Self Giving And Sharing The Trinity And Human Fulfillment:

Self-giving and Sharing John J. Navone,1989 Spiritual Theology of the Priesthood Dermot A. Power,1998-01-01
Hans Urs von Balthasar's writings have pastoral implications that even now are barely recognised and hardly developed Here a pastorally experienced theologian who knew von Balthasar personally unfolds this pastoral dimension for the first time Integrating Christology and Ecclesiology with the profound spirituality that for von Balthasar is inseparable from authentic theology Fr Power demonstrates the paradoxical grandeur and weakness of the Catholic priesthood He highlights the roles of the Catholic priest as servant bridegroom shepherd victim teacher prophet celebrant and minister of reconciliation At a time when many priests feel their identity called into question this book offers new hope for the renewal of the priesthood in the Catholic Church Toward a Theology of Beauty John J. Navone,1996 Catholic theology philosophy and spirituality have long taught that the joy of Christian contemplation is to delight in the splendor of the divine love for us in all things John Navone explains that Happiness Itself God is forever knowing its truth and loving its goodness and delighting in its beauty The gift of the beatific vision is communion with Happiness Itself Genealogy of Nihilism Conor Cunningham,2005-06-29
This text re reads Western history in the light of nihilistic logic which pervades two millennia of Western thought From Parmenides to Alain Badiou via Plotinus Avicenna Duns Scotus Ockham Descartes Spinoza Kant Hegel Heidegger Sartre Lacan Deleuze and Derrida a genealogy of nothingness can be witnessed in development with devastating consequences for the way we live Models of Heaven M. Francis Mannion,2023-08-31 Many people nowadays are confused about the topic of heaven skeptical about it or think it beyond description This book argues that without venturing into the esoteric or fanciful we can know more about heaven than we think Did you know for instance that heavenly rest will be exciting and dynamic That we will be overwhelmed and transformed by the beauty of God That we will dance with the Trinity sing with the angels and enjoy the delightful company of the saints including the saints we have known and loved on earth The book will deal with what we will be doing in the Holy City and in the magnificence of the new creation and what it means to say that we will feast at the heavenly banquet If you want answers to these questions at once inspired by Christian tradition and modern insight and presented in a fresh and compelling manner this book is for you It is written not only for theologians and specialists but also for inquiring Catholics and other Christians seeking to deepen their understanding of life after death It will serve theology students seminarians clergy religious educators and parish study groups Readers willing to invest time and energy in the book will find their view of heaven deepened and expanded The Spiritual Journey Esther DeWaal,1993
A collection of guides to the spiritual journey The authors deal with such masters as Cassian St Benedict John of Forde and Carl Jung discussing ideas from East and West At the Limits of Political Philosophy James V. Schall,2010-04 James V Schall presents in a convincing and articulate manner the revelational contribution to political philosophy particularly that which comes out of the Roman Catholic tradition Sexual Orientation and Human Rights in American Religious Discourse Saul M. Olyan, Martha C. Nussbaum, 1998-07-02 Sexual orientation is a topic of intense debate within America's religious traditions. These discussions have had a significant impact on the formation of public policy as speakers who locate themselves squarely within religious traditions have articulated positions on both sides in recent arguments concerning gays in the military, civil rights protections for gays and lesbians, gay marriage, parenting and foster parenting, and benefits for partners of gay and lesbian employees of major corporations and institutions. This volume, which stems from a 1995 conference at Brown University, aims to promote both academic and public understanding of the different positions that exist on sexual orientation and its public policy dimensions within four major American religious traditions. Writers from within the Jewish community, the Roman Catholic church, Mainline Protestant churches, and African American churches explore the history and tradition of their communities on same-sex orientation, discuss the moral stance they advocate, and consider the legal and public policy implications of that stance. For each of these traditions, two opposing views are represented, and a respondent frames the issue in a larger context. The book concludes with essays by Michael McConnell and Andrew Koppelman exploring how our society might find a modus vivendi in a state position of neutrality on the moral status of homosexuality. This book will appeal to a broad range of readers interested in these crucial issues and in the role the religious communities play in these debates while helping to foster the climate for a more reasoned and civil dialogue. The Trinity and an Entangled World John Polkinghorne, 2010-08-25 Besides containing insights from both expert scientists and theologians, The Trinity and an Entangled World considers the way in which these parallel insights can contribute to a harmonious dialogue between science and religion. Book Jacket Studies in Formative Spirituality, 1991

