Catholicism and Historical Narrative Kevin Schmiesing, 2014-01-30 Stories about the past shape not only the way people think about history but also the way they act in the present Nowhere is this truer than in the area of religion which has been and continues to be a powerful motivating force in the lives of billions around the globe In this volume Catholicism and Historical Narrative A Catholic Engagement with Historical Scholarship contributors explore the way stories are constructed and show how a focus on Catholic figures and concerns challenges common understandings of important historical episodes and eras Editor Kevin Schmiesing has gathered a distinguished group of scholars who in various ways call into question conventional story lines by highlighting previously neglected Catholic ideas and individuals Built on ample evidence and employing keen insight each essay is the result of cutting edge research in fields ranging from historical research on Puritan New England and the antebellum South to the history of abortion to the twentieth century papacy Students and scholars of religious history Catholic historians and anyone interested in the intersection of religion and history will all find here much to interest and maybe even surprise in the chapters arguments concerning the deficiencies of history s dominant narratives The volume s focus on the history of Catholics in the United States makes it essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the place of Catholicism in the American story Wilhelm Dilthey: Selected Works,

Volume III Wilhelm Dilthey, 2010-10-10 This volume provides Dilthey s most mature and best formulation of his Critique of Historical Reason It begins with three Studies Toward the Foundation of the Human Sciences in which Dilthey refashions Husserlian concepts to describe the basic structures of consciousness relevant to historical understanding The volume next presents the major 1910 work The Formation of the Historical World in the Human Sciences Here Dilthey considers the degree to which carriers of history individuals cultures institutions and communities can be articulated as productive systems capable of generating value and meaning and of realizing purposes Hegel s idea of objective spirit is reconceived in a more empirical form to designate the medium of commonality in which historical beings are immersed Any universal claims about history need to be framed within the specific productive systems analyzed by the various human sciences Dilthey s drafts for the Continuation of the Formation contain extensive discussions of the categories most important for our knowledge of historical life meaning value purpose time and development He also examines the contributions of autobiography to historical understanding and of biography to scientific history The finest summary of Dilthey s views on hermeneutics can be found in The Understanding of Other Persons and Their Manifestations of Life Here Dilthey differentiates understanding relative to three kinds of manifestations of life After giving his analysis of elementary understanding he examines the role of induction in higher understanding and interpretation and the relevance of transposition and re experiencing for grasping individuality
