Privatization And Foreign Investments In Eastern Europe:

Privatization and Foreign Investments in Eastern Europe Iliana Zloch-Christy, 1995-12-11 The post communist European countries have faced enormous political and economic problems in attempting the transformation to a market oriented economy through two of the most important channels influencing this process privatization and foreign investments Focusing on Russia the Czech Republic Hungary Bulgaria and Poland the authors examine the trends toward privatization and the problems facing the countries economic managers and foreign investors They explore what can be done to increase foreign direct and equity investment given the political risks involved in the economic transformation Scholars and students of international economics international trade Russian and Eastern European studies and government and international agencies should find this study on the relationship between privatization and foreign investment informative and useful

Foreign Investment and Privatization in Eastern Europe Patrick Artisien, Matija Rojec, Marjan Svetlicic, 2016-01-03 Written in a clear and straightforward style and well grounded in succinct and pertinent analysis It will prove a boon to students and practitioners alike as moves proceed towards European integration British Book News This volume identifies and analyses the extent to which the countries of Central and Eastern Europe are likely to attract inward foreign direct investment FDI to the turn of the century Although these countries have been growing recipients of FDI Western multinationals remain cautious and are slow to commit large investment sums The book covers the contextual and thematic aspects of FDI as well as empirical country studies including the Commonwealth of Independent States Hungary Poland and Slovenia which address the legal environment for FDI its magnitude and motives and industrial breakdown The final section discusses the potential for closer economic and political integration in Europe

Privatization in Eastern Europe Hans Smit, Vratislav Pechota, 2023-09-20 A hands on approach to the privatization process in Eastern Europe divided into the following categories Guidelines for Foreign Purchasers of State Enterprises A Business Survival Guide for Getting Things Done in Kiev Critical Challenges of Capital Formation The Greenfield Approach to Privatization Vouchers and their Practical Use Detailed Analysis of the Particulars of the Privatization Procedures in Russia Ukraine Poland the Czech Republic and Slovakia and Hungary Furthermore Privatization in Eastern Europe includes a list of all privatization laws

Privatization and FDI in Central and Eastern Europe Kalman Kalotay, 2006 Since economic transition started a close relationship has developed between privatization and foreign direct investment It has nevertheless been an unequal relationship while privatization has undoubtedly dominated foreign direct investment inflows in most Central and Eastern European countries foreign direct investment has not been the dominant form of privatization although according to the findings of a number of previous studies and a recent survey carried out by UNCTAD foreign direct investment seems to have made a positive contribution to the improvement of efficiency and corporate governance in the framework of economic transition These findings are particularly important in the light of the expectations that in the near future privatization remains the mainstay for an important part of the potential investment inflows of several but not all Central and Eastern European countries At the end of the 1990s policy makers in the region seem to recognize that not only is privatization important but also the way it is carried out matters as restructuring and the establishment of strong corporate governance may be more important than the disposal of former State owned assets A strong presence of foreign owned firms allows a fast restructuring on condition that at the same time host Governments follow sound efficiency oriented and internationally competitive economic policies The impact of privatization related foreign direct investment depends largely on the follow up investments and on the restructuring efforts of the new owner The role of government policies in the future can be seen in maximizing the positive effects and stimulating spillovers to the rest of the economy Economic Transformation in Eastern Europe ,1993

Foreign Direct Investment in Central and Eastern Europe Svetla Trifonova Marinova,2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 Covering a diverse range of countries such as Bulgaria the Czech Republic Hungary Poland Slovakia Slovenia and Russia as well as referring to the characteristics of the region as a whole this book examines the inflow and outflow of foreign direct investment from both home and host company and country perspectives By analyzing foreign direct investment in terms of process content and context the book provides a holist approach towards direct foreign investment in the transitional context of Central and Eastern Europe embracing both macro and micro economic perspectives of the process Privatization in Central and Eastern Europe June G. Hopps, Demetrius S. Iatridis,1998-08-27 Central and Eastern European countries are facing the transition from central to market systems with different strategies and capacities As the task of societal transformation is without precedent in world history the massive economic restructuring has revealed the need for distributive justice and general well being As the editors and contributors to this volume point out the monolithic preoccupation with economic restructuring in a market economics framework is implemented at the expense of social protection and security In contrast to traditional views of privatization as only an economic or managerial phenomenon this collection approaches privatization as a broader integrated process of societal transformation Privatization as defined here consists of integrated processes of societal restructuring that affect sociopolitical economic and ideological constructs as well as human and physical capital development transformation of family structures market stabilization and organization of social care Public policymakers as well as scholars and researchers of contemporary Eastern Europe will find this collection of great interest and an important challenge to the economic models of privatization which undervalue social costs

