Colonial Genocide in Indigenous North America Alexander Laban Hinton, Andrew Woolford, Jeff Benvenuto, 2014-10-31 This important collection of essays expands the geographic demographic and analytic scope of the term genocide to encompass the effects of colonialism and settler colonialism in North America Colonists made multiple and interconnected attempts to destroy Indigenous peoples as groups The contributors examine these efforts through the lens of genocide Considering some of the most destructive aspects of the colonization and subsequent settlement of North America several essays address Indigenous boarding school systems imposed by both the Canadian and U S governments in attempts to civilize or assimilate Indigenous children Contributors examine some of the most egregious assaults on Indigenous peoples and the natural environment including massacres land appropriation the spread of disease the near extinction of the buffalo and forced political restructuring of Indigenous communities Assessing the record of these appalling events the contributors maintain that North Americans must reckon with colonial and settler colonial attempts to annihilate Indigenous peoples Contributors Jeff Benvenuto Robbie Ethridge Theodore Fontaine Joseph P Gone Alexander Laban Hinton Tasha Hubbard Margaret D Jabobs Kiera L Ladner Tricia E Logan David B MacDonald Benjamin Madley Jeremy Patzer Julia Peristerakis Christopher Powell Colin Samson Gray H Whaley Andrew Woolford Mothers of Adult Children Marguerite Guzman Bouvard, 2013-09-12 Mothers of Adult Children elucidates what happens when children come of age and leave home creating new lives in the realms of work and relationships Mothers from around the world learn that this is the point in which their relationships with their children must drastically change Mothers often come to terms with the changes by accepting differences and providing moral and emotional support when needed However the evolutionary nature of mothers roles throughout the course of their children s lives is not only determined by the mother child dynamic The mothering of adult children is a transformative role and the stories presented here show that the dynamics between mother and child are also influenced by cultural events Accidents disasters war and other hardships also intervene in these stories of multicultural motherhood This book reveals the problems mothers of adult children face and celebrates the outstanding accomplishments of those who mother through hardship After the Orphanage Suellen Murray, 2009 While there is much literature on the experience of growing up in an orphanage very few books examine life after institutional care After the Orphanage is the first book to address how care leavers adjust to life in the outside world The Politics of Adoption Kerry O'Halloran, 2008-12-01 Adoption has always had a political dimension Its use to achieve political ends has been evident throughout history and in many different cultures In Roman times an emperor would adopt a successful general to continue his rule In Ireland under the Brehon Laws the reciprocal placements of 2 children between clans was an accepted means of cementing mutual allegiances In Japan the adoption of non relatives was traditionally seen as a means of allying 3 with the fortunes of the ruling family The willingness of governments to use adoption as a political strategy was apparent for example in Australia where it was used to 4 further the assimilation of indigenous people It is now present in the phenomenon of intercountry adoption where the flow of children particularly in the aftermath of war is often politics by proxy Adoption can be profoundly affected by politics as demonstrated by the decision of the Chinese government to advocate one child families which resulted in very many Chinese girls being relinquished for adoption abroad as their parents exercised a preference for a male child Again as in Korea in the recent past c rently in some South American countries and in those states of eastern Europe newly emerged from under the blanket of totalitarianism governments can and do facilitate an outward flow of children for reasons of economic and political 5 expediency

Law Books Published ,2001 Finding Families, Finding Ourselves Veronica Jane Strong-Boag,2006 In Finding Families Finding Ourselves historian Veronica Strong Boag examines the realities behind idealized pictures of adoptive families rescuing needy children or adoptees fitting seamlessly into new families The first comprehensive examination of the history of adoption in Canada Finding Families Finding Ourselves draws on a broad range of sources from legal cases sociological studies and government policies to fiction and first hand accounts Strong Boag argues that adoption far from being a marginal aspect of Canadian history goes to the heart of who we are as individuals and as a national community With its complicated dance of obligations and rights insiders and outsiders acceptance and rejection adoption reflects the ways in which we as families and as communities have consciously and unconsciously remade ourselves in the course of creating our future BOOK JACKET Current Law Index ,2005 Outcomes of Open Adoption from Care Harriet Ward,Lynne

Moggach, Susan Tregeagle, Helen Trivedi, 2021-12-14 This Open Access book presents unique evidence from the first comprehensive study of the outcomes of open adoption from care in Australia. It contributes to the international debate concerning the advantages and disadvantages of face to face post adoption contact with birth families. The chapters assess whether adoption provides a better chance of permanence and more positive outcomes than long term foster care for abused and neglected children in care who cannot safely return to their birth families. They also explore whether open adoption can avoid some of the detrimental consequences of past policies in which adoption was shrouded in secrecy and children frequently grew up with a conflicted sense of identity. The book will appeal to policy makers, practitioners and students of social policy, social work, the law, psychology and psychiatry. It should also be of interest to adult adoptees and adoptive parents whose experiences it reflects. The Australian Law Journal, 1928
