Shape Of A City:

The Shape of a City Julien Gracq, 2005 Julien Gracq the most important writer in France is also the only living writer whose complete works appear in a volume of the prestigious Pleiades editions The most original of his later works is this book about Nantes which is Gracq's personal and profound response to Proust's synthesis of memory reverie and realism The work begins with a quote from Baudelaire The shape of a city as we all know changes more quickly than the mortal heart The author writes of a child's experience of the hierarchy of urban spaces the radial avenues walked during school recreation periods the districts between the axes and the relationship to Nantes of those who lived there including Breton and Rimbaud

The Shape of the City Frank Lloyd Wright, 1956 The Shape of the City William Zeckendorf, 1956 The Shape of the City Kids? capital Pretoria Viewing the city through its most vulnerable people and places it recognizes that urban space is never neutral and shaped by competing value frameworks The first part of the book invites planners city makers and ordinary urban citizens to consider a new self understanding reclaiming their agency in the city making process Through the metaphor of becoming like children planning practice is deconstructed and re imagined A praxis based methodology is presented cultivating four distinct moments of entering reading imagining and co constructing the city After deconstructing urban spaces and discourses the second part of the book explores a concrete spirituality and ethic of urban space It argues for a shift from planning as technocracy to planning as immersed participatory artistry opening up to the genius of space responsive to urban cries and joining to construct new soul full spaces Local communities and interconnected movements become embodiments of urban alternatives through resistance and reconstruction building on local assets animating local reclamations and weaving nets of hope that will span the entire city Providing a concrete methodology for city making that is rooted in a community based urban praxis this book will be of interest to urban planning researchers professional planners and designers and also grass root community developers or activists Global City Regions Roger Simmonds, Gary Hack, 2000 Based on funded research of 13 city regions across three continents this comparative study looks at changes in land use since 1970 The socio economic and physical forms of city regions have also been examined for comparative study

African City Textualities Ranka Primorac, 2013-09-13 The stereotype of Africa as a predominantly natural space ignores the existence of vibrant and cosmopolitan urban environments on the continent Far from merely embodying backwardness and lack African cities are sites of complex and diverse cultural productions which participate in modernity and its dynamics of global flows and exchanges This volume merges the concerns of urban literary and cultural studies by focusing on the flows and exchanges of texts and textual elements By analysing how texts such as popular and canonical fiction popular music self help pamphlets graffiti films journalistic writing rumours and urban legends engage with the problems of citizenship self organisation and survival the collection shows that despite all the problems of Africa its cities continue to engender forward looking creativity and hope The texts collected here belong to several different genres themselves and they are authored by both distinguished and younger scholars based in and outside of Africa The volume explores the textualities emerging from the cities of Senegal Nigeria Ghana Uganda Kenya Zambia Zimbabwe and South Africa Above all it calls for an end to disabling hierarchical categorisations of both texts and cities This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Postcolonial Writing

Water and the City Iain White, 2013-03 Filling a gap in the literature of water and the city White tackles droughts flooding and the supply of water in this welcome addition to the series Comprehensive and thought provoking it is an ideal text for all geography and planning students

