Many Worlds Of Literature:

The Many Worlds of Literature Stuart Hirschberg, 1994 The Many Worlds of Anglophone Literature Silvia Anastasijevic, Magdalena Pfalzgraf, Hanna Teichler, 2024-01-11 On what terms and concepts can we ground the comparative study of Anglophone literatures and cultures around the world today What if anything unites the novels of Witi Ihimaera the speculative fiction of Nnedi Okorafor the life writings by Stuart Hall and the emerging Anglophone Arab literature by writers like Omar Robert Hamilton This volume explores the globality of Anglophone fiction both as a conceptual framing and as a literary imaginary It highlights the diversity of lives and worlds represented in Anglophone writing as well as the diverse imaginations of transnational connections articulated in it Featuring a variety of internationally renowned scholars this book thinks through Anglophone literature not as a problematic legacy of colonial rule or as exoticizing commodity in a global literary marketplace but examines it as an inherently transcultural literary medium Contributors provide new insights into how it facilitates the articulation of divergent experiences of modernity and the critique of hierarchies and inequalities within among and beyond post colonial societies The Many Worlds of American Communism Joshua Morris, 2022-09-08 This book explores the multifaceted dimensions that make up the American communist movement from its early years in the 1920s to its peak in the years leading up to World War II The author argues that in order to effectively understand a social movement it is necessary to take an approach that differentiates between the political social and labor oriented motivations taken by the movement's participants By exploring the political community and labor dimensions of American communism the author helps convey the complex nature of social movements and the various ways they attempted to create agency in their society The Routledge Companion to World Literature and World History May Hawas, 2018-04-19 The Routledge Companion to World Literature and World History is a comprehensive and engaging volume combining essays from historians and literary academics to create a space for productive cross cultural encounters between the two fields In addition to the 27 essays the Companion includes general introductions from two of the leading scholars of history and literature David Damrosch and Patrick Manning as well as personal testimonies from artists working in the area and editorials asking provocative questions The volume includes sections on People with essays looking at World Literature Intellectual Commerce Religion language and war and Indigenous ethnography Networks and methods examining maps geography morality and the crises of world literature Transformations including essays on race colonialism and the non human Interdisciplinary and groundbreaking this volume brings to light various ways in which scholars of literature and history analyse assimilate or reveal the intellectual heritage of the past at the same moment as they try consciously to deal with an unending amount of new information and an awareness of global connections and discrepancies Including work from leading academics in the field as well as newer voices the Companion is ideal for students and scholars alike Reading World Literature Sarah Lawall, 2010-01-01 As teachers and readers expand the canon of world literature to include writers whose voices traditionally have been silenced by the dominant culture fundamental questions arise What do we mean by world What constitutes literature Who should decide Reading World Literature is a cumulative study of the concept and evolving practices of world literature Sarah Lawall opens the book with a substantial introduction to the overall topic Twelve original essays by distinguished specialists run the gamut from close readings of specific texts to problems of translation theory and reader response The sequence of essays develops from re examinations of traditional canonical pieces through explorations of less familiar works to discussions of reading itself as a literacy dependent on worldview Reading World Literature will open challenging new vistas for a wide audience in the humanities from traditionalists to avant garde specialists in literary theory cultural studies and area studies Central American Literatures as World Literature Sophie Esch, 2023-10-05 Challenging the notion that Central American literature is a marginal space within Latin American literary and world literary production this collection positions and discusses Central American literature within the recently revived debates on world literature This groundbreaking volume draws on new scholarship on global transnational postcolonial translational and sociological perspectives on the region s literature expanding and challenging these debates by focusing on the heterogenous literatures of Central America and its diasporas Contributors discuss poems testimonios novels and short stories in relation to center periphery cosmopolitan and Internationalist paradigms Central American Literatures as World Literature explores the multiple ways in which Central American literature goes beyond or against the confines of the nation state especially through the indigenous Black and migrant voices Comparative Criticism: Volume 22, East and West: Comparative Perspectives E. S. Shaffer, Elinor S. Shaffer, 2000-11-30 Comparative Criticism first published in 2000 addresses itself to the questions of literary theory and criticism to comparative studies in terms of theme genre movement and influence and to interdisciplinary perspectives Articles include Afloat on the Sea of Stories World tales English Literature and geopolitical aesthetics Classics and the comparison of adjacent literatures some Pakistani perspectives Performance Literature the traditional Japanese theatre as model Am I in that name Women s writing as cultural translation in early modern China stabat mater reflections on a theme in German Jewish and Palestinian Arab poetry The winning entries in the 1999 BCLA BCLT translation competition are also published Philosophy of Physics Tim Maudlin, 2019-03-19 A sophisticated and original introduction to the philosophy of quantum mechanics from one of the world s leading philosophers of physics In this book Tim Maudlin one of the world s leading philosophers of physics offers a sophisticated original introduction to the philosophy of quantum mechanics The briefest clearest and most refined account of his influential approach to the subject the book will be invaluable to all students of philosophy and physics Quantum mechanics holds a unique place in the history of physics It has produced the most accurate predictions of any scientific theory but more astonishing there has never been any agreement about what the theory implies about physical reality Maudlin argues that the very term quantum theory is a misnomer A proper physical theory should clearly describe what is there and what it does yet standard textbooks present quantum mechanics as a predictive recipe in search of a physical theory In contrast Maudlin explores three proper theories that recover the quantum predictions the indeterministic wavefunction collapse theory of Ghirardi Rimini and Weber the deterministic particle theory of deBroglie and Bohm and the conceptually challenging Many Worlds theory of Everett Each offers a radically different proposal for the nature of physical reality but Maudlin shows that none of them are what they are generally taken to be

