A Selection of the Poems of Laura Riding Laura Riding, 1996 A Selection of the Poems of Laura Riding Laura (Riding) Jackson, Laura Riding, 1994 In 1970 Laura Riding Jackson published with Faber her Selected Poems in five sets presenting a clutch of poems readers for the first time in the three decades since she renounced poetry an act which challenges her readers still In 1980 a new edition with an important introduction of the 1938 The Poems of Laura Riding was published by Carcanet The poet said My work poetic and other early and later has no allegiances private social cultural The point of it is not modernism but What Further In 1993 First Awakenings The Early Poems added substantially to the oeuvre Now poet critic and novelist Robert Nye long time advocate of the poems makes this substantial new introductory selection

Laura Riding Laura (Riding) Jackson, 1993 Laura Riding Jackson is recognized as one of America's great modernist poets although she renounced the writing of poetry in 1941 viewing poetry as blocking truth's ultimate verbal harmonies First published in England in 1970 and long out of print Selected Poems In Five Sets includes sixty one poems personally selected and arranged by the author Drawn from her Collected Poems of 1938 this is a remarkable distillation of Laura Riding's poetic achievement The extraordinary preface is perhaps Laura Riding Jackson's most succinct explanation of her renunciation of the writing of poetry and is a provocative commentary on the contemporary poetry scene Persea Books Laura Riding, 1993 Women's Poetry of the 1930s: A Critical Anthology Jane Dowson, 2008-02-21 Where were the women of the so called Auden Generation During this era of rapidly changing gender roles social values and world politics women produced a rich variety of poetry But until now their work has largely been lost or ignored in Women's Poetry of the 1930s Jane Dowson finally redresses the balance and recovers women's place in the literary history of the interwar years This comprehensive and beautifully edited collection includes Previously uncollected poems by authors such as Winifred Holtby and Naomi Mitchison Poems which are now out of print such as those by Vita Sackville West and Frances Cornford Poems previously neglected by poets including Ann Ridler and Sylvia Townsend Warner An extensive critical introduction and individual biographies of each poet Poetry lovers students and scholars alike will find Women's Poetry of the 1930s an invaluable resource and a collection to treasure

The Unthronged Oracle Jack Blackmore, 2016-11-01 Laura Riding was a major poet whose poems though widely admired and influential have been little understood Throughout the 1920s and 1930s she was a devout advocate of poetry believing that to go to poetry is the most ambitious act of the mind Her subsequent renunciation of poetry in the 1940s gave rise to bemusement Jack Blackmore tackles the causes of the neglect of Riding's poetry and establishes new and productive approaches to the poems His close readings of fifteen poems demonstrate the progress of Collected Poems and the remarkable range and scope of her poetry He establishes both the strength and unity of the poems and the continuity between them and her post poetic work in particular her spiritual testament The Telling Mark Jacobs's vivid memoir of a visit to the author in later life at her Florida home complements the work on the poems These essays are interesting and you have done well You seem to me fair and just in what you say about her work Robert Nye This is ambitious work full of insights Professor Michael Schmidt The Poems of Laura Riding Laura (Riding) Jackson, Laura Riding, 1980 Literary Seductions Frances Wilson, 2014-07-15 We have all surrendered ourselves to the world that writing creates Eudora Welty once observed that her mother read the works of Charles Dickens in the same spirit with which she would have eloped with him Some of us remember our first novel with more pleasurable vividness than our first kiss Many of us go to on line chat rooms looking for love with our keyboard And most of us have tried to seduce with words reciting that Shakespeare sonnet or composing that Valentine s Day poem with tremulous hope All writing seeks to ensnare the reader in its embrace As Frances Wilson also proves in this engaging enlightening and provocative new book writing can also ensnare the writers themselves Highlighting the lives and loves of celebrated literary couples Literary Seductions reveals the depth of their passion for language their own as well as their partner s Taking as a point of departure the legendary courtship of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett a courtship conceived on the printed page Wilson explores how easily how seductively literary desire becomes sexual desire and vice versa Literary seductions she writes are violent extreme and irreversible Not all reading seduces not all writing inflames But when they do what is written ceases to be merely an arrangement of symbols on a page The word has been made flesh Lady Caroline Lamb and Lord Byron Ana s Nin and Henry Miller Laura Riding and Robert Graves Osip and Nadzheda Mandelstam W B and Georgie Yeats were all in the grip of a compulsion for writing and reading enmeshed in words Miller called his relationship with Nin a literary fuck fest for Riding and Graves it took on the self destructive and self conscious melodrama of a Russian novel for the Mandelstams it was a life giving if self sacrificing bond in a precarious world for George and W B Yeats it offered sexual stimulus The couplings of verbs and nouns do more than precede coupling they comprise it Literary Seductions is itself a seductive book The elegant power of Wilson s arguments the rigor of her research and the delights of her prose enthrall the reader Here is intellectual engagement and readerly pleasure rolled into one Poetry of the Possible Joel Nickels, 2012 The abstractions of modernism reimagined as figurations of collective self organization The Poems of Laura Riding Laura (Riding) Jackson, 2001 On the occasion of her one hundredth birthday in 2001 a new edition of Laura Riding s collected poems Always ahead of her time no other major poet of the last century enters the twenty first so fresh so essentially unexplored as does Laura Riding Her formidable credentials as a modernist need no longer distract attention from the class of her own this writer occupies Beginning in spiritual respect for Shelley Whitman and Francis Thompson Riding s resolve to work toward nothing less than the essence of the good in language carries her across an entire poetic world within this volume as it afterwards carried her out of poetry altogether This centennial volume presents the entire content of the 1980 edition together with the author s retrospective Introduction and Appendices corrected and reset The poem text reproduces with the few errata corrected the typography and design of the celebrated first edition of 1938 as supervised by the author herself Included are the ten memorable full page illustrations

A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson,Alice Entwistle,2005-05-19 Publisher Description On Form ,2008-09-18 What is form Why does form matter In this imaginative and ambitious study Angela Leighton assesses not only the legacy of Victorian aestheticism and its richly resourceful keyword form but also the very nature of the literary She shows how writers for two centuries and more have returned to the idea of form as something which contains the secret of art itself She tracks the development of the word from the Romantics to contemporary poets and offers close readings of among others Tennyson Pater Woolf Yeats Stevens and Plath to show how form has provided the single most important way of accounting for the movements of literary language itself She investigates for instance the old debate of form and content of form as music or sound shape as the ghostly dynamic and dynamics of a text as well as its long association with the aestheticist principle of being for nothing In a wide ranging and inventive argument she suggests that form is the key to the pleasure of the literary text and that that pleasure is part of what literary criticism itself needs to answer and convey
