 semiologist scrutinizes today s cultural phenomena and finds the prevailing taste to be neo baroque characterized by an appetite for virtuosity frantic rhythms instability poly dimensionality and change Omar Calabrese locates a sign of the times admits that he begins the book with a refusal to distinguish between Donald Duck and Dante Avoiding hierarchies or ghettos among works he takes his readers on a fast paced expedition through contemporary culture that closes with an elegant essay on evaluation and classical form According to Calabrese the enormous quantity of narrative now being produced has led to a new situation everything has already been said and everything has already been written The only way of avoiding saturation has been to turn to a poetics of repetition The author shows that pleasure in texts is now produced by tiny variations and a
