Legro, 2016-04-05 Shaper Nations provides perspectives on the national strategies of eight countries that are shaping global politics in the twenty first century The volume s authors offer a unique viewpoint they live and work primarily in the country about which they write bringing an insider s feel for national debates and politics Earth Shapers Maxim Samson, 2025-08-07 A riposte to the idea that geography is destiny FINANCIAL TIMES Samson demonstrates how we are not always prisoners of geography but increasingly its masters LEWIS DARTNELL This is a book that reshapes our story of global human geography DANNY DORLING Accessible and erudite this is an original look at the geography of connection LEWIS BASTON Mountains meridians rivers and borders these are some of the features that carve up the world on our maps and in our minds But geography is far less set in stone than we might believe and over time we have become experts at reshaping our surroundings From the Qhapaq an South America s Great Road and the Panama Canal to Mozambique s railways and Korea s sacred Baekdu daegan mountain range Samson explores how we mould the world around us And how as we etch our needs onto the natural landscape we alter the course of history An immense work of cultural geography touching on ecology sociology history and politics Earth Shapers argues that far from being constrained by geography we are instead its creators Africa-Europe Research and Innovation Cooperation Andrew Cherry, James Haselip, Gerard Ralphs, Isabella E. Wagner, 2018-02-07 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license This edited volume is concerned with the evolution and achievements of cooperation in research and innovation between Africa and Europe and points to the need for more diversified funding and finance mechanisms and for novel models of collaboration to attract new actors and innovative ideas It reflects on the political economic diplomatic and scientific rationale for cooperation while also examining practical developments illustrated with examples in the fields of food security health and climate change The need to mobilise scientific knowledge and to ensure equality and fairness in the cooperation are recurrent themes Africa Europe Cooperation in Research and Innovation is essential reading for policy makers and researchers in international relations and science diplomacy The Presidents of the United States: Leaders, Visionaries, and Shapers of History Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-12 Embark on a captivating journey through American history as we explore the lives and legacies of the men who have occupied the Oval Office From George Washington to the current incumbent this comprehensive guide delves into the challenges triumphs and decisions that have shaped the nation s destiny With engaging narratives and insightful analysis this book provides a deeper understanding of the complexities of presidential leadership Discover how presidents have guided the nation through times of war and peace prosperity and adversity Explore the policies they enacted the challenges they faced and the lasting impact of their decisions From the birth of the nation to the modern era this book traces the evolution of the presidency and the changing role of the president in American society Witness the transformative leadership of Abraham Lincoln during the Civil War the economic policies of Franklin D Roosevelt during the Great Depression and the global influence of Ronald Reagan during the Cold War This book is not just a chronicle of presidential history it is also a celebration of the American spirit Through the stories of its presidents we gain a deeper appreciation for the resilience innovation and determination that have shaped the nation Whether you are a history buff a student of politics or simply a curious reader this book offers a fascinating exploration of the American presidency Immerse yourself in the lives of these extraordinary leaders and gain a new perspective on the history of the United States If you like this book write a review

The Dictionary Catalog of the Vivian G. Harsh Collection of Afro-American History and Literature, the Chicago Public Library Chicago Public Library, 1978 Africa's Global Infrastructures Jana Honke, Eric Cezne, Yifan Yang, 2024-02-01

The boom in South South relations since the early 2000s has seen a flurry of investment in African infrastructure from emerging markets across the Global South While the extent to which these projects spur growth is constantly debated few studies have addressed their impact on ground level political and socio economic practices in Africa or their consequences for transnational governance more broadly Through the lens of infrastructure this book investigates the developmental ideas processes and techniques that have travelled to and emerged from Africa as a result of Global South led projects How have they been adapted transformed and contested by local actors How does this shape business society relations And how has this challenged the Western dominated global order The contributors zoom in on large scale Chinese Brazilian and Indian funded ventures dams ports roads and mines across countries including Kenya Mozambique and the DRC These frontier zones bringing together politicians and practitioners campaign groups and communities from Africa and elsewhere offer a unique insight into the global workings of our contemporary world Taking a bottom up approach Africa's Global

