Constructing Genocide and Mass Violence Maureen S. Hiebert, 2017-03-16 This book addresses two closely related questions: what is the process by which the relatively short and violent genocides of the twentieth century and beyond have occurred? Why have these instances of mass violence been genocidal and not some other form of state violence, repression or conflict? Hiebert answers these questions by exploring the structures and processes that underpin the decision by political elites to commit genocide, focusing on a sustained comparison of two cases: the Nazi Final Solution and the Cambodian genocide. The book clearly differentiates the structures and processes contained within a larger overall process that leads to genocidal violence. Uncovering the mechanisms by which societies at least in the contemporary era come to experience genocide as a distinct form of destruction and not some other form of mass or political violence, Hiebert is able to highlight a set of key processes that lead to specifically genocidal violence. Providing an insightful contribution to the burgeoning literature in this area, this book will be of interest to students and scholars of genocide, international relations and political violence.

The Vietnam War from the Other Side Cheng Guan Ang, 2013-07-04 Existing studies of the Vietnam War have been written mostly from an American perspective, using western sources and viewing the conflict through western eyes. This book, based on extensive original research including Vietnamese, Chinese and former Soviet sources, presents a history of the war from the perspective of the Vietnamese communists. It charts relations with Moscow and Beijing, showing how the involvement of the two major communist powers changed over time and how the Vietnamese, despite their huge dependence on the Chinese and the Soviets, were most definitely in charge of their own decision making. Overall, it provides an important corrective to the many one-sided studies of the war and presents a very interesting new perspective.

Transplanting Commercial Law Reform John Gillespie, 2017-03-02 The first sustained analysis examining legal transplantation into East Asia, this volume examines the prospects for transplanting a rule of law that will attract and sustain international trade and investment in this economically dynamic region. The book develops both a general model that explains how legal transplantation shapes legal development in the region and whilst developing theoretical insights into the political, economic and legal discourses guiding commercial law reforms in Vietnam. For the first time, this book develops a research methodology specifically designed to investigate law reform in developing East Asia. In so doing, it challenges the relevance of conventional convergence and divergence explanations for legal transplantation that have been developed in European and North American contexts. As the first finely grained analysis of legal development in Vietnam, the book will be invaluable to academics and researchers working in this area. It will also be of interest to those involved in commercial legal theory.

The Vietnam wars Kevin Ruane, 2024-06-04 This source book chronicles the history of the most controversial conflict of the 20th century beginning with the birth of the Vietnamese communist party in 1930 and ending with the Vietnamese revolution in 1975 The text combines short essays with original documents to illustrate the debate Alongside the dominating American intervention the study also focuses on the international dimension of the conflict particularly the role of the Soviet Chinese and British but it is the Vietnamese perspective that remains key War By Other Means Carlyle A. Thayer,2021-12-27 This book first published in 1989 examines the creation and implementation of Communist policy in Vietnam during the crucial period between the 1954 Geneva Conference and the establishment of the National Front for the Liberation of South Vietnam in December 1960 This study challenges long held views about the origins and nature of the Viet Cong It carefully examines the various stages in the struggle for national liberation during this period reviews the consequences of the failure of purely political means to achieve reunification and then focuses on the struggle between the Diem regime and the Communists Down with Colonialism! Ho Chi Minh,2020-05-05 Ho Chi Minh the founder of the Vietminh and President of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam having defeated Japanese and French colonialist became a hate figure of the USA during the Vietnam War Anti globalization activist Walden Bello shows why Ho Chi Minh should still be read by anti imperialists the world over The Unfinished War Walter H. its dominant ideological orientation characterized by defeatism utopianism and anti communism is rooted in the political economy of imperialism Internationally acclaimed theorist Domenico Losurdo thus provides a fresh and challenging perspective on purportedly radical thinkers who have been widely promoted in the imperial core including those affiliated with the Frankfurt School French Theory and operaismo as well as Hannah Arendt Giorgio Agamben Michael Hardt and Slavoj Žižek among others His critique also has wide reaching implications for trend setting discourses inspired by this coterie of intellectuals from postcolonial and decolonial theory to subaltern studies and beyond Far from being a negative undertaking however this book is grounded in the positive project of reigniting anti imperialist Marxism As a complement to the Italian edition of Western Marxism this first ever English translation also features the unprecedented publication of a major lecture that demystifies Western Marxism and its role in imperialists efforts to denigrate the achievements of actually existing socialism Raising the stakes of what it means to produce critical theory Western Marxism will surely provoke wide debate and a reevaluation of hallowed canons

The Found Generation Marilyn A. Levine, 2016-06-01 In contrast to the Lost Generation of youth in the West who were disoriented and disillusioned by the First World War and its aftermath the Chinese youth born between 1895 and 1905 not only believed they had a duty to save their nation but pursued their goal through social and political experimentation The vigorous purpose and optimism of this Found Generation contrasted with the apathy and detachment of their Western counterparts who followed a different path in coming to terms with the new world of the twentieth century Just after the First World War sixteen hundred Chinese young men and women traveled to Europe most of them to France as members of the Work Study Movement Their goal was to study Western technology and culture and utilize this knowledge to achieve national salvation and they planned to finance their study at European schools by factory work While in Europe many of these students became politicized partly through their exposure to European political ideas such as Marxism and partly through the social network based on shared experience that transcended what would have separated them in China One important result of this political activity was the formation of the European Branches of the Chinese Communist ORganizations ECCO The Found Generation explores the origins development and significance of the ECCO highlights the differences between it and the Communist home organization and describes its impact on the Chinese Communist Party The founders of the ECCO shared values and goals with their compatriots in China but their experiences and opportunities in Europe molded them in different ways that can be traced in their later careers On their return to China many of the young activists including Zhou Enlai Deng Xiaoping Chen Yi Cai Hesen Li Lisan Zhu De Nie Rongzhen and Wang Ruofei quickly assumed powerful positions in Chinese politics and their influence is still felt today Levine s examination of the early experiences of this important cohort of Chinese leaders helps explain their adherence to the Leninist concept of Party discipline and their tenacious hold over central governmental power The Found Generation is a pioneering study based on original sources including interviews with several prominent participants in the Work Study Movement and the ECCO Chinese studies and memoirs and Chinese and French periodicals It provides otherwise unavailable information and analysis about the political leadership of modern China and by pointing out the differences between the Chinese radicals in Europe in

China it furthers our understanding of the conflicts motivations and values of modern Chinese leaders

River Warfare in Vietnam Robin L. Rielly, 2024-02-08 America's entrance into the wars in Vietnam came as a result of several factors Among them was the necessity of bolstering French influence in the area in the face of mounting communist expansion This expansion was intensified by the outbreak of the Korean War making it necessary for the United States to revamp its Southeast Asian policy During the French era control of Vietnam's rivers streams and canals became necessary This led various factions to develop specialized military units heavily dependent on new types of river craft that could traverse the myriad waterways in Vietnam The focal point of this study is a new assessment of the conduct of river warfare Drawing on little known French Vietnamese and American sources and materials it sheds light on an important aspect of the Vietnam War Chapters also detail numerous aspects of river warfare not generally covered in other books on the subject
