Chambers, High Museum of Art, 1976      Selections from the Robert P. Coggins Collection of American Painting Bruce W. Chambers, 1976      Selections from the Robert P. Coggins Collection of American Painting Bruce W. Chambers, University of Rochester. Memorial Art Gallery, Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art, 1976      A Southern Collection, 1993-02-01 A Southern Collection presents select masterworks from the permanent collection of the Morris Museum of Art on the occasion of the institution's inaugural exhibition Drawn from a comprehensive survey collection of painting in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present day the museum's opening exhibit explores an artistic terrain as rich and diverse as the South itself arranged in categories that reflect critical chronological developments in the art world A survey of painting activity in the South begins with the travels of itinerant portrait artists working prior to the Civil War At the same time landscape painting encompasses a sensitive response to the swamps bayous and fertile fields of the South Late in the nineteenth century strong and vivid genre painting competes with the nostalgic effects realized by Southern impressionists whose shimmering liquid images are invested with an elusive spirit of place In this century those strains of realism and naturalism that characterize the classic body of Southern writing appear in the representational art of painters who defied the modern abstract dictum And finally the exciting compelling works of a current generation of both self taught artists and sophisticated contemporary painters complete this fascinating though sometimes neglected chapter in American art history      Cornell Collects Carol Roberts, 1990      The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries      The Life and Work of Martin Johnson Heade Theodore E. Stebbins, Janet L. Comey, Martin Johnson Heade, Karen E. Quinn, 2000-01-01 Martin Johnson Heade was one of the most significant American painters of the nineteenth century creator of portraits history and genre pictures still lifes ornithological studies landscapes and marines and his own unique orchid and hummingbird compositions This book brings a perspective to Heade and his works presenting him as one of the most original and productive painters of his time Theodore Stebbins builds on his acclaimed 1975 study of Heade drawing on several newly discovered collections of Heade's letters and the painter's own Brazilian journal Stebbins tells of Heade's training and early career as an itinerant portraitist and discusses his move to New York where under the influence of Frederic E Church he began painting landscapes and seascapes He examines Heade's relationships with patrons and dealers writers and scientists and he sheds new light on Heade's trips to Brazil to the Central American tropics and to London And he describes Heade's move to Florida in 1883 which marked not his retirement but a final period of creativity that lasted until his death in 1904 The book includes not only an examination of Heade's life and works but also reproductions of all his 620 known paintings including nearly 250 that have been discovered since 1975

Heller, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century A Biographical Dictionary was created to fill a gap of there being a comprehensive reference work like this available even though the bibliography in English on various aspects of the history of women artists has grown exponentially during the past ten years As researchers the editors have been frustrated many times by being unable to locate basic information about many of the artists included in this volume especially those working outside the United States This leads directly to another reason for producing this particular kind of reference book to try and create a better understanding between and among the artists and art audiences in these countries Degas and the Business of Art , 1994 While it received a more positive response than other works exhibited its success was with the conservative audience After considerable difficulty Degas finally succeeded in selling the painting in 1878 to the newly founded museum in the city of Pau The painting was probably regarded as an appropriate homage to the old textile manufacturing family who funded its purchase It also appealed to progressive provincial and more cosmopolitan audiences in Pau The picture s scattered form and atomized figures in which some interpreters today read evidence of the artist s own ambivalence about capitalism seemingly contributed to its innovative cachet in Pau But the private and public meanings of the painting had shifted in discontinuous fashion between its production and consumption Under the circumstances Degas s unfixed and even mixed messages about business became among other things his most successful if unwitting marketing strategy The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Judith H. Bonner, Estill Curtis Pennington, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2013-01-14 From the Potomac to the Gulf artists were creating in the South even before it was recognized as a region The South has contributed to America s cultural heritage with works as diverse as Benjamin Henry Latrobe s architectural plans for the nation s Capitol the wares of the Newcomb Pottery and Richard Clague s tonalist Louisiana bayou scenes This comprehensive volume shows how through the decades and centuries the art of the South expanded from mimetic portraiture to sophisticated responses to national and international movements The essays treat historic and current trends in the visual arts and architecture major collections and institutions and biographies of artists themselves As leading experts on the region s artists and their work editors Judith H Bonner and Estill Curtis Pennington frame the volume s contributions with insightful overview essays on the visual arts and architecture in the American South      Catalog of the Library of the Whitney Museum of American Art, New York, New York Whitney Museum of American Art.