Infrastructures explores the longer term significance and implications of these pluralistic socio economic interactions for the continent and beyond Mammals of Africa: Volume I Jonathan Kingdon, 2014-11-20 Mammals of Africa MoA is a series of six volumes which describes in detail every currently recognized species of African land mammal This is the first time that such extensive coverage has ever been attempted and the volumes incorporate the very latest information and detailed discussion of the morphology distribution biology and evolution including reference to fossil and molecular data of Africa's mammals With more than 1 160 species and 16 18 orders Africa has the greatest diversity and abundance of mammals in the world The reasons for this and the mechanisms behind their evolution are given special attention in the series Each volume follows the same format with detailed profiles of every species and higher taxa The series includes hundreds of colour illustrations and pencil drawings by Jonathan Kingdon highlighting the morphology and behaviour of the species concerned as well as line drawings of skulls and jaws by Jonathan Kingdon and Meredith Happold Every species also includes a detailed distribution map Edited by Jonathan Kingdon David Happold Tom Butynski Mike Hoffmann Meredith Happold and Jan Kalina and written by more than 350 authors all experts in their fields Mammals of Africa is as comprehensive a compendium of

The News Shapers Lawrence C. Soley,1992-04-20 Analysts political scientists scholars and consultants The News Shapers describes the elite club of individuals that the media approach for inside information background or predictions concerning the outcome of still unfolding stories Although they are presented as detached experts Lawrence C Soley uncovers their long histories of partisanship as former government officials or politicians and charges that most of the shapers have no better credentials than the millions of people to whom the news media never turn Soley s findings based on a University of Minnesota study which examined three major networks evening newscasts during 1987 1988 reveal that a small number of white politically conservative men associated with Washington based think tanks former Republican administrations and private East Coast universities virtually monopolize political discourse in the mass media Dispelling the myth of the media s liberal bias Soley discusses the shortcomings of both print and broadcast journalism which lead to selection of partisan news analysts and the effects of their commentaries on foreign and domestic affairs Special attention is given to Henry Kissinger Washington Think Tanks and the media s handling of the conflict with Iraq The News Shapers identifies the experts their past political affiliations and their often thin academic credentials It is highly recommended for scholars in communications journalism and political science as well as for newspaper readers and television news viewers

Africa-to-Africa Internationalization Ifedapo Adeleye,Lyal White,Nathaniel Boso,2016-09-24 Highlighting an important emerging trend in FDI to Africa this book consists of important contributions focusing on an increase in trade and investment between African countries An area that until now has received little attention this volume aims to define the key issues and explores the challenges and outcomes that have characterized Africa to Africa internationalization providing guidance on directions for future research Africa to Africa Internationalization includes both conceptual and empirical contributions illustrating the practical issues in intra African trade and investment Providing readers with a deep sense of the realities and challenges of cross border investments within the region the cases included in the book are useful pedagogical materials for faculty members interested in teaching international business in the African context

Youth Entrepreneurship and Africa's Sustainable Industrialization Farai Kapfudzaruwa,Masafumi Nagao,Emmanuel Mutisya,2018-10-18 This book investigates the prospects of Africa s sustainable industrialization with an emphasis on youth entrepreneurship and the mechanisms in place to support both industrial and corporate entrepreneurs The volume addresses two specific issues first industrialization and youth entrepreneurship and secondly youth entrepreneurship training and education The emphasis on youth entrepreneurship to drive sustainable industrialization in Africa is driven by three points first Africa s industrialization is still at its inception with severely limited existing stock of entrepreneurial talents which makes it imperative to look to the continent s bulging youth population the population dividend for the needed supply of successive generations of entrepreneurs Secondly sustainable industrialization would have to be oriented to green ICT and inclusive growth which calls for a change in entrepreneurs attitudes Finally at the centre of the Africa Rising narrative is a budding new cheetah generation of young entrepreneurs who are highly educated professional and motivated by the need to set up new business models and practices to compete in the Fourth Industrial Revolution This volume forms part of an Education for Sustainable Development in Africa ESDA book series involving the United Nations University Institute for the Advanced Study of Sustainability and 8 partner African universities running Master s Programs in sustainable development The book series is intended to serve primarily as undergraduate and graduate instruction materials for courses on sustainable development in Africa as well as policy input to key developmental issues in Africa

