No Longer Slaves Brad Ronnell Braxton, 2015-03-15 No Longer Slaves brings the ancient New Testament message into conversation with African American culture Twenty centuries after Paul penned Galatians American culture in general and American Christianity in particular continue to struggle with the problem of race relations Our challenges are not identical to those faced by Paul and the Galatians Yet when one reads Galatians through the lens of African American experience striking similarities emerge In No Longer Slaves Brad Braxton helps us see that race relations is a central issue in Galatians Paul believes that Christ came in order to unite Jews and Gentiles The church was intended to be a multi ethnic community in which persons of different backgrounds co existed harmoniously Any effort to compel Gentiles to live as Jews is an invalidation of the freedom of the Gospel Galatians offers us a portrait of an early Christian leader and community sorting out complex social issues No Longer Slaves explores the concept of liberation in African American experience It entails a discussion of American slavery Rather than depicting African Americans simply as victims of the crimes of slavery and segregation Braxton describes the creative cultural and religious responses of African Americans to their oppression He employs a type of reader response theory that considers the experiences of the reading community as a lens through which texts are read His discussion of methodology exposes the reader to some of the issues in the current debate without becoming burdensome to the non specialist The remainder of the book is an interpretation of Paul s letter to the Galatians Although Braxton takes seriously the original context of Galatians and his exegesis engages the Greek text he offers a contemporary theological reading that privileges the history experiences and concerns of African Americans Those who are concerned about the connection between Christianity and ethnicity will find this interpretation intriguing and challenging Chapters in Liberation and African American Experience are Introduction Liberation Rationales and Definitions Blackness Biology and Ideology and African American Biblical Interpretation Chapters in A Reading Strategy for Liberation are Reader Response Criticism and Black and Womanist Theologies The Bible and Authority in Reader Response Criticism and The African American Christian Interpretive Community Chapters in Galatians and African American Experience are Introduction Historical Overview Interpretations and Conclusion Includes a bibliography Brad Ronnell Braxton PhD is the Jessie Ball DuPont Assistant Professor of Homiletics and Biblical Studies at Wake Forest University Divinity School in Winston Salem North Carolina He is an ordained Baptist minister and for five years served as Senior Pastor of Douglas Memorial Community Church in Baltimore Maryland

Human Behavior Theory and Applications Elizabeth

DePoy, Stephen French Gilson, 2011-09-21 In Human Behavior Theory and Applications authors Elizabeth DePoy and Stephen Gilson use a critical thinking approach to engage students to think in depth about theory and its use in social work practice. With a strong focus on diversity this book expands its theory coverage to include progressive and the most cutting edge contemporary thinking. The authors skillfully introduce theory, critically examine each theory including developmental theories, environmental theories, diversity theories, systems theories, and new and emerging theories, and then apply each theory to social work practice, providing a synthesis of classical and contemporary theory for scholarly analysis and application to professional intellectual and social action.

One Blood John Perkins, 2018-04-03 Dr Perkins final manifesto on race, faith, and reconciliation. We are living in historic times. Not since the civil rights movement of the 60s has our country been this vigorously engaged in the reconciliation conversation. There is a great opportunity right now for culture to change, but it cannot be done without the church. The church is the heart and moral compass of a nation. To turn a country away from God, you must sideline the church. To turn a nation to God, the church must turn first. Racism won't end in America until the church is reconciled first. Then, and only then, can it spiritually and morally lead the way. In this his crowning work, Dr Perkins speaks honestly to the church about reconciliation, discipleship, and justice, and what it really takes to live out biblical reconciliation.

The Last Stand Michelle Davis, MEd, 2025-01-21 The Last Stand unveils a critical examination of the shift in public education from fostering diverse social backgrounds and academic achievement to the indoctrination of far left ideologies. Long time educator and advocate Michelle Davis delivers a call to action for parents, grandparents, education leaders, and teachers to reclaim control over their local schools and challenge the encroachment of secular influences. In this eye-opening exploration, concerned Christians are urged to engage with their communities, conduct independent research, and organize for change. Davis emphasizes the need for a litmus test to evaluate the alignment of churches and private schools with Biblically based values as pop culture increasingly erodes them. As Christians become the counter culture, it is imperative for parents to shed their blinders and critically analyze the foundational policies of local school districts, discerning the presence of indoctrination and grooming. The Last Stand empowers traditionalists who are committed to safeguarding core Christian values for the sake of our children and the future of this great nation.

The Human Experience Elizabeth DePoy, 2007 The Human Experience examines, analyzes, and applies theories of human environments and human environment interaction to professional thinking and action. The authors highlight tacit values and assumptions that underlie theory generation and application to professional practice and challenge the reader to answer two questions: how do we know, and what do we do with our knowledge? Significant critical emphasis is devoted to diversity of humans and environments and the value perimeter in which professionals think and act.

conversation between the biblical narrative of conquest related biblical themes and the American master narrative of Manifest Destiny Writing in an accessible style and format Hawk offers an exegesis of the biblical text with special emphasis on the ways the narrative of conquest shaped ancient Israel's identity as a people A second level of commentary lifts key themes from the text e g the land as divine gift and promise mass killing Israel's distinctive attributes the construction of the Indigenous Other and sets them within their broader biblical context A third dimension reflects on corresponding elements in America's narrative of westward expansion e g the conviction of America's unique character and destiny total war and ethnic cleansing the dehumanization of Native peoples patriotism and homeland the idea of the American Dream As a whole this book offers Joshua as a biblical resource for reading the American experience challenging readers to reflect on how conquest shaped America's identity and how it continues to influence American attitudes and actions Racism Thomas Schirmacher, 2014-01-28 Are white people more intelligent than black people Are Jews devious and grabby Intolerance and violence through racism includes slavery national socialism in Germany apartheid in South Africa or the genocides in Rwanda and Bosnia But racism is not only wrong theologically it is not only against the dignity of humans that guarantees their human rights but newer genetic research also proves that the whole classification into races is without foundation Biologically speaking all humans belong to one race E g when you need a blood transfusion you should not look for a blood donor from your race but someone with the same blood group transcending all races Transforming the Church in Africa: Vernon E.
