Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2014-06-15 Since the confirmation of Deng Xiaoping's policy of Opening and Reform in 1978 the People's Republic of China has undergone a liberalization of culture that has led to the production of numerous forms of avant garde experimental and museum based art With a fast growing international market and a thriving artistic community contemporary Chinese art is riding a wave of prosperity though issues of censorship still abound Shedding light on the current art scene Paul Gladston's Contemporary Chinese Art puts China's recent artistic output into the context of the wider cultural economic and political conditions that surround it Providing a critical mapping of ideas and practices that have shaped the development of Chinese art Gladston shows how these combine to bind it to the structure of power and state both within and outside of China Focusing principally on art produced by artists from mainland China including painting film video photography and performance he also discusses art created in Taiwan Hong Kong Macau and diasporic communities Illustrated with 150 images Contemporary Chinese Art unravels the complexities of politics artistic practice and culture in play in China's art scene Xiandai Zhongguo Hua Jicui, 1981

A Selection of Contemporary Chinese Paintings Wenzhi Song, 1981-12 Deconstructing Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2015-08-21 The book presents a range of articles and discussions that offer critical insights into the development of contemporary Chinese art both within China and internationally It brings together selected writings both published and unpublished by Paul Gladston one of the foremost international scholars on contemporary Chinese art The articles are based on extensive first hand research much of which was carried out during an extended residence in China between 2005 and 2010 In contrast to many other writers on contemporary Chinese art Gladston analyses his subject with specific reference to the concerns of critical theory In his writings he consistently argues for a polylogic multi voiced approach to research and analysis grounded in painstaking attention to local regional and international conditions of artistic production reception and display 中国当代艺术, 1990

Xian dai Zhong- guo hua ji ts'ui, 1981 A Selection of Contemporary Chinese Paintings, 1981 Negotiating Difference John Clark, Juliane Noth, Birgit Hopfener, Brianne Cohen, Silke von Berswordt, Wang Ching-ling, Doris Ha-lin Sung, Adele Tan, Zheng Bo, Beatrice Leanza, Thomas Berghuis, Peggy Wang, Pauline Yao, Paul Gladston, Joe Martin Hill, Lee Ambrozy, Wenny Teo, Franziska Koch, Andreas Schmid, Davide Quadrio, 2012-07-12 Contemporary Chinese art is still a young field now being opened up to critical academic research Negotiating Difference is a pioneering collection of articles which engage with contemporary Chinese art in a global context The contributions collectively address the urgent methodological question of how to describe contextualize and theorize artworks and artistic processes in and beyond the People's Republic of China since the end of the Cultural Revolution The studies break new ground as they chalk out the transcultural entanglements of which art and its practices partake and which they in turn reconfigure The book features 20 essays written by a select group of international junior and senior scholars engaged in ambitious and methodologically innovative research on contemporary Chinese art Their multi faceted in part interdisciplinary approaches are complemented by four contributions by distinguished practitioners in the field who as art curators and critics are located in China and explore key developments within Chinese art and the changing art scene of the last three decades 王明贤 : 中国当代艺术 ,2009

Contemporary Chinese Art: Primary Documents Wu Hung,2010 Invaluable resource for anyone who wants to understand contemporary Chinese art one of the most fascinating art scenes of the late 20th and early 21st centuries

A Selection from Modern Chinese Arts for the Panama-Pacific International Exhibition ,1915 The Future History of Contemporary Chinese Art Peggy Wang,2021-01-26 A revelatory reclaiming of five iconic Chinese artists and their place in art history During the 1980s and 1990s a group of Chinese artists Zhang Xiaogang Wang Guangyi Sui Jianguo Zhang Peili and Lin Tianmiao ascended to new heights of international renown Even as their fame increased they came to be circumscribed by simplistic Western interpretations of their artworks as social and political critiques a perspective that privileged stories of dissidence over deep engagement with the art itself Through in depth case studies of these five artists Peggy Wang offers a corrective to previous appraisals demonstrating how their works address fundamental questions about the forms meanings and possibilities of art By the end of the 1980s Chinese artists were scrutinizing earlier waves of Western influence and turning instead to their own heritage and culture to forge their own future histories As the national trauma of the 1989 Tiananmen Square massacre converged with the mounting expansion of the global art world these artists turned to art as a profoundly generative site for grappling with their place in the world Wang demonstrates how they consciously and energetically sought to make their own ideas about art and art history visible in contemporary art Wang s argument is informed by extensive primary research including close examination of the artworks analysis of Chinese language documents and archives and deeply personal interviews with the artists Their words uncover layers of meaning previously obscured by the popular and often recycled assessments that many of these works have received until now Beyond Wang's reinterpretation of these individual artists she contributes to an urgent conversation on the future direction of art history how do we map engagements between art from different parts of the world that are embedded within different art histories What does it mean for histories of contemporary art and art history more generally to be inclusive The new understandings offered in this book can and should be engaged when considering current hierarchies in histories of Chinese art the global art world and the intersections between them