The Church and Politics Bernard Boyo, 2021-05-10 The Church and Politics offers an introduction to African political theology that is thorough practical and deeply powerful From traditional power structures to the political ramifications of colonialism Dr Bernard Boyo provides a foundation for understanding Africa s contemporary political concerns in their cultural and historical context Alongside this overview of African political history Boyo traces the impact of Western missionaries evangelicals liberation theology and African theologians on the church s understanding of itself and its role within society This book critiques the emphasis on individual salvation that has so often led the church into abdicating its societal responsibilities and provides an exegetical analysis that firmly roots political engagement within a scriptural framework The church we are reminded has a mandate to bring justice and righteousness into every aspect of human experience As we follow Christ it is not just our personal lives that should be transformed but our communities and even our nations

100 Years of Radio in South Africa, Volume 1 Sisanda Nkoala, Gilbert Motsaathebe, 2023-12-27 The book brings together media scholars and practitioners to deliberate on the role and influence of radio broadcasting in South Africa over the past 100 years The publication will add to the existing body of knowledge on radio in this context by being among one of the few to consider radio broadcasting in South Africa Essentially the book will make a distinct contribution by providing the following a historical account of the development of the sector an in depth look at some of the key people and institutions that have shaped the sector and a critique of the medium s role in community building and culture making among others While the book will provide relevant theoretical frameworks it also aims to include the voices of media practitioners who can reflect on the importance of this medium from a more realistic perspective Volume 1 focuses on South African radio stations and broadcasters in the past and present African Security John Siko,Jonah Victor,2020-03-19 The world s fastest growing continent demographically Africa displays nearly all the features of today s global security challenges armed conflict terrorism irregular migration organized crime great power competition public discontent and economic turbulence John Siko and Jonah Victor present their lessons from professional practice and pedagogical approach from the classroom in a concise guidebook that leads students and professionals through the most important issues dynamics challenges and considerations for analysing and planning responses to security developments in Africa This book provides issue by issue primers on the causes and consequences of Africa s security challenges that include how to anticipate security problems across current political and economic events how to analyse African security institutions and military capabilities how to understand historical trends across the African continent and appreciate unique variations among countries how to identify key drivers of future trends how to connect security analysis to policy planning Learning is supported through the following features Thematic chapters which are optimized to help the reader quickly connect to the key concepts and analytic frameworks within the field The most relevant historical case studies enabling students to engage in sophisticated analysis and discussion Connections and contrasts between the situations in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa which are traditionally studied separately Special sections on understanding race and ethnicity and advice on traveling in Africa Chapter end checklists of key questions to enable practical engagement with the topics covered Biotechnology, Agriculture, and Food Security in Southern Africa Steven Were Omamo,Klaus von Grebmer,2005-01-01 This book brings together experts from within and outside Africa to discuss the current status of biotechnology in southern Africa the conceptual framework for multistakeholder dialogues the political and ethical issues surrounding biotechnology food safety and consumer issues biosafety intellectual property rights and trade involving genetically modified foods Israel and South Africa Ilan Pappé,2015-10-15 Within the already heavily polarised debate on the Israeli Palestinian conflict parallels between Israel and apartheid South Africa remain highly contentious A number of prominent academic and political commentators including former US president Jimmy Carter and UN Special Rapporteur John Dugard have argued that Israel s treatment of its Arab Israeli citizens and the people of the occupied territories amounts to a system of oppression no less brutal or inhumane than that of South Africa s white supremacists Similarly boycott and disinvestment campaigns comparable to those employed by anti apartheid activists have attracted growing support Yet while the apartheid question has become increasingly visible in this debate there has been little in the way of genuine scholarly analysis of the similarities or otherwise between the Zionist and apartheid regimes In Israel and South Africa Ilan Papp one of Israel s preeminent academics and a noted critic of the current government brings together lawyers journalists policy makers and historians of both countries to assess the implications of the apartheid analogy for international law activism and policy making With contributors including the distinguished anti apartheid activist Ronnie Kasrils Israel and South Africa offers a bold and incisive perspective on one of the defining moral questions of our age
