Gendered Spaces Daphne Spain, 1992 The history of spatial segregation at home and in the workplace and how it reinforces women's inequality

Shelter Poverty Michael Stone, 2010-08-12 the most original and profoundly disturbing work on the critical issue of housing affordability Chester Hartman President Poverty and Race Research Action Council In Shelter Poverty Michael E Stone presents the definitive discussion of housing and social justice in the United States Challenging the conventional definition of housing affordability Stone offers original and powerful insights about the nature causes and consequences of the affordability problem and presents creative and detailed proposals for solving a problem that afflicts one third of this nation Setting the housing crisis into broad political economic and historical contexts Stone asks What is shelter poverty Why does it exist and persist and How can it be overcome Describing shelter poverty as the denial of a universal human need Stone offers a quantitative scale by which to measure it and reflects on the social and economic implications of housing affordability in this country He argues for the right to housing and presents a program for transforming a large proportion of the housing in this country from an expensive commodity into an affordable social entitlement Employing new concepts of housing ownership tenure and finance he favors social ownership in which market concepts have a useful but subordinate role in the identification of housing preferences and allocation Stone concludes that political action around shelter poverty will further the goal of achieving a truly just and democratic society that is also equitably and responsibly productive and prosperous      Housing for All A.K. Jain, This book titled Housing for All Design Construction and Management by A K Jain is a comprehensive assessment of the housing situation in India which not only traces the path taken by governments so far but also outlines a roadmap for the future The book begins with an overview of the housing scenario in India It discusses various housing programmes and draws a distinction between affordable housing and adequate housing The book also draws particular attention to housing issues of special groups such as the elderly disabled homeless migrant and transit workers students and single women There is also a discussion on the issue of social and physical infrastructure The book notes that housing units alone do not constitute housing but infrastructure plays a critical role in the occupancy of housing The question of reducing the cost of housing has been vexatious for long Jain deals with this issue in detail and suggests various low cost technologies and house building systems for making housing more affordable Another issue is that of rental housing Jain suggests that giving a boost to rental housing through a slew of measures can go a long way in making housing more accessible and bring vacant housing into the market      Rediscovering Women Writers of Wartime London Evelina Garay Collcutt, 2024-02-29 This book shows the war stricken city through the eyes of five women writers whose novels vividly portray life in the Blitz This new appraisal of their work brings to light the way in which they documented the Blitz in their fiction highlighting the social changes which were taking place especially in the lives of women and leading to a fuller understanding of those turbulent times The book re-evaluates the contribution of these writers to wartime literature showing how their long neglected novels focus on the experiences of individual women protagonists perceived in close relation to the menacing forces of war This title will interest all those seeking to gain further knowledge of 20th century women's writing wartime literature and social history as recorded in fiction      Homeless Voices Mary L. Schuster, 2022-01-27 Homeless Voices Stigma Space and Social Media argues that the best sources for how to address issues of homelessness are people experiencing homelessness themselves particularly as they express their experiences through personal blogs and memoirs Mary L Schuster discusses how space and land have been historically denied to marginalized communities who still feel the effects to this day along with examining the conditions and limitations of common spaces often assigned to those experiencing homelessness culminating in an analysis of how the novel coronavirus COVID 19 has impacted homelessness Schuster focuses on two vulnerable groups that often experience homelessness victims of domestic violence and unaccompanied youth particularly those who struggle with gender identity and unstable housing This book includes a variety of case studies examining public meetings and court decisions public policy symposiums and personal interviews and ultimately finds that intersectionality specifically age race gender identity and ethnicity plays a large part in understanding and experiencing homelessness By shifting our attention to the diverse voices who experience homelessness themselves Schuster claims we can finally begin to remedy this crisis Scholars of media studies sociology and urban development will find this book particularly useful      Transportable Environments 2 Robert Kronenburg, Joseph Lim, Wong

Yunn Chii,2003-09-02 This book explores aspects of the historical and theoretical basis for temporary and transportable environments and provides an insight into the wide range of functions that they are used for today the varied forms they take and the concerns and ideas for their future development Themes in the book range from wide ranging topical issues like the ecological implications of building to more focused investigations such as shelter after disaster The book will be of interest to both students and practising architects engineers and those involved in the creation of the built environment It will also be of value to those involved in areas of product design design history building component manufacture and urban design