Democracy, Citizenship and the Global City Engin F. Isin, 2013-04-15 Democracy Citizenship and the Global City focuses on the controversial neglected theme of citizenship It examines the changing role of citizens their rights obligations and responsibilities as members of nation states and the issue of accountability in a global society Using this interdisciplinary approach the book offers an innovative collection of work from Robert A Beauregard Anna Bounds Janine Brodie Richard Dagger Gerard Delanty Judith A Garber Robert J Holton Warren Magnusson Raymond Rocco Nikolas Rose Evelyn S Ruppert Saskia Sassen Bryan S Turner John Urry Gerda R Wekerle and Nira Yuval Davis The City Reader Richard T. LeGates, Frederic Stout, 2015-07-16 The sixth edition of the highly successful The City Reader juxtaposes the very best classic and contemporary writings on the city to provide the comprehensive mapping of the terrain of Urban Studies and Planning old and new The City Reader is the anchor volume in the Routledge Urban Reader Series and is now integrated with all ten other titles in the series This edition has been extensively updated and expanded to reflect the latest thinking in each of the disciplinary areas included and in topical areas such as compact cities urban history place making sustainable urban development globalization cities and climate change the world city network the impact of technology on cities resilient cities cities in Africa and the Middle East and urban theory The new edition places greater emphasis on cities in the developing world globalization and the global city system of the future The plate sections have been revised and updated Sixty generous selections are included forty four from the fifth edition and sixteen new selections including three newly written exclusively for The City Reader The sixth edition keeps classic writings by authors such as Ebenezer Howard Ernest W Burgess LeCorbusier Lewis Mumford Jane Jacobs and Louis Wirth as well as the best contemporary writings of among others Peter Hall Manuel Castells David Harvey Saskia Sassen and Kenneth Jackson In addition to newly commissioned selections by Yasser Elshestawy Peter Taylor and Lawrence Vale new selections in the sixth edition include writings by Aristotle Peter Calthorpe Alberto Camarillo Filip DeBoech Edward Glaeser David Owen Henri Pirenne The Project for Public Spaces Jonas Rabinovich and Joseph Lietman Doug Saunders and Bish Sanyal The anthology features general and section introductions as well as individual introductions to the selected articles introducing the authors providing context relating the selection to other selection and providing a bibliography for further study The sixth edition includes fifty plates in four plate sections substantially revised from the fifth edition Public Values for Cities and City Policy Jari Stenvall, Ilpo Laitinen, Ruth Yeoman, Marc Thompson, Milena Mueller Santos, 2021-10-25 This book provides a framework for understanding the creation of public value in urban environments The ability of cities to produce value is related to their capacity to generate meaningful resources for city residents and workers that enable them to craft meaningfulness in life and work Meaningfulness and public value require new ways of leading and developing city governance This extends to designing inclusive structures and processes for people to grapple with the meanings and values underpinning public value creation A public value framework demands that city governance goes beyond ordinary government to considerations of how to involve city residents and workers in creating and maintaining the common good The common good is determined by an inclusive associational life characterized by deliberative processes and opportunities for social contribution When acting upon their entitlements to make the city urban residents and workers as members of diverse

civic public and private organizations co create the meanings that facilitate the collective action necessary to translate values into value The experience of cooperating for the common good produces meanings that people can adopt into a sense that their lives have significance and purpose This is particularly relevant to understanding how to motivate just and inclusive sustainability transitions especially as cities recover from the Covid 19 pandemic Focusing on cities and urban policy the main theme of this book is to elaborate on public values for cities and city policies and to further develop the concept of the meaningful city This book aims to provide new kinds of tools for city development that can help them co create resilience against future shocks

Proceedings of the ... Conference for Good City Government and of the ... Annual Meeting of the National Municipal League Held ..., 1904 Historia, 1909 The Leftmost City Richard Gendron, 2010-09 Almost all US cities are controlled by real estate and development interests but Santa Cruz California is a deviant case An unusual coalition of socialist feminists environmentalists social welfare liberals and neighborhood activists has st

Communication, Culture, and Making Meaning in the City Ahmet Atay, Jay Brower, 2017-10-10 As communicative cultural and political spaces cities present a vast array of racial ethnic national sexual and socioeconomic experiences around which human communities take shape This shaping forms a germinal point of mass cultural life City planners decide where buildings and neighborhoods are developed which ultimately affects who residents interact with how they get there and why they choose city life From these experiences boundaries and possibilities arise that define cultures of the city In Communication Culture and Making Meaning in the City Ethnographic Engagements in Urban Environments contributors focus on theorizing the notion of the city as a communicatively constituted cultural space drawing on situated reflexive ethnographic examinations of the city to show the complex and varied ways in which cities produce social meaning

Cities, Politics, and Policy John P. Pelissero, 2002-10-01 Just because Milwaukee isn't Manhattan doesn't mean that those urban centers face completely unique challenges Through effective comparative analysis of key issues in urban studies how city managers share power with mayors how spending policies affect economic development and how school politics impact education policy students can clearly see how scholars discern patterns and formulate conclusions to offer theoretical and practical insights from which all cities can benefit Pelissero brings together an impressive team of contributors to explore variation among cities through case studies and cross sectional analyses Each author synthesizes the field's seminal literature while explaining how urban leaders and their constituents grapple with everything from city council politics to conflict and cooperation among minority groups Authors identify both key trends and gaps in the scholarship and help set the research agenda for the years to come Lively case material will hook your students while the accessible presentation of empirical evidence make this reader the comprehensive and sophisticated text you demand
