Philosophical Foundations of the African Humanities through Postcolonial

Perspectives, 2019-03-19 Philosophical Foundations of the African Humanities through Postcolonial Perspectives critiques recent claims that the humanities especially in public universities in poor countries have lost their significance defining missions methods and standards due to the pressure to justify their existence The predominant responses to these claims have been that the humanities are relevant for creating a world culture to address the world's problems This book argues that behind such arguments lies a false neutrality constructed to deny the values intrinsic to marginalized cultures and peoples and to justify their perceived inferiority These essays by scholars in postcolonial studies critique these false claims about the humanities through critical analyses of alterity difference and how the Other is perceived defined and subdued Contributors Gordon S K Adika Kofi N Awoonor E John Collins Kari Dako Mary Esther Kropp Dakubu James Gibbs Helen Lauer Bernth Lindfors J H Kwabena Nketia Abena Oduro Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Olufemi T. States and Power in Africa Jeffrey Herbst, 2014-12-21 Theories of international relations assumed to be universally applicable have failed to explain the creation of states in Africa There the interaction of power and space is dramatically different from what occurred in Europe In States and Power in Africa Jeffrey Herbst places the African state building process in a truly comparative perspective Herbst's bold contention that the conditions now facing African state builders existed long before European penetration of the continent is sure to provoke controversy for it runs counter to the prevailing assumption that colonialism changed everything This revised edition includes a new preface in which the author links the enormous changes that have taken place in Africa over the past fifteen years to long term state consolidation The final chapter on policy prescriptions has also been revised to reflect the evolution of African and international responses to state failure
