Marcelino And The Curse Of The Gold Frog:

Marcelino and the Curse of the Gold Frog II: The Next Fifty Years Sr. Daniel Chavez, 2018-07-12 This is the continuing story of Marcelino and the Curse of the Gold Frog that ended in 1920 After the family moves to Texas the responsible men work hard at their jobs but Tacito and his cantankerous father work hard at avoiding jobs and creating their own style of mischief and chaos much of which borders on lunacy The family has many good and bad experiences during this time Ramona and Tacito s ultimate lifelong friendship also begins to develop He takes on the role of protector advisor and confidant for the young girl After moving to Austin Tacito views relocation as a great challenge He lives separate from Marcelino s family and makes his own living Late in his life he marries for the first time and has a daughter Tragedy befalls the young girl and also claims the life of his wife Deep dark depression engulfs him until Ramona enters his life again Ramona takes Tacito into her home He quickly adjusts to his new surroundings and becomes his old self Gone much of the time and supposedly just roaming around Austin he s always home for supper Ramona demands to know what he is doing and after learning of his escapades a confrontation leads to Tacito moving out of the house Tacito gets himself in serious trouble by refusing to follow his doctor s orders Ramona is now tasked with the arduous chore of keeping the elderly man off the streets Conflicts develop which lands him in a nursing home After Tacito s death Ramona learns the surprising truth of why her dear friend wouldn t stay at home Her time of mourning is short lived Her biological father is now on his deathbed requesting her presence She refuses as she has despised him her entire life for what he allowed to happen to her mother Ramona must now find a way to put to rest years of animosity before the bell that tolls the loudest chimes no more

Marcelino and the Curse of the Gold Frog Daniel Chavez, 2004-02 Marcelino is a fiction novel based on my 91 year old Aunt Ramona s recollection of events that happened during her childhood in and around Creedmoor Texas Prior to interviewing Aunt Ramona I had little knowledge of my grandparents Marcelino and Mama Maria I was very surprised to learn that Mama Maria possessed two unique abilities telekinesis and the power to heal the ailing After hearing how my grandparents and their children had to live on the road for years as migrant workers and survived intact I thought that was amazing The best or worse was yet to come During these terrible times Mama was not in her right mind because of a curse that was cast on her by a Comanche witch That infliction caused untold misery on her family and slowly progressed to violence toward those around her Marcelino who feared the unknown was determined to keep his family together regardless of the craziness that was taking place Sadly though his only defense was having his wife treated by a Mexican healer who was only after his money and revenge against a woman she saw as a threat When the demon in Mama s mind finally takes full control of her it makes for a terrifying time at the creek The children lay poorly hidden begging for Marcelino to find them while their mother lurks overhead with a raised butcher knife and the devil in her eyes Although Marcelino depicts life at its harshest it is sprinkled with humor throughout

Marcelino and the Curse of the Gold Frog Sr. Daniel

Chavez,2012-04-01 Years of crisscrossing Central Texas yielded only extreme poverty racism and incomprehensible hardships for Marcelino and his wife Maria When Maria developed telekinesis the women of the town suspected her of being a sorceress and hired a Comanche witch to fix Maria A crowded churchyard provided the setting for a confrontation that triggered Maria s madness Her escalating violent behavior soon singled out her newborn son What she planned for her children was genuine insanity
