Shampoo Planet Douglas Coupland, 1994 Shampoo-Planet Douglas Coupland, 1996 Mixed Climbs in the Canadian Rockies Sean Isaac, 2004 Covering Waterton to Jasper this guide provides essential information for eager climbers looking to push their limits Shampoo Planet Random House, 1998-11-01 Likenesses Matthew Reynolds, 2017-07-05 Translation illustration and interpretation have at least two things in common They all begin when sense is made in the act of reading that is where illustrative images and explanatory words begin to form And they all ask to be understood in relation to the works from which they have arisen reading them is a matter of reading readings Likenesses explores this palimpsestic realm with examples from Dante to the contemporary sculptor Rachel Whiteread The complexities that emerge are different from Empsonian ambiguity or de Man's unknowable infinity of signification here meaning dawns and fades as the hologrammic text is filled out and flattened by successive encounters Since all literature and art is palimpsestic to some degree Reynolds proposes this style of interpretation can become a tactic for criticism in general Critics need both to indulge and to distrust the metamorphic power of their interpreting imaginations Likenesses follows on from the argument of Reynolds's The Poetry of Translation 2011 extending it through other translations and beyond them into a wide range of layered texts Browning emerges as a key figure because his poems laminate languages places times and modes of utterance with such compelling energy There are also substantial innovative accounts of Dryden Stubbs Goya Turner Tennyson Ungaretti and many more

The Global Remapping of American Literature Paul Giles, 2018-06-12 This book charts how the cartographies of American literature as an institutional category have varied radically across different times and places Arguing that American literature was consolidated as a distinctively nationalist entity only in the wake of the U S Civil War Paul Giles identifies this formation as extending until the beginning of the Reagan presidency in 1981 He contrasts this with the more amorphous boundaries of American culture in the eighteenth century and with ways in which conditions of globalization at the turn of the twenty first century have reconfigured the parameters of the subject In light of these fluctuating conceptions of space Giles suggests new ways of understanding the shifting territory of American literary history ranging from Cotton Mather to David Foster Wallace and from Henry Wadsworth Longfellow to Zora Neale Hurston Giles considers why European medievalism and Native American prehistory were crucial to classic nineteenth century authors such as Emerson Hawthorne and Melville He discusses how twentieth century technological innovations such as air travel affected representations of the national domain in the texts of F Scott Fitzgerald and Gertrude Stein And he analyzes how regional projections of the South and the Pacific Northwest helped to shape the work of writers such as William Gilmore Simms Jos Mart Elizabeth Bishop and William Gibson Bringing together literary analysis political history and cultural geography The Global Remapping of American Literature reorients the subject for the transnational era
