Self, Earth, and Society Thomas N. Finger, 2020-03-12 Our era is experiencing unparalleled and rapid transience The twentieth century began with the telephone and ended with e mail People change jobs and homes a half dozen times or more in their lives Air and water pollution are threatening the well being of the earth itself Wars their multiplying refugees and political crises are tearing societies apart If there is a key word for our era it might be alienation Amid increasing and often chaotic complexity individuals struggle to attain an integrated stable self with durable relationships An expanding ecological consciousness reveals our estrangement from the earth Societies are internally divided by clashing political and economic perspectives and processes This profound and important book recognizes and reveals the connections among these three alienations Thomas Finger undertakes a probing critical conversation with culture and develops his own public theology Each alienation is analyzed in depth through the writings of secular authors His theological construction draws neither on modern philosophy nor worldviews but perhaps surprisingly on Scripture To support his emphasis on Christ Finger engages the skepticism of the much celebrated Jesus Seminar He rejects the widespread claim that Christianity's transcendent God is largely absent from the world and legitimates human exploitation of it For transcendence means that God is different but not distant from the world Finger then examines the roles of Jesus Father and Spirit in his earthly ministry In this and later scriptures these three act and interact in a salvific manner that can only be divine This means that his Father and Spirit also suffer with Jesus in his death and with all creation as Jürgen Moltmann brilliantly explains and accompany him in his resurrection This also means that the creation exists in God as some feminists maintain and originated as the overflow of God's love and character into a realm which was hardly distant from God yet very different In addition this entails that every human self and the process of becoming a self as God's creations must be respected as indeed must all earthly creatures and the basic structures needed to form and maintain any society Theological developments in the last decade have done much to critique misguided biblical interpretations which would justify unbridled human exploitation and abuse of creation But work in exploring how an understanding of a trinitarian transcendent God results in creative and caring relationship between humanity and creation has been less developed In discussing these matters with Dr Finger I am convinced that his proposed work holds the promise of meeting an important need within global theological discussions today Further I know that Dr Finger is fully capable of accomplishing this project Thus from my vantage point where I have the opportunity of hearing theological discussions on these subjects from the major Christian traditions and from throughout the globe it is clear that Dr Finger s proposal will fill a theological void and enrich our search for truth Wesley Granberg Michaelson Executive Secretary Commission on Church and Society World Council of Churches 1988 1994 General Scretary Reformed Church in America 1994 2011     The Taittirīya-upanishad ,1903     Dual-Process Theories of the Social Mind Jeffrey W. Schunk,Barry J. Zimmerman,1998-03-20 This text provides a framework for teaching students how to be students and offers practical guidance on how academic learning at its best can be brought about     Reassembling Models of Reality: Theory and Clinical Practice (Norton Series on Interpersonal Neurobiology) Aldrich Chan,2021-04-13 Clinical musings on the nature of reality and known experience Therapists must rely on their clients reporting of experience in order to assess treat and offer help Yet we all experience the world through various filters of one sort or another and our experiences are transformed through several nonconscious processes before reaching our conscious awareness Science philosophy and wisdom traditions share the belief that our awareness is very restricted How then can anyone accurately report their experience let alone get help with it Neuropsychologist Aldrich Chan examines how our experience of reality is assembled and shaped by biological psychological sociocultural and existential processes Each chapter explores processes within these domains that may act as veils Topics in the book include the default mode network cognitive distortions decision making heuristics the interconnected mind memory and cultural concepts of distress By understanding the ways in which reality can be distorted clinicians can more effectively help their clients reach their personal psychotherapeutic goals     Markers of Psychosocial Maturation Mufid James Hannush,2021-07-15 This book advances an integrative approach to understanding the phenomenon of psychosocial maturation Through a rigorous dialectically informed interpretation of psychoanalytic and humanistic existential phenomenological sources Mufid James Hannush distills thirty essential markers of maturity The dialectical approach is described as a process whereby lived affect and value laden polar meanings are transformed through deep insight into complementary and integrative meta meanings The author demonstrates how responding to the call of maturation can be viewed as a life project that serves the ultimate purpose of living a balanced life The book will appeal to students and scholars of human development psychotherapy social work philosophy and existential humanistic and phenomenological psychology

The Psychology of Passion Dr Robert J. Vallerand, 2015-05-01 Winner of the 2017 APA William James Book Award The concept of passion is one we regularly use to describe our interests and yet there is no broad theory that can explain the development and consequences of passion for activities across people's lives In The Psychology of Passion Robert J Vallerand presents the first such theory providing a complete presentation of the Dualistic Model of Passion and the empirical evidence that supports it Vallerand conceives of two types of passion harmonious passion which remains under the person's control and obsessive passion which controls the person While the first typically leads to adaptive behaviors the obsessive form of passion leads to less adaptive and at times maladaptive behaviors Vallerand highlights the effects of these two types of passion on a number of psychological phenomena such as cognition emotions performance relationships aggression and violence He also discusses the development of passion and reviews a range of literature on passion for activities
