Selected Writing Sir Ecoke:

Henry Chadwick, Selected Writings Chadwick, 2017 Rare scholarly insight into the early church still relevant for the church today This anthology offers a choice selection of writings by one of the twentieth century s premier church historians Sir Henry Chadwick Many of Chadwick s considerable contributions to a fuller understanding of the early church were unpublished or not circulated widely during his lifetime but here they are compiled in a convenient accessible form Reflecting Chadwick s wide ranging expertise this volume contains his essays on a variety of themes pertaining to the early church including the emerging faith s relationship to classical culture the interaction between piety politics and theology councils in the early church the power of music in the church and more As relevant for the study of early Christianity today as when they were first written Chadwick s essays remain a valuable resource for better understanding the church both past and present shedding light on ecumenical problems that still keep Christians visibly divided Paris School Semiotics:

Theory Paul Perron, Frank Collins, 1989-01-01 It has often been claimed that the aim of semiotics is to establish a general theory of systems of signification However as Jean Claude Coquet notes in a recent collection of essays what distinguishes one school of semiotics from another is the initial definition given of sign If for certain semioticians the sign is first of all an observable phenomenon for the Paris School it is first of all a construct and this point of departure has crucial theoretical and practical consequences The essays appearing in these two volumes are representative of recent work carried out by members of this semiotic school Essays in Volume I study problems more closely related to theoretical issues while Volume II focuses more specifically on various fields of application Selected Writings Roman Jakobson, 1966 The Educational Times, and Journal of the College of Preceptors , 1908 Educational Times and Journal of the College of Preceptors , 1908

Selected Writings: Slavic epic studies Roman Jakobson, 1966 Paris School Semiotics Paul Perron, Frank Collins, 1989-01-01 It has often been claimed that the aim of semiotics is to establish a general theory of systems of signification However as Jean Claude Coquet notes in a recent collection of essays what distinguishes one school of semiotics from another is the initial definition given of sign If for certain semioticians the sign is first of all an observable phenomenon for the Paris School it is first of all a construct and this point of departure has crucial theoretical and practical consequences The essays appearing in these two volumes are representative of recent work carried out by members of this semiotic school Essays in Volume I study problems more closely related to theoretical issues while Volume II focuses more specifically on various fields of application Education Outlook , 1894 Select Specimens of the Great French Writers in the 17th, 18th, & 19th Centuries ... George Eugène-Fasnacht, 1894 Educational Times , 1891 Security John T. Hamilton, 2013-06-21 From national security and social security to homeland and cyber security security has become one of the most overused words in culture and politics today Yet it also remains one of the most undefined What exactly are we talking about when we talk about security In this original and timely book John Hamilton examines the discursive versatility and semantic vagueness of security both in current and historical usage Adopting a philological approach he explores the fundamental ambiguity of this word which denotes the removal of concern or care and therefore implies a condition that is either carefree or careless Spanning texts from ancient Greek poetry to Roman Stoicism from Augustine and Luther to Machiavelli and Hobbes from Kant and Nietzsche to Heidegger and Carl Schmitt Hamilton analyzes formulations of security that involve both safety and negligence confidence and complacency certitude and ignorance Does security instill more fear than it assuages Is a security purchased with freedom or human rights morally viable How do security projects inform our expectations desires and anxieties And how does the will to security relate to human finitude Although the book makes clear that security has always been a major preoccupation of humanity it also suggests that contemporary panics about security and the related desire to achieve perfect safety carry their own very significant risks

On Depiction: Selected Writings on Art Avigdor Arikha, 2019-08-25 A marvellous book which teaches us how to see There is not a word out of place And the author's seriousness allows us to feel his full passion what really matters for him This book will provide me lasting company and I will often look in its pages for backing for my own judgements Jean Starobinski When a great painter also happens to be an intelligent and cultivated one his observations on art count a hundred times more than a critic's or a historian's do A man's knowledge of his own craft is both irreplaceable and indispensable Simon Leys Throughout his whole development I have never ceased to admire the acuteness of his vision and his faultless insight into the art of the past Samuel Beckett Avigdor Arikha was one of the most important artists of the twentieth century He was born in Romania to German speaking Romanian Jewish parents and spent most of his life in Paris A talented child he started drawing early on During the Second World War he was deported to a concentration camp in the Ukraine where he drew the horrors he witnessed These drawings saved his life During the 1950s he established himself in Paris and was enjoying a successful career as an abstract painter In 1965 a Caravaggio exhibition prompted him to convert to drawing from life He stopped using colour until 1973 when he started again to paint He worked with a religious almost war like intensity until his death Arikha was also an erudite and passionate scholar endowed with a deep understanding of the history of art and its techniques well versed in world history and fascinated by science He wrote many essays and curated important exhibitions of masters such as Poussin Velazquez and Ingres In this collection of essays that he wrote between 1965 and 1994 Arikha expounds on art and artists Mantegna Velazquez Poussin David Ingres Degas Matisse and more technique seeing and the state of culture in his day which one could argue is no more hopeful today almost thirty years later
