Selling Lucky:

How and what to Sell ,1925 Selling the President, 1920 John A. Morello,2001-04-30 Modern advertising moved into the 20th century borne on many vehicles and distinguished by many techniques three of the most frequently used being reason why advertising celebrity endorsements and pre emptive claims Best known for his reason why advertising Albert Davis Lasker president of the Lord Thomas Agency of Chicago championed all three techniques helping Lucky Strike Cigarettes Van Camp s Pork Beans and Sunkist Oranges become business successes His least known but best work was in the political area where he helped the Republicans gain control of Congress in 1918 and with the election of Warren G Harding recapture the White House in 1920 This book covers events leading to Harding s nomination and election and the key role Lasker played in his election Bringing along the tricks he had used to sell soap beer cigarettes and canned food Lasker plunged into political advertising forever changing the way political candidates are publicized Ebony ,1960-01 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Lola's Luck Carol Miller,2008-10-17 The author an anthropologist tells the story of her relationship with Lola a gypsy while observing and experiencing the gypsy way of life and their struggle to maintain their culture in the modern world Enterprising Youth Monika Elbert,2008-06-09 Recommended by Choice Enterprising Youth examines the agenda behind the shaping of nineteenth century children s perceptions and world views and the transmission of civic duties and social values to children by adults The essays in this book reveal the contradictions involved in the perceptions of children as active or passive as representatives of a new order or as receptacles of the transmitted values of their parents The question then is whether the business of telling children s stories becomes an adult enterprise of conservative indoctrination or whether children are enterprising enough to read what many of the contributors to this volume see as the subversive potential of these texts This collection of literary and historical criticism of nineteenth century American children s literature draws upon recent assessments of canon formations gender studies and cultural studies to show how concepts of public private male female and domestic foreign are collapsed to reveal a picture of American childhood and life that is expansive and constrictive at the same time Ebony ,1987-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Selling Lucky Art Fetting,1978-08-01 Ebony ,1961-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine New York Court of Appeals. Women, and Children Heather Marcovitch,Nancy Batty,2012-08-02 This book edited by Heather Marcovitch and Nancy Batty offers multiple perspectives on the representation of women and children in the popular AMC series Mad Men These essays explore the rich historical and social context portrayed in the series and connect the concerns and tumult of the sixties to the contemporary moment Ethnographies of Youth and Temporality Anne Line Dalsgard,Martin

Frederiksen,Susanne Hojlund,2014-05-09 Provides a diverse collection of ethnographic studies and theoretical explorations of youth experiencing time in a variety of contemporary socio cultural settings The essays in this volume focus on time as an external and often troubling factor in young people s lives and shows how emotional unrest and violence but also creativity and hope are responses to troubling times The chapters discuss notions of time and its objectification in diverse locales including the Georgian Republic Brazil Denmark and Uganda Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork the essays in Ethnographies of Youth and Temporality use youth as a prism to understand time and its subjective experience Federal

Trade Commission Decisions United States. Federal Trade Commission,1948 We Are What We Sell Danielle Sarver Coombs,Bob Batchelor,2014-01-15 For the last 150 years advertising has created a consumer culture in the United States shaping every facet of American life from what we eat and drink to the clothes we wear and the cars we drive In the United States advertising has carved out an essential place in American culture and advertising messages undoubtedly play a significant role in determining how people interpret the world around them This three volume set examines the myriad ways that advertising has influenced many aspects of 20th century American society such as popular culture politics and the economy Advertising not only played a critical role in selling goods to an eager public but it also served to establish the now world renowned consumer culture of our country and fuel the notion of the American dream The collection spotlights the most important advertising campaigns brands and companies in American history from the late 1800s to modern day Each fact driven essay provides insight and in depth analysis that general readers will find fascinating as well as historical details and contextual nuance students and researchers will greatly appreciate These volumes demonstrate why advertising is absolutely necessary not only for companies behind the messaging but also in defining what it means to be an American
