the world s religions The essays cohere in their preoccupation with the crucial role language plays in the creation of the sacred particularly in the relation that language bears to silence In their interplay language does not silence silence by rather calls the other as sacred into articulate existence Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane Eldridge Miller,2019-07-23 Unique in its breadth of coverage Who s Who in Contemporary Women s Writing is a comprehensive authoritative and enjoyable guide to women s fiction prose poetry and drama from around the world in the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of 1000 entries by over 150 international contributors a picture emerges of the incredible range of women s writing in our time from Toni Morrison to Fleur Adcock all are here This book includes the established and well loved but also opens up new worlds of modern literature which may be unfamiliar but are never less than fascinating The Measure of Paris Stephen Scobie,2012-03-01 Paris remains one of the most fascinating cities in the world It provides a measure of excellence in many areas of culture and it is itself constantly being measured both by its lovers and by its critics This book presents a series of studies on the images of Paris presented by writers mostly Canadian from John Glassco to Mavis Gallant to Lola Lemire Tostevin but also in such other areas as social history and personal memoir The result is a wide ranging discussion of the city s history in 20th century literature and thought which will appeal to all those who love Paris or who have ever walked on its streets The