Paperbound Books in Print, 1992 The Divine Ideas Tradition in Christian Mystical Theology Mark A. McIntosh, 2021 This study brings to life the striking role of the divine ideas tradition in the teaching of its central exponents and suggests how the divine ideas might constructively inform Christian theology and spirituality today. Divine Teaching Mark A. McIntosh, 2017-09-07 This innovative work is an introduction to Christian theology with a difference. Not only does it interpret with clarity and energy fundamental Christian beliefs, but it also shows how and why these beliefs arose, promoting an understanding of theological reflection that encourages readers to think theologically themselves. From Irenaeus and Aquinas to Girard, from Augustine to Zizioulas, and contemporary feminist thought, Divine Teaching explores the ways in which major thinkers in the Christian tradition have shaped theology through the wide variety of their encounters with God. It makes theological study adventurous and interactive, not necessarily requiring a faith commitment from all, but allowing readers a thoughtful involvement in the subject that takes seriously the Christian vision of God as the ultimate teacher of theology. Divine Teaching: An Introduction to Christian Theology is an imaginative and lively analysis of the Christian way of thinking, offering vivid and informing insight into the history and practice of Christian theology. Faith after the Anthropocene Matthew Wickman, Jacob Sherman, 2020-11-09 Recent decades have brought to light the staggering ubiquity of human activity upon Earth and the startling fragility of our planet and its life systems This is so momentous that many scientists and scholars now argue that we have left the relative climactic stability of the Holocene and have entered a new geological epoch known as the Anthropocene This emerging epoch may prompt us not only to reconsider our understanding of Earth systems but also to reimagine ourselves and what it means to be human How does the Earth s precarious state reveal our own How does this vulnerable condition prompt new ways of thinking and being The essays that are part of this collection consider how the transformative thinking demanded by our vulnerability inspires us to reconceive our place in the cosmos alongside each other and potentially before God Who are we after the concept of the Anthropocene What forms of thought and structures of feeling might attend us in this state How might we determine our values and to what do we orient our hopes Faith a conceptual apparatus for engaging the unseen helps us weigh the implications of this massive but in some ways mysterious force on the lives we lead faith helps us visualize what it means to exist in this new and still emergent reality

50 Questions on The Natural Law Charles E. Rice, 2011-04-27 Charles Rice professor of the jurisprudence of St Thomas Aquinas for the last twenty years at Notre Dame Law School presents a very readable book on the natural law as seen through the teachings of Aquinas and their foundations in reason and Revelation Reflecting on the most persistent questions asked by his students over the years Rice shows how the natural law works and how it is rooted in the nature of the human person whose Creator provided this law as a sure and knowable guide for man to achieve his end of eternal happiness This book presents the teachings of the Catholic Church in her role as arbiter of the applications of the natural law on issues involving the right to life bioethics the family and the economy Charles Rice has produced a firmly grounded and accessible handbook which touches on the most important topics regarding natural law that will benefit readers of all backgrounds

Christ's Fulfillment of Torah and Temple Matthew Levering, 2002-04-15 Christ s Fulfillment of Torah and Temple is a concise introduction to the Christian theology of salvation in light of the contributions of Thomas Aquinas In this cogent study Matthew Levering identifies six important aspects of soteriology each of which corresponds to an individual chapter in the book Levering focuses on human history understood in light of the divine law and covenants Jesus the Incarnate Son of God and Messiah of Israel Jesus cross transformation in the image of God the Mystical Body of Christ into which all human beings are called and eternal life Taking the doctrines of faith as his starting point Levering s objective is to answer the questions of both Christians and non Christians who desire to learn how and for what end Jesus saves humankind Levering s work also speaks directly to contemporary systematic theologians In contrast to widespread assumptions that Aquinas s theology of salvation is overly abstract or juridical Levering demonstrates that Aquinas s theology of salvation flows from his reading of Scripture and deserves a central place in contemporary discussions Thomas Aquinas s theology of salvation employs and develops the concepts of satisfaction and merit in light of his theology of the Old Testament For Aquinas Christ fulfills Israel s Torah and Temple law and liturgy These two aspects of Israel s religion provide the central categories for understanding salvation The Torah expresses God's Wisdom incarnated in Jesus Christ Christ's passion then fulfills and transforms the moral juridical and ceremonial precepts of the Torah which correspond to the three offices of ancient Israel prophet king and priest The New Law in Christ Jesus is also the fulfillment of the Temple Israel's worship Christ offers the Father the perfect worship participated in by all members of his Mystical Body through faith charity and the sacraments Old Law and New Law are fulfilled in the perfect knowing and loving perfect law and liturgy of eternal life the Heavenly Jerusalem As a Thomistic contribution to contemporary theology this fruitful study develops a theology of salvation in accord with contemporary canonical readings of Scripture and with the teachings of the Second Vatican Council on the fulfillment and permanence of God's covenants
