Shaping The 21st Century Social Change And Global Issues In Canada And Latin America:

Shaping the 21st Century Jeff (Jeffrey Kenneth) McDonald, CoDevelopment Canada, 1996 This resource book attempts to remedy the difficulties inherent in the consideration of current issues by providing materials that relates the issues to the rest of the curriculum Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Globalization in the 21st Century B. Berberoglu, 2010-04-12 This book examines the development and transformation of global capitalism in the late 20th and early 21st century It analyzes the dynamics and contradictions of the global political economy through a comparative historical approach based on class analysis After providing a critical overview of neoliberal capitalist globalization over the past three decades the book examines the emergence of new forces on the global scene and discusses the prospects of change in the global economy in a multi polar direction in the decades ahead The book concludes by focusing on the mass movements that are playing a central role in bringing about the transformation of global capitalism The Shape of Sociology for the 21st Century Devorah Kalekin-Fishman, Ann Denis, 2012-05-14 This critical volume explores the meaning of sociology and sociological knowledge in light of the recent growth and institutionalization of the discipline A stellar group of international authors powerfully identify question and transform key assumptions in sociology Leading us through the challenges faced by sociology and the possible strategies for addressing them in the future the book includes discussion of key issues such as globalization development social policy and inequality Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile, Cort J. Willmott, 2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White The Essential Guide to Critical Development Studies Henry Veltmeyer, Paul Bowles, 2021-09-30 The Essential Guide to Critical Development Studies provides an up to date and authoritative introduction to the field challenging mainstream development discourse and the assumptions that underlie it Critical development studies lays bare the economic political social and environmental crises that characterise the current global capitalist system proposing instead systemic change and different pathways for moving beyond capitalism into a new world of genuine progress where economic and social justice and ecological integrity prevail In this book the authors challenge market driven neoliberal development agendas incorporating analyses of class gender race and the dynamics of uneven capitalist development This thoroughly revised and expanded second edition includes 18 new chapters including on topics such as philanthrocapitalism race the energy transition Indigenous resistance and resilience and global health Expanded global coverage including new chapters on South Africa North Africa and the Gulf Arab states A new section on resistance and alternatives Additional pedagogical features including a glossary of key terms discussion questions and expanded guides for further reading This textbook will be essential reading for students of global development political science sociology economics gender studies geography history anthropology agrarian studies international political economy and area studies It will also be an important resource for development researchers practitioners and policymakers
