Silverstein, Gerald Flaherty, Terri Tobin, 2006-05-03 Winner of an AJN Book of the Year Award Alzheimer s is quickly becoming the epidemic of the 21st century Today an estimated four million Americans suffer from this devastating disease This number could explode to 14 million by the year 2050 when baby boomers come of age Written in a clear and accessible style Dementia and Wandering Behavior brings attention to this life threatening problem and helps professionals and family caregivers understand that there are preventative measures available By focusing on specific responses to wandering behavior and describing ways to create a safe environment in the home community and care facility this book teaches you how to maximize autonomy while minimizing risk for people with dementia in your care Mental Health Consultation in Nursing Homes Michael A. Smyer, Diane Brannon, Margaret D. Cohn, 1990-12 The most complete book to date concerning the institutionalized care of the mentally ill elderly A compassionate comprehensive portrayal of the problems of caring for older persons by family members and nursing home staff Essential reading for all those working with the elderly Bertram J. Cohler Committee on Human Development University of Chicago The real strength of this book lies in its initial conceptualization of the nursing home as a community with a community s complexity of forces working both for and counter to the best interests of its members contrasting the traditional view that the institution is the enemy of its residents M. Powell Lawton Director of Research Philadelphia Geriatric Center This eminently readable book meets a long standing need in the field of mental health reflected in the fact that many nursing home residents suffer mental and emotional problems not infrequently the cause of their placement Rooted solidly in theory research and clinical evidence yet with a clear eye to practical applications this excellent book will appeal to scholars educators students administrators consultants and practitioners

Barbara Silverstone Executive Director The Lighthouse This book come out at the right time in our return to a national discussion of the mental health needs of older adults Scholarly in breadth and thoroughness the authors draw on their wealth of practical experience to edify topics on the nursing home industry and its community of caregivers families and residents and on strategies for mental health consultation assessment and intervention It is thoughtfully written Carrell Wendland Ph D President Beverly Foundation