Privatization and Foreign Direct Investment in Transforming Economies Paul J. J. Welfens, Piotr Jasiński,1994 This work examines how the process of privatization is functioning under the systematic transformation of the former socialist CMEA countries It compares the different strategies being adopted in different countries for example in Poland the use of transformational shock therapy Foreign Investment in Central & Eastern Europe Vratislav Pěchota,1992 The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh,2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology The Political Economy of Transition in Central and Eastern Europe Jens Bastian, 2019-06-04 First published in 1998 this volume contributes to the debate after the fall of the Soviet Union on the transition of Eastern European former Soviet countries to a market economy The transition was an enterprise as daring in practice and historically unprecedented as it is an analytical laboratory subject to constant reflection The first two chapters address foreign direct investment in Central and Eastern European countries The rebuilding of social insurance systems is then addressed with a focus on state pension schemes The subsequent two chapters examine the political and demographic features of transition countries highlighting media reform as a key aspect for the consolidation of a democratic law based market economy and society Focus then turns to Poland the country which is considered to display the most progress in the political economy of transition Finally the controversial issue of the electoral successes of former Communist parties in Central and Eastern Europe is discussed Economic Transformation in Eastern Europe ,1993 The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies for 1994 Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 1997-05-31 This text provides a source of citations to North American scholarships relating specifically to the area of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union It indexes fields of scholarship such as the humanities arts technology and life sciences and all kinds of scholarship such as PhDs

Privatization and Entrepreneurship Erdener Kaynak, Alfred Lewis, Arie A Ullmann, 2018-12-07 Privatization and Entrepreneurship The Managerial Challenge in Central and Eastern Europe analyzes the challenges faced by managers in the transforming economies of Central and Eastern Europe and provides penetrating insights into the details of managing in the former socialist countries This collection s combination of conceptual theoretical material with empirical firsthand case analysis prepares Western managers for a more profitable and less stressful entry into these significant markets This enlightening book highlights the complexity and breadth of the issues and problems of successfully entering new markets in Central and Eastern Europe Along the way you are introduced to such topics as consumer behavior and shown the different forms of foreign direct investment with their associated problems and benefits If you are searching for ways to better prepare for business in these markets this book can help you meet your objectives with its helpful information on ethical concerns and linguistic difficulties of managing in transforming economies management challenges of privatization management challenges of entrepreneurship strategic issues associated with the reorientation of enterprises corporate constituencies changing consumers labor unions and pay practices Privatization and Entrepreneurship will prove valuable to policymakers in economic development and foreign aid agencies executives of companies planning to expand into Europe and those already active in the region and academicians and students in management economics and political science

Market-oriented Systemic Transformations in Eastern Europe Paul J.J. Welfens, 2012-12-06 Socialist economies in Eastern Europe have collapsed and embarked upon market oriented reforms The causes of the demise of centrally planned economies are analyzed and the basic challenges of systemic transformation discussed Negative income and wealth effects as well as distribution issues make adjustment extremely difficult The fundamental roles of privatization and foreign investment are addressed Foreign economic liberalization is considered to be of central importance for a growth oriented adjustment path in a stage of conflict prone policy and options Politico economic aspects of the new European developments in addition to North South issues are analyzed Difficult choices await decision makers in economic policy and the business community in Eastern Europe and in leading market economies