How to Read World Literature David Damrosch,2011-09-23 How to Read World Literature addresses the unique challenges faced by a reader confronting foreign literature Accessible and enlightening Damrosch offers readers the tools to navigate works as varied as Homer Sophocles Kalidasa Du Fu Dante Murasaki Moliere Kafka Soyinka and Walcott Offers a unique set of modes of entry for readers encountering foreign literature Provides readers with the tools to think creatively and systematically about key issues such as reading across time and cultures reading translated works and emerging global perspectives Covers a wide variety of genres from lyric and epic poetry to drama and prose fiction and discusses how these forms have been used in different eras and cultures

Oral Literary Worlds Sara Marzagora,Francesca Orsini,2025-01-31 The discipline of world literature has traditionally focused on written literatures particularly the novel with little emphasis placed on the unwritten verbal arts despite the significance of oral literary expressions around the world in the past as in the present This volume redresses this gap by putting the discipline of world literature into dialogue with scholarship on orature and folklore It asks what does world literature look like if we start from orature from oral texts and utterances and from the performances and audiences that support it Featuring contributions from an international array of scholars Oral Literary Worlds explores oral traditions from three multilingual regions the Maghreb East Africa and South Asia Essays discuss a variety of vernacular genres from Swahili tumbuizo to Na o folk songs shedding light on less studied forms of vernacular oral production Collectively the contributions critique the characterisation of oral traditions as static and pre modern and underscore the contemporary relevance of orature to cultural and political discourse Oral Literary Worlds offers a timely and accessible perspective on world literature through the lens of orature moving away from traditional hierarchies and dichotomies that have characterised previous scholarship It aims to open up new ways of thinking through local and transnational textual circulation literary power dynamics the interaction between textuality and audiences and aesthetic philosophies This volume will be an invaluable resource for scholars of world literature folklore and performance studies and will further interest teachers and students of popular culture literature of dissent and music

Taiwan Literature in the 21st Century Chia-rong Wu,Ming-ju Fan,2023-02-03 This book is an anthology of research co edited by Dr Chia rong Wu University of Canterbury and Professor Ming ju Fan National Chengchi University This collection of original essays integrates and expands research on Taiwan literature because it includes both established and young writers It not only engages with the evolving trends of literary Taiwan but also promotes the translocal consciousness and cultural diversity of the island state and beyond Focusing on the new directions and trends of Taiwan literature this edited book fits into Taiwan studies Sinophone studies and Asian studies Elective Affinities Agnieszka H. Hudzik, Joanna M. Moszczyńska, Jorge Estrada, Patricia A. Gwozdz, 2024-10-07

From the nineteenth century to the present literary entanglements between Latin America and East Central Europe have been socio politically and culturally diverse but never random The Iron Curtain in particular forced both regions to negotiate transatlantic elective affinities to take a stance in relation to the West and to position themselves within world literature As a result the intellectual fields and creative productions of these regions have critically engaged with notions such as post imperial marginal or peripheral In this edited volume scholars from Germany Brazil Czech Republic Hungary Mexico Poland Slovenia and Spain cross the globe from South to East and back to uncover transcultural and transareal convivialities Their papers explore literary history poetics intellectual networks and aesthetic theory while discussing new key concepts in global literary history Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume Two Philip A. Greasley, 2016-08-08

