

Self Leadership and the One Minute Manager: Increasing Effectiveness Through Situational Self Leadership

Ken Blanchard, Susan Fowler, Laurence Hawkins

Challenge Assumed Constraints
Celebrate Their Points of Power
Collaborate for Success

Self Leaders:

A leader is anyone who can give you the support and direction you need to achieve your goal.

There is magic in diagnosing your development level and getting the direction and support you need to achieve your goal.

When goals work out, it is usually because you instinctively take the initiative to be a self leader and get what you need to succeed.

Self Leadership and the One Minute Manager

Empowering is something someone gives you. Self leadership is what you do to make it work.

Ultimately, it's in your best interest to accept responsibility for getting what you need to succeed in the work place.

An Assumed Constraint is a belief you have, based on past experience, that limits your current and future experiences.

When your Competence is low, you need Direction; When your Commitment is low, you need Support.
