The Rise of China and the China-Russia Strategic Partnership Lei Yu, 2025-02-08 This book argues that China's quest for a strategic partnership with Russia reveals the country's desire to create a geopolitical environment in favour of their country's re-emergence as a great power at the systemic global level. The partnership with its no limit is expected to help China counterbalance its perceived US containment and reshape the US dominated world order. By intensifying Sino-Russian economic and energy cooperation and trade in the framework of the partnership, China attempts to gain entry to Russia's markets and particularly its energy resources to sustain its economic growth that is viewed by Deng Xiaoping as the basis underlying China's hard power and particularly its military capabilities. By intensifying their military collaboration, China seeks to gain entry to Russia's military weaponry and technology for the modernization of the People's Liberation Army (PLA) and work together with Russia to contain their perceived US unilateralism, hegemonism and interventionism. The Chinese foreign policy elites increasingly view US unilateralism and hegemonism as detrimental to China's core interests, e.g. its territorial integrity and national rejuvenation. This sheds light on why the Chinese foreign policy elites conceive the China-Russia partnership as vital for China's peaceful development, commonly known as peaceful rise overseas and the ballast stone for global peace and strategic stability. This book will be of interest to sinologists and scholars of China's foreign policy.

China's Belt And Road Initiatives And Its Neighboring Diplomacy Jie Zhang, 2016-12-15 This book studies China's Belt and Road Initiatives and the country's neighboring diplomacy. The Belt and Road Initiatives proposed by Chinese President Xi Jinping in 2013 consist of two main components: the land-based Silk Road Economic Belt and ocean-going Maritime Silk Road. China has implemented the initiatives by establishing Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank and Silk Road Fund. This book focuses on analysis of the initiatives and the responses from the major powers, neighboring countries and regions. The book consists of four parts: the Overview, The Belt and Road Initiatives and Big Powers, The Belt and Road Initiative and Regions, The Belt and Road Initiative and Hot Issues. The Overview explicates the strategic orientations, connotations and approaches of implementation of the initiatives from a theoretical perspective. The second part analyzes the Asia-Pacific strategies of four great powers, namely the United States, Russia, Japan and India, their relations with China and responses to the initiative. The third part discusses the Belt and Road Initiatives and four regions, namely Northeast Asia, Southeast Asia, South Asia and Central Asia. It evaluates their attitudes and responses towards the Belt and Road Initiatives, strategic docking and major challenges in this regard. The fourth part touches upon the initiatives and current hot issues, including non-traditional security, the South China Sea dispute and venture analysis on investment environment renovation.

China, Russia and Central Asian

Infrastructure Peter Krasnopolsky, 2022-08-17 This book evaluates Central Asian regionalism by analyzing the impact of Russia and China on physical infrastructure in the region. The narrative builds a picture of the nature of the two powers' influence on the development of regional connectivity in Central Asia. The study covers the 30-year period since the dissolution of the Soviet Union, with a focus on the last decade preceding the global pandemic. Qualitative research methods, i.e. documentary analysis, media analysis, and elite interviews, are implemented to explore how activities of Russia and China impact regional cooperation among Central Asian states. Multiple case studies of projects in the networked sectors of infrastructure, i.e. transportation, energy, and telecommunications, are used to build the argument and demonstrate the ways in which Russia's and China's engagement influence regional connectivity. The book is of interest to the scholars who study international relations in Eurasia, major power relations, Sino-Russian relations, China's foreign policy, international institutions in Asia, multilateralism, and regionalism. The empirical depth of the book attracts attention of area studies scholars who focus on Central Asia, Central Eurasia, and any of the five Central Asian states. Additionally, the scholars who analyze the roles of hard infrastructure find the book particularly important. The in-depth cases on multilateral financial institutions and regional networks, particularly energy, transportation, and telecommunication, are of great value to those interested in these respective sectors.

Mongolia and Northeast Asian Security Alicia J. Campi, Jagannath Panda, 2021-08-26 This book assesses Mongolia's position in the security calculus of Northeast Asia and presents the policy outlooks of major powers vis-à-vis the region, including the United States, Japan, China, Russia, and India. Groundbreaking and modernistic in its approach, the book treats the often marginalised and landlocked small power state of Mongolia as a critical regional actor, particularly with regards to managing ties with encircling major powers, Russia and China, and assist in engaging the nuclear state of North Korea through dialogue mechanisms. This compilation of chapters by distinguished scholars explores Mongolia in the Northeast Asian geographical space within the context of three major themes: nuclear proliferation, environmental security, and socio-economic and civilisational conflicts. The book provides a multidisciplinary and multinational approach to Mongolia's role in the region's strategic landscape. It moves the regional security discussion beyond major power politics, North Korea's denuclearisation, and the impasse on the Korean Peninsula to discuss and analyse other underappreciated challenges facing the region. Considering Mongolia's role in achieving peace and stability in the neighbourhood, the book will be a valuable resource for researchers and readers in International Relations, Political Science, and Asian Studies.

China's Global Rebalancing and the New Silk Road B. R. Deepak, 2018-01-10 This collaborative volume discusses the One Belt One Road or the New Silk Road initiative of Chinese President Xi Jinping from the perspectives of the Belt and Road countries. This initiative has been viewed as a re-globalization drive by China in the backdrop of financial crisis of the West and the latter's increasingly protectionist tendencies of late. Rather than rebalancing towards a certain region, this is supposed to be China's global rebalancing aimed at inclusiveness and a win-win partnership. The initiative has raised hopes as well as suspicions.
