Emilsen, Patricia Curthoys, 2025-04-25 Often theological colleges are the site of tension between the aspirations of the overall institution of the church and the goals of the particular college itself While they are usually the first called upon to solve the numerous problems facing the modern church yet just as likely they are criticized for being too academic too out of touch with contemporary society and too expensive A fair reading of the ten essays in Things That Matter will refute or at the very least question these criticisms The authors of this inspiring collection although far from uncritical clearly show that since 1999 when United Theological College the Uniting Church s premier college in New South Wales became part of Charles Sturt University s School of Theology there have been great benefits for students faculty the church and the broader community Heidegger, Bonhoeffer and the Concept of Home in Christian Youth Work Phoebe Hill, 2022-05-25 This book explores what it means to be and become at home in theological perspective located in the context of a youth club Drawing on ethnographic research Phoebe Hill presents an account of what an authentic Christian hospitality could look like in a youth setting and the ways in which the young people the strangers at the door might enable the Christian youth worker to become more fully at home Discourses around Christian hospitality often unwittingly perpetuate implicit power imbalances The youth club offers a context for Christian hospitality that tips the power in favour of the young people who attend enabling the youth leaders to share and create home with young people in a distinctive way As young people leave the Church in droves the Church faces the urgent and daunting task of finding new ways of being with young people on their own terms this book offers one solution Hill argues that homecoming is an essential task of humanity We are connected in this common pilgrimage and the need to find places and spaces where we can be at home Becoming at home may be harder than ever before numerous sociological philosophical and theological factors are compromising our ability to dwell in the contemporary world Rest Siang-Yang Tan, 2003 Come to Me all you who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest Bringing a distinctly Christian perspective to the subject of finding true rest in the midst of daily pressures Siang Yang Tan diagnoses what ails us and provides thoroughly practical steps to help us respond to Jesus invitation In this book Siang Yang Tan draws from a richness of experience to write with warmth and compassion Since he himself knows the difficulty of slowing down in these hyperactive times he is able to give practical guidelines to others drawn from a wealth of information found in the Scriptures empirical research and psychological reports If rest is not easy for you to put into practice learn from an author who is growing at a healthy pace and willing to bring others along on the journey from the Foreword by Dr Gary R Collins SIANG YANG TAN is professor of psychology at Fuller Theological Seminary He also serves as Senior Pastor of First Evangelical Church in Glendale California He has authored or co authored eight previous books including Disciplines of the Holy Spirit and Understanding Depression He is an associate editor of The Journal of Psychology and Christianity