Beyond the American Housing Dream Kenneth R. Tremblay,Don A. Dillman,1983 This in depth study of 2 801 U S households is the first comprehensive examination of contemporary American housing preferences Precariousness, Community and Participation Matthew Johnson,2018-12-07 This book attempts to explore the effects of neoliberalism on particular forms of community Guy Standing 2011 has popularised the notion of precariousness to describe the unpredictable neoliberal conditions faced by radically different people throughout the world Members of Standing s precariat lack occupational identities treat work and other moneymaking activities instrumentally are focused on the short term and have no shadow of the future hanging over their actions leaving little incentive to sustain long term relationships and productive but unpaid social activities This issue presents an interdisciplinary account of the challenges faced by communities at a time in which neoliberalism seems unchecked and uncheckable by the rise of nationalist populism At points responses are presented but it is perhaps reflective of the general sense of helplessness of those committed to tackling neoliberalism that the final article highlights serious deficits in an approach commonly presented as a practicable response basic income In the spirit of participation each article is accompanied by a reply by a non academic as well as an academic This ought not to be seen as tokenism the experience of the project has been that discussions can be advanced much more effectively through engagement with community members and professionals The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Global Discourse Housing for Hope and Wellbeing Flora Samuel,2022-12-20 Housing and neighbourhoods have an important contribution to make to our wellbeing and our sense of our place in the world This book written for a lay audience with policy makers firmly in mind offers a useful and intelligible overview of our housing system and why it is in crisis while acting as an important reminder of how housing contributes to social value defined as community health self development and identity It argues for a holistic digital map based planning system that allows for the sensitive balancing of the triple bottom line of sustainability social environmental and economic value It sets out a vision of what our housing system could look like if we really put the wellbeing of people and planet first as well as a route map on how to get there Written primarily from the point of view of an architect the account weaves across industry practice and academia cross cutting disciplines to provide an integrated view of the field The book focusses on the UK housing scene but draws on and provides lessons for housing cultures across the globe Illustrated throughout with case studies this is the go to book for anyone who wants to look at housing in a holistic way      The Biology of Plethodontid Salamanders Richard C. Bruce, Robert Jaeger, Lynne D. Houck, 2000-04-30 This volume offers a state of the art overview of plethodontid salamanders Readers will find the best current understanding of many aspects of the evolution systematics development morphology life history ecology and field methodology of these animals      Environmental Advertising in China and the USA Xinghua Li, 2016-05-05 Since the late 1980s green consumerism has been hailed in the West as an efficient solution to environmental problems However Chinese consumers have been slow to warm up to eco friendly products Consumers prefer SUVs to hybrid cars health supplements and snake oil medicines to organic foods and eco fashion is still secluded in high end designer studios These choices contradict the findings of many sustainable lifestyle surveys that claim to register a rising desire for green products among the Chinese This book examines the psycho cultural differences that disrupt the translation of eco friendly appeals to China by analyzing environmental advertising It explores the different notions of green the structures of desire that underlies the advertisements and how they are shaped by ideological cultural and historical differences Rather than arguing the superiority of the American or Chinese version of green consumerism the book interrogates the role of advertising in the global spread of Western ideologies and explores the possibilities for consumers to resist transnational corporate hegemony in the green movement This book fills an important gap in the critical scholarship on green marketing and should be of interest to students and scholars of environment studies green advertising and marketing environmental communication and media studies China studies and environmental sociology ethics and cultural studies      Housing the Homeless Jon Erickson, Charles Wilhelm, 2017-07-12 Homelessness has become a lasting issue of vital social concern As the number of the homeless has grown the complexity of the issue has become increasingly clear to researchers and private and public service providers The plight of the homeless raises many ethical anthropological political sociological and public health questions The most serious and perplexing of these questions is what steps private charitable and public organizations can take to alleviate and eventually solve the problem The concept of homelessness is difficult to define and measure Generally persons are thought to be homeless if they have no permanent residence and seek security rest and protection from the elements The homeless typically live in areas that are not designed to be shelters e g parks bus terminals under bridges in cars occupy structures without permission e g squatters or are provided emergency shelter by a public or private agency Some definitions of homelessness include persons living on a short term basis in single room occupancy hotels or motels or temporarily residing in social or health service facilities without a permanent address Housing the Homeless is a collection of case studies that bring together a variety of perspectives to help develop a clear understanding of the homelessness problem The editors include information on the background and politics of the problem and descriptions of the current homeless population The book concludes with a resource section which highlights governmental policies and programs established to deal with the problem of homelessness      Lasting Through The Impossible: Extreme Survival Skills

