Robinson,2007-09-20 Punch was sort of a mongrel In his veins circulated the blood of all the races found along the Gulf Coast and the Mexican border Like most mongrels Punch was a survivor smart healthy dependable and loyal Punch was a bit short of six feet tall slim always clean shaven with graying brown hair and blue eyes He walked with a limp His left leg had been messed up in a bad fall with a cowpony some years back The wreck pretty well retired him from working as a full time cowhand Punch had an endless supply of stories of the old days but no one knew where he actually came from or exactly how old he was It was evident that he had been a cowboy probably a lawman a hunter a trapper and perhaps an outlaw Punch was fluent in Spanish and French knew some Apache and most folks believed that he knew Indian sign language He was known to be a talented tracker Some claimed He could track a bird through the air As little was known about Punch folks tended to fill the gaps with guesses and rumors Punch never agreed or disagreed with those who claimed to have some knowledge about his background As long as he avoided insulting or demeaning him Punch would smile volunteer nothing and allow people to form their own opinions about his background He was easy going and friendly to everyone but if you had the sense God gave a sheep you would sense Punch was not a man to be trifled with Given the right circumstances Punch could be a dangerous person to cross One of the stories associated with Punch claimed he had trailed on foot a horse thief into Mexico and recovered a stolen horse When people mentioned the story to Punch he would nod his head in apparent agreement and tell them Yup you just about got it right Punch knew that they were wrong Dead wrong Only he knew what had happened and he wasn't talking
