The Building of Elizabethan and Jacobean England Maurice Howard, 2007 Building accounts government regulation and theoretical writing on the one hand and pictorial representation on the other directed new ways of documenting the changed appearance of the buildings in which people lived worshipped and worked This book shows how changes of style in architecture emerged from the practical needs of building a new society through the image making of public and private patrons in the revolutionary century between Reformation and Civil War BOOK JACKET

The Ricardian, 2003

William Faden and Norfolk's Eighteenth Century Landscape Andrew Macnair, Tom Williamson, 2010-08-24 William Faden's map of Norfolk published in 1797 was one of a large number of surveys of English counties produced in the second half of the eighteenth century This book with accompanying DVD presents a new digital version of the map and explains how this can be interrogated to produce a wealth of new historical information It discusses the making of the Norfolk map and Faden's own career within the wider context of the eighteenth century cartographic revolution It explores what the map and others like it can tell us about contemporary social and economic geography But it also shows how carefully examined the map can also inform us about the development of the Norfolk landscape in much more remote periods of time The book includes a digital version of the map on DVD Andrew Macnair is Research Fellow at the School of History in the University of East Anglia Tom Williamson is Professor of History and Head of the Landscape Group at the University of East Anglia

The Antiquaries Journal, 1923

The English Medieval Landscape Leonard Cantor, 2021-11-30 First published in 1982 The English Medieval Landscape was written to recreate and analyse the development of the major elements of the medieval landscape Illustrated with maps and photographs the book explores the nature of the English landscape between 1066 and 1485 from farms and chases to castles monastic settlements villages roads and more The English Medieval Landscape will appeal to those with an interest in medieval history and British social history

Women, Religion and Education in Early Modern England Kenneth Charlton, 2002-01-04 Women Religion and Education in Early Modern England is a study of the nature and extent of the education of women in the context of both Protestant and Catholic ideological debates Examining the role of women both as recipients and agents of religious instruction the author assesses the nature of power endowed in women through religious education and the restraints and freedoms this brought

Church Building and Society in the Later Middle Ages Gabriel Byng, 2017-12-14 The construction of a church was undoubtedly one of the most demanding events to take place in the life of a medieval parish It required a huge outlay of time money and labour and often a new organisational structure to oversee design and management Who took control and who provided the financing was deeply shaped by local patterns in wealth authority and institutional development from small villages with little formal government to settlements with highly unequal populations This all took place during a period of great economic and social change as communities managed the impact of the Black Death the end of serfdom and the slump of the mid fifteenth century This original and authoritative study provides an account of how economic change local politics and architecture combined in late medieval England It will be of interest to researchers of medieval socio economic and art history

Meteorological Disasters in Medieval Britain (AD 1000–1500) Peter J. Brown,2023-08-21 When high magnitude meteorological hazards impact vulnerable human populations disasters are the inevitable consequence Through archaeological and historical evidence this book investigates how these sudden and unpredictable events affected British medieval populations AD 1000 1500 Medieval society understood disasters in a practical sense and took steps to minimise risk by constructing flood defences and reinforcing structures damaged by storms At the same time natural hazards were widely interpreted through a framework of religious and superstitious beliefs and a wide variety of measures were followed to secure protection against the dangers of the natural world Disasters therefore were interpreted through a duality of understanding in which their occurrence could be the result of spiritual or superstitious triggers but practical solutions were a key component in mitigating their tangible impacts In evaluating this duality this book focuses on specific case studies and considers both their diverse historical contexts as well as their consequences for society against the backdrop of significant demographic and climatic change as a result of the Black Death and the transition to the Little Ice Age Roots of Reform: Contextual Interpretation of Church Fittings in Norfolk During the English Reformation Jason Robert Ladick,2021-06-10 This volume provides a thorough examination of the impact of the English Reformation through a detailed analysis of medieval and early modern church fittings surviving at parish churches located throughout the county of Norfolk in England Indulgences in Late Medieval England R. N. Swanson,2007-12-13 This book presents a history of indulgences or pardons in late medieval England The Journal of Transport History ,1977
