they struggle with visions of a future as parents that would accommodate Joseph's aspiration to succeed. The task is too great. Questions of character capacity for love and tolerance and readiness for parenthood remain unanswered. Unable to reconcile family attitudes and their own differences and to take what they know to be the honorable course they see changes come about in themselves caused by guilt and resentment. Joseph must make his way alone. Ann releases their baby for adoption. Haunted by the echoes of their decision, Joseph and Ann part, each heading toward an unexpected future. The past is always with us. Will Ann find redemption or will she be forever trapped in regret for what might have been.