Transmedial Landscapes and Modern Chinese Painting Juliane Noth, 2023-11-20 Chinese ink painters of the Republican period 1911-1949 creatively engaged with a range of art forms in addition to ink such as oil painting drawing photography and woodblock prints They transformed their medium of choice in innovative ways reinterpreting both its history and its theoretical foundations Juliane Noth offers a new understanding of these compelling experiments in Chinese painting by studying them as transmedial practice at once shaped by and integral to the modern global art world Transmedial Landscapes and Modern Chinese Painting shines a spotlight on the mid 1930s a period of intense productivity in which Chinese artists created an enormous number of artworks and theoretical texts The book focuses on the works of three seminal artists Huang Binhong He Tianjian and Yu Jianhua facilitating fresh insights into this formative stage of their careers and into their collaborations in artworks and publications In a nuanced reading of paintings photographs and literary and theoretical texts Noth shows how artworks and discussions about the future of ink painting were intimately linked to the reshaping of the country through infrastructure development and tourism thus leading to the creation of a uniquely modern Chinese landscape imagery

Contemporary Chinese Art Jeanne Boden, 2022-05-06 In the early 1990s artist Xu Bing stamped two pigs with respectively nonsensical Latin words and fake Chinese characters and allowed them to mate in an art gallery The performance of two creatures devoid of human consciousness yet carrying on their bodies the marks of human civilization engaging in the most primal form of social intercourse confronted the public with the tension between nature and civilization The work also addresses the tension between China and the West and therefore perfectly fits the core message of this book Contemporary art in China takes place in a post socialist post Mao context and at the same time a post traditional one searching for balance between aesthetic legacy and modernization It also tries to find its position in the post colonial globalized arena This book explores the tension between individual artistic freedom and a dominant discourse of central Chinese government between China's cultural legacy and modernization and between China and a global art world still dominated by a Western canon As a case study it focuses on the artists who participated in the Venice Biennale in 1993 which was the first time contemporary art from mainland China was structurally invited to participate in a global art context

Jeanne Boden has a PhD in Oriental Languages and Cultures Her research focuses on Eurocentrism Sinocentrism and contemporary Chinese art jeanneboden.com Cover picture Xu Bing A Case Study of Transference 1993 94 A History of Contemporary Chinese Art Yan Zhou,2020-07-14 Chinese art has experienced its most profound metamorphosis since the early 1950s transforming from humble realism to socialist realism from revolutionary art to critical realism then avant garde movement and globalized Chinese art With a hybrid mix of Chinese philosophy imported but revised Marxist ideology and western humanities Chinese artists have created an alternative approach after a great ideological and aesthetic transition in the 1980s toward its own contemporaneity though interacting and intertwining with the art of rest of the world This book will investigate from the perspective of an activist critic and historian who grew up prior to and participated in the great transition and then researched and taught the subject the evolution of Chinese art in modern and contemporary times The volume will be a comprehensive and insightful history of the one of the most sophisticated and unparalleled artistic and cultural phenomena in the modern world Appropriating Antiquity for Modern Chinese Painting Chia-Ling Yang,2023-02-09 The pursuit of antiquity was important for scholarly artists in constructing their knowledge of history and cultural identity in late imperial China By examining versatile trends within paintings in modern China this book questions the extent to which historical relics have been used to represent the ethnic identity of modern Chinese art In doing so this book asks did the antiquarian movements ultimately serve as a deliberate tool for re writing Chinese art history in modern China In searching for the public meaning of inventive private collecting activity Appropriating Antiquity in Modern Chinese Painting draws on various modes of artistic creation to address how the use of antiquities in early 20th century Chinese art both produced and reinforced the imaginative links between ancient civilization and modern lives in the late Qing dynasty Further exploring how these social and cultural transformations were related to the artistic exchanges happening at the time between China Japan and the West the book successfully analyses how modernity was translated and appropriated at the turn of the 20th century throughout Asia and further afield The Making of a Modern Art World Pedith Pui Chan,2017-03-06 The Making of A Modern Art World explores the artistic institutions and discursive practices prevailing in Republican Shanghai aiming to reconstruct the operational logic and the stratified hierarchy of Shanghai s art world Using guohua as the point of entry this book interrogates the discourse both of guohua itself and the wider discourse of Chinese modernism in the visual arts In the light of the sociological definition of art world this book contextualizes guohua through focusing on the modes of production and consumption of painting in Shanghai examining newly adopted modern artistic practices namely art associations periodicals art colleges exhibitions and the art market