The Midwest has produced a robust literary heritage Its authors have won half of the nation's Nobel Prizes for Literature plus a significant number of Pulitzer Prizes This volume explores the rich racial ethnic and cultural diversity of the region It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works literary genres literary cultural historical and social movements state and city literatures literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction film comic strips graphic novels and environmental writing Prepared by a team of scholars this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest's continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature Encyclopaedism and Totality in Contemporary Fiction Kiron Ward, 2025-01-09 Taking as key examples work by Don DeLillo Leslie Marmon Silko Roberto Bolaño and Karen Tei Yamashita this book looks at engagements with encyclopaedic thought and practice in contemporary fiction Chapters provide important new insights into the new ways that authors approach reclaim and use totality as a method for approaching the contemporary rather than an object to be represented In this we find some of the most radical and challenging attempts in recent fiction to reimagine our world on the back of a contested history and in the face of an unstable future Where major studies of literary encyclopaedism have historically tended to draw from the canon this book looks to move beyond this tradition and pays particular attention to work from Indigenous Asian American and Latin American contexts In doing so it looks to address the challenges of reading world literature in the contemporary Many Worlds Literature Sample Hirschberg, 1993-09-01 African Literatures as World Literature Alexander Fyfe, Madhu Krishnan, 2022-11-03 The enormous success of writers such as Teju Cole and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie demonstrates that African literatures are now an international phenomenon But the apparent global legibility of a small number of mostly Anglophone writers in the diaspora raises the question of how literary producers from the continent both past and present have situated their work in relation to the world and the kinds of material networks to which this corresponds This collection shows how literatures from across the African continent engage with conceptualizations of the world in relation to local social and political issues Focusing on a wide variety of geographic historical and linguistic contexts the essays in this volume seek answers to the following questions What are the topographies of the world in different literary texts and traditions What are that world s limits boundaries and possibilities How do literary modes and forms such as realism narrative poetry or the political essay affect the presentation of worldliness What are the material networks of circulation that allow African literatures to become world literature African literatures it emerges do important theoretical work that speaks to the very core of world literary studies today Recoding World Literature B. Venkat Mani,2016-12-01 Winner 2018 Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Germanic Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association Winner 2018 German Studies Association DAAD Book Prize in Germanistik and Cultural Studies From the current vantage point of the transformation of books and libraries B Venkat Mani presents a historical account of world literature By locating translation publication and circulation along routes of bibliomigrancy the physical and virtual movement of books Mani narrates how world literature is coded and recoded as literary works find new homes on faraway bookshelves Mani argues that the proliferation of world literature in a society is the function of a nation s relationship with print culture a Faustian pact with books Moving from early Orientalist collections to the Nazi magazine Weltliteratur to the European Digital Library Mani reveals the political foundations for a history of world literature that is at once a philosophical ideal a process of exchange a mode of reading and a system of classification Shifting current scholarship s focus from the academic to the general reader from the university to the public sphere Recoding World Literature argues that world literature is culturally determined historically conditioned and politically charged Beyond the World's End T. J. Demos,2020-08-03 In Beyond the World s End T J Demos explores cultural practices that provide radical propositions for living in a world beset by environmental and political crises Rethinking relationships between aesthetics and an expanded political ecology that foregrounds just futurity Demos examines how contemporary artists are diversely addressing urgent themes including John Akomfrah s cinematic entanglements of racial capitalism with current environmental threats the visual politics of climate refugees in work by Forensic Architecture and Teddy Cruz and Fonna Forman and moving images of Afrofuturist climate justice in projects by Arthur Jafa and Martine Syms Demos considers video and mixed media art that responds to resource extraction in works by Angela Melitopoulos Allora Calzadilla and Ursula Biemann as well as the multispecies ecologies of Terike Haapoja and Public Studio Throughout Demos contends that contemporary intersections of aesthetics and politics as exemplified in the Standing Rock NoDAPL campaign and the Zad s autonomous zone in France are creating the imaginaries that will be crucial to building a socially just and flourishing future Comparing the Literatures David Damrosch,2020-04-07 The discipline of comparative literature has long sought to develop effective theories and methods of broad based study but ideas based on national canons in a handful of Western European countries no longer seem adequate even for the study of national literatures themselves Comparing the Literatures integrates comparative postcolonial and world literary perspectives and seeks common ground Looking both at institutional forces and at key episodes in the life and work of comparatists who have struggled to define and to redefine the fundamental terms of literary analysis from language to literature to theory to comparison itself Damrosch offers a comprehensive overview of the history and current prospects of comparative studies in a globalizing world
