Self Conscious Art A Tribute To John W Kronik:

Self-conscious Art Susan L. Fischer, 1996 Self conscious art constitutes a significant and previously neglected feature of modern literature and is a crucial concern of contemporary criticism The essays in this volume consider such questions as the limits of self consciousness the creative and circumstantial tensions that produce its various features the ludic nature of art the role of interpretation and the aesthetic social and mythic reverberations of self reflexive art Intertextual

Pursuits Hal L. Boudreau, 1998 This book brings together twelve essays that attest to the continuing viability of intertextuality a widely recognized by product of a cosmic readjustment in thinking about the nature and boundaries of texts All the contributors to this collection are well versed in the theoretical implications of intertextuality Their essays give repeated evidence that intertextuality is itself dynamically intertextual and that it is as endlessly fruitful as its myriad applications The essays further demonstrate that whether theoretically in fashion or out of it whether seen as rhetorical exercises ideological statements or philosophical meditations intertextual pursuits remain the paramount adventure in the literary critical enterprise Queer Women in Modern Spanish Literature Ana I. Simón-Alegre, Lou

Charnon-Deutsch, 2021-11-29 This original collection of essays explores the work and life choices of Spanish women who through their writings and social activism addressed social justice religious dogmatism the educational system gender inequality and tensions in female subjectivity It brings together writers who are not commonly associated with each other but whose voices overlap allowing us to foreground their unconventionality their relationships to each other and their relation to modernity The objective of this volume is to explore how the idea of queerness played an important role in the personal lives and social activism of these writers as well as in the unconventional and nonconformist characters they created in their work Together the essays demonstrate that the concept of queer women is useful for investigating the evolution of women s writing and sexual identity during the period of Spain s fitful transition to modernity in the nineteenth century The concept of queerness in its many meanings points to the idea of non normativity and gender dissidence that encompasses how women intellectuals experienced friendship religion sex sexuality and gender The works examined include autobiography poetry memoir salon chronicles short and long fiction pedagogical essays newspaper articles theater and letters In addition to exploring the significant presence of queer women in nineteenth and twentieth century Spanish literature and culture the essays examine the reasons why the voices of Spanish women authors have been culturally silenced One thrust in this collection explores generational transitions of Spanish writers from the romantics and their hermandad l rica lyrical sisterhood through to las Sinsombrero Women Without Hats and finally current Spanish writers linked to the LGBTQ community Art and the Religious Impulse Eric Michael Mazur, 2002 This collection explores the relationship between religion and the arts and challenges presumptions held in society about these two fields Topics covered include church architecture folk art nineteenth century classical music contemporary fiction recent film performance art and the battles over public funding of the arts Rites of Passage in Ancient Greece Mark William Padilla,1999 This volume reflects on liminality as it relates to initiatory themes in Greek literature and on literary works especially tragedy that represent heroes and heroines undergoing rites of passage Featured works include Aeschylus's Prometheus Bound Euripides Ion and Iphigenia in Tauris and Sophocles Antigone and Women of Trachis New Essays in Ecofeminist Literary Criticism Glynis Carr,2000 The present volume gathers new essays in ecofeminist literary criticism and theory that extend this critical trajectory for ecocriticism in the context of social eco feminist theory and practice BOOK JACKET Reviewing Orpheus Cornelia A. Tsakiridou,1997 Postmodernism's dedication to the rehabilitation of lesser artists and its revision of modernist history have not affected Cocteau studies even in areas of self evident relevance like sexuality myth and gender Lorca, Buñuel, Dalí Manuel Delgado,Alice Jan Poust,2001 This volume of essays commemorates and celebrates the creative works of Federico Garcia Lorca Salvador Dali and Luis Bunel three contemporaries and friends The essays suggest that the artistic creations of Lorca Dali and Bunel feature theoretical ideas on their contemporary art in general as well as on the particular art form cultivated by each ideas that help us to better understand their work as it relates to a wide range of aesthetic theories

Untrodden Regions of the Mind Ghislaine McDayter,2002 An extensive collection of essays on Romantic literature written from a psychoanalytic perspective With essays on both Continental and British Romantic writers this volume explores not only the complex operations of gender and subjectivity but also how textual analysis reveals the ways in which the unconscious of the literary body resists and denies interpretive analysis just as forcefully as the individual unconscious