Legal Aspects of Privatisation Bulent Seven, 2002 The main aims of this thesis are as follows a To present a comprehensive analysis of the concept of privatisation its origins and limits b To identify the legal and institutional framework for privatisation in different European countries from a comparative perspective c To define and analyse particularly legal issues which arise during the privatisation transactions e g labour law competition law etc d To evaluate which features of the successful legal and organisational framework of privatisation have been successful so as to provide guidelines for those individuals and organisations participating in the privatisation exercises This work found out that there is no simple internationally applicable recipe for privatisation various legal methods and techniques can be used to privatise state owned enterprises Because each country has different circumstances it is impossible to provide a unique model for privatisation each country needs to design its own model according to its circumstances Privatisation is an essential but insufficient element for structural economic reform in the economy and society Privatisation is not a panacea it is not the solution to every economic and administrative problem selling an enterprise to the private sector does not mean an end to all problems Also privatisation is not an overnight process or a magic touch it will be a lengthy process Furthermore a decision that something can be privatised does not mean that it should be privatised In that context privatisation is not good or bad it is an economic and social instrument If it is well designed it may bring substantial benefits to the economy and society In many countries many state owned enterprises particularly the ones which are financially weak have still not been privatised This finding revealed that the privatisation process will be in the political and economic agenda for at least few more decades

Globalization and the State in Central and Eastern Europe Jan Drahokoupil, 2008-08-06 Chapter Introduction chapter 1 Understanding convergence towards the competition state The transnational constitution of domestic politics chapter 2 The rise of the competition state Towards the Porterian workfare postnational regime chapter 3 Creating national capitalism against the odds The internally oriented project in the Czech Republic chapter 4 The internally oriented pathways in the early nineties By default or by design chapter 5 The time of the comprador service sector How Czechs ignited the competition for FDI chapter 6 Political support for the competition state The comprador service sector and its allies chapter 7 The investment promotion machines Everyday politics and the multi scalar constitution of the competition state chapter 8 Conclusion

Enterprise Restructuring and Foreign Investment in the Transforming East Valdas

Samonis,1998 Enterprise Restructuring and Foreign Investment in the Transforming East The Impact of Privatization explores the dynamic interrelationships between enterprise restructuring and foreign investment in transition economies of postcommunist countries especially those of Central and Eastern Europe CEE This important book offers investors and international businesses a continuum from theory to praxis as it discusses theoretical and methodological issues and empirical and practical implications of economic relationships to show how these interrelationships manifest themselves in prevailing trends policy tradeoffs and business strategies Contending that the transformation to a state owned enterprise to a capitalistic corporation involves more than reacting to economic incentives Enterprise Restructuring and Foreign Investment in the Transforming East examines why enterprises need access to capital markets finance investments and acquire new capabilities in order to successfully compete in a market economy Some of the strategies you will find that relate to common elements of the restructuring process include a shift to a less hierarchal organization structure the adoption of Western financial management and accounting practices the introduction of stricter budget constraints the evolution of the marketing function and the rationalization of product ranges according to market needs Informative and intelligent this book offers you a firsthand look at the complex and critical topic of restructuring as it relates to the realization of benefits of privatization at both the micro and macro levels Using a case study approach Enterprise Restructuring and Foreign Investment in the Transforming East gives you in depth knowledge of the actual empirical practical processes as they have been experienced in transition economies

Restructuring Eastern Europe Soumitra Sharma,1997-01-01 Special attention is paid to the roles of corporate governance technological integration the role of environmental and regional policies and the reform of the banking system

Banking, International Capital Flows and Growth in Europe Paul J.J. Welfens,Holger C. Wolf,2012-12-06 Paul J J Welfens and Holger C Wolf While the economies of Asia and more recently South as well as North America have enjoyed sustained high growth the growth performance of western Europe and in particular continental Europe has been rather modest Coupled with sizable improvements in labor productivity and at best steady capital productivity growth proved insufficient to sustain employment levels much less to replicate the US job creation success Relative inflation performance has been much better in the run up to European Monetary Union inflation rates have dramatically converged towards the lower end of the distribution while risk premia on formerly high inflation economies have fallen Yet looking forward the undoubted success in achieving price stability is mitigated by the lackluster growth and in particular employment performance Indeed the relative little attention paid to initiatives directed at raising economic growth is startling not only in the light of the US policy record but also in light of the remarkable rebound of those European economies which have aggressively tackled the structural problems most prominently the UK and Ireland