For The Worst-Case Scenarios Elbert Kirk,2025-04-03 In today's unpredictable world the ability to survive in the face of extreme adversity is more relevant than ever This book offers a comprehensive guide to mastering survival skills for the most challenging scenarios Whether you are an adventurer a prepper or simply someone who wants to be prepared for any eventuality this book provides the knowledge and techniques necessary to endure and thrive in the worst case situations The book begins with the fundamental principles of survival covering essential topics like shelter building water procurement and food sourcing Each skill is meticulously detailed ensuring readers understand not just the how but the why behind each technique The author delves into the psychology of survival emphasizing the importance of mental resilience and adaptability Real life case studies illustrate how these principles have been applied in dire situations offering both inspiration and practical insight As the chapters progress the focus shifts to more specialized skills Readers will learn advanced techniques in navigation first aid and self defense The book also covers how to survive natural disasters from earthquakes to hurricanes and man made catastrophes including urban survival tactics Each section is enriched with diagrams checklists and practical tips making complex concepts accessible and actionable

Making Better Lives Johannes Lenhard,2022-05-13 In this ethnographic study Johannes Lenhard observes the daily practices routines and techniques of people who are sleeping rough on the streets of Paris The book focusses on their survival practises their short term desires and hopes how they earn money through begging how they choose the best place to sleep at night and what role drugs and alcohol play in their lives The book also follows people through different institutional settings including a homeless day centre a needle exchange a centre for people with alcohol problems and a homeless shelter

Housing, Homelessness, and Social Policy in the Urban North Julia Christensen,Sally Carraher,Travis Hedwig,Steven Arnfjord,2024-01-31 Housing Homelessness and Social Policy in the Urban North brings together leading scholars on northern urban housing across the Canadian North Alaska and Greenland Through various case studies the contributors examine the ways in which housing insecurity and homelessness provide a critical lens on the social dimensions of northern urbanization They also present key considerations in the development of effective and sustainable social policy for these areas The book kickstarts a conversation between multiple stakeholders from different cultural and national regions across the North American north It asks key questions including these What are the common problems of and responses to housing insecurity and homelessness across these northern regions Is a single definition of homelessness even possible or desirable And if not can a shared language around how to end the housing crisis and homelessness in our northern regions still occur The contributors explore how experiences of northern towns and cities inform an overall understanding of urban forms and processes in the contemporary world and speak directly to the emerging body of literature on cities Highlighting key limitations to federal state and provincial policy Housing Homelessness and Social Policy in the Urban North raises important implications for developing policy that is responsive to northern realities

Housing and Ageing Policies in Chinese and Global Contexts Terence Chun Tat Shum,Charles C. L. Kwong,2023-09-28

Motivated by the rapid increase in housing demand and the population of older adults worldwide this book provides an interdisciplinary and multi level approach for studying housing and ageing issues and relevant policy analysis in China and beyond Specifically it highlights how the changing social economic and political factors at both local and global levels affect the housing or ageing experiences of people Drawing on findings and theoretical discussions in economics history psychology sociology social policy and urban studies the authors offer interdisciplinary perspectives on a highly topical debate asking what progress is being made on the formulation and implementation of housing and ageing policies in different societies The book brings together original qualitative and quantitative research works in European Asia Pacific and Chinese contexts Readers will benefit from the results of a rigorous analysis of data and case studies that reveal factors affecting housing or ageing experiences of people in these regions The interdisciplinary research also provides valuable insights on further policy analyses and formulation in both local and global contexts It is of interest to scholars policy makers and university students in the fields of housing ageing and social and public policy

Coping with Life in Homeless Shelters Henrietta Toth, 2018-07-15 More than a quarter of a million people in the United States stay at some type of homeless shelter One out of seven of those people is a youth age eighteen or younger Readers will learn that teens are especially vulnerable to the risks and consequences of living in a homeless shelter The lack of privacy and the uncertain and chaotic atmosphere in a shelter often contribute to teen anxiety and depression This revealing volume details the skills that can help teens cope with living in a homeless shelter and outlines the ways and tools for moving beyond it