Shakespeare and the Spanish Comedia Bárbara Mujica,2013-10-03 Shakespeare and the Spanish Comedia is a nearly unique transnational study of the theater performance traditions of early modern Spain and England Divided into three parts the book focuses first on translating for the stage examining diverse approaches to the topic It asks for example whether plays should be translated to sound as if they were originally written in the target language or if their foreignness should be maintained and even highlighted Section II deals with interpretation and considers such issues as uses of polyphony the relationship between painting and theater and representations of women Section III highlights performance issues such as music in modern performances of classical theater and the construction of stage character Written by a highly respected group of British and American scholars and theater practitioners this book challenges the traditional divide between the academy and stage practitioners and between one theatrical culture and another Making History Greg Clingham,1998 By identifying a dialogical rather than monological relation between postmodern and Enlightenment discourses and texts Making History offers a theoretically and historically nuanced account of eighteenth century cultures and makes a timely and original contribution to the study of the eighteenth century and its dialogue with postmodernism Questioning History Greg Clingham,1998-07 Traditional eighteenth century paradigms of reason truth and nature underlie modern concepts of self gender sex etc that are challenged today in the name of a more liberated and pluralistic problematics This book is the first of two volumes of essays that identify this postmodern challenge It examines the historiography of postmodern phenomena in relation to the eighteenth century texts that they ventriloquize More essays on the topic are contained in Making History Bucknell Review Vol 42 No 1 Adrift in the Technological Matrix David L. Erben,2003 Technology continues to transform the world with a process that seems to be constantly accelerating The struggle to understand the way the new computer and communications technologies are transforming the world is many sided What the essays collected in this issue of the Bucknell Review attempt is a general cultural approach to the notion of ther being a technological matrix in which we all now find ourselves adrift and of which our experience is often dread Adrift and dread are not single metaphors in the collection In order to attempt this interrogation of the technological matrix the essayists have drawn from a variety of disciplines literature philosophy religion art media studies while retaining the substantial contibutions of previous theorists of technology The main thrust of this collection is to underscore the vast enrichment given to a study of the new technologies when approached from a broad cultural standpoint Translation and Culture Katherine M. Faull,2004 How we view the foreign presented either in the interrelated forms of culture language or text determines to a large degree the way in which we translate This volume of essays examines the cultural politics of translation that have determined the production and dissemination of the foreign in domestic cultures as varied as contemporary North America Europe and Israel The essays address from a variety of theoretical perspectives the question posed almost two hundred years ago by the German philosopher Friedrich Schleiermacher of whether the translator should foreignize the domestic or domesticate the foreign

Points of Contact Amy Golahny,2004 This collection of eight essays examines specific cases of contacts between Pacific Rim and western European cultures to explore the phenomena of appropriations intersections transculturations and discrete identities The exchanges in ideas religion and culture resulting from contacts among these areas whether through actual or virtual travel indicate mutual affinities and occasionally interdependencies but also separate and independent identities Each of these essays concerns the portability mutability and adaptability of aspects of the exchange of ideas and in nearly all cases here examined an affirmation of identity on the part of each culture in the exchange The cases of intersections examined here generally indicate developments of cultures approaching one another and then retrenching BOOK JACKET Title

Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Women Warriors in Early Modern Spain Susan L. Fischer,Frederick A. de Armas,2019-07-18 Although scholars often depict early modern Spanish women as victims history and fiction of the period are filled with examples of women who defended their God given right to make their own decisions and to define their own identities The essays in Women Warriors in Early Modern Spain examine many such examples demonstrating how women battled the status quo defended certain causes challenged authority and broke barriers Such women did not necessarily engage in masculine pursuits but often used cultural production and engaged in social subversion to exercise resistance in the home in the convent on stage or at their writing desks Distributed for the University of Delaware Press Women and the Law Anja Louis, 2005 Given the remarkable similarities between Burgos's critical analysis and recent feminist legal theory her writings are still disturbingly relevant today This study also explores the relationship between melodrama as a genre of manichean worldviews and law as a system of binary oppositions and discusses Burgos's subversion of the former as a means to criticise the latter Jacket Gender and Modernity in Spanish Literature Elizabeth Smith Rousselle, 2014-10-02 Using each chapter to juxtapose works by one female and one male Spanish writer Gender and Modernity in Spanish Literature 1789-1920 explores the concept of Spanish modernity Issues explored include the changing roles of women the male hysteric and the mother and Don Juan figure Sound and Light William Duckworth, Richard Fleming, 2009 This book is a collection of essays and original material that introduces the avant garde artist collaborators La Monte Young and Marian Zazeela to those unfamiliar with their life and art as well as providing the more acquainted readers with new and useful insights and analyses of the fundamental issues in their life and work The book explores the recurring themes that have influenced Young's minimalist music and Zazeela's ongoing engagement with the use of light in art These themes include the importance of nature and its natural shapes and sounds the importance of mathematics and organized tuning systems based on natural harmonics enhanced attention spans and increased sensitivity to differences within apparent sameness extensions of time and alterations of space Essays by Terry Riley John Schaefer Henry Flynt Christine Christer Hennix Mitchell Clark Kyle Gann Ben Neill and Robert Palmer are included Young and Zazeela contribute to the book with original text materials that focus on continuous sound and light environments Perspectives on Contemporary Spanish American Theatre Frank N. Dauster, 1996 The essays in this volume reflect a pattern of interests rapidly becoming dominant among scholars Several of them deal with questions of genre or focus on metatheatre and parody theatrical techniques widespread in Latin America The majority treat these topics in conjunction with their social context
