Ryans Rescue:

Ryan's Rescue Karen Leabo, 2011-07-15 WHO CAN YOU TRUST Christine Greenlow wasn't sure she knew anymore In just a few days she'd been abducted from her spoiled little rich girl existence and then rescued maybe by a man who might be every bit as dangerous as her kidnappers All she really knew about Ryan Mulvaney was that he wasn't the innocent bystander he claimed to be There was nothing innocent about this man But he certainly had a way of making high speed car chases and even the occasional burst of gunfire downright exciting And maybe when all this was over if they were still alive she'd show him a whole different kind of excitement Person, Polis, Planet David Schmidtz, 2011-11-01 This volume collects thirteen of David Schmidtz's essays on the question of what it takes to live a good life given that we live in a social and natural world Part One defends a non-maximizing conception of rational choice explains how even ultimate goals can be rationally chosen defends the rationality of concern and regard for others even to the point of being willing to die for a cause and explains why decision theory is necessarily incomplete as a tool for addressing such issues Part Two uses the tools of analytic philosophy to explain what we can do to be deserving what is wrong with the idea that we ought to do as much good as we can why mutual aid is good but why the welfare state does not work as a way of institutionalizing mutual aid and why transferring wealth from those who need it less to those who need it more can be a bad idea even from a utilitarian perspective Most ambitiously Part Two offers an overarching pluralistic moral theory that defines the nature and limits of our obligations to each other and to our individual selves Part Three discusses the history and economic logic of alternative property institutions both private and communal and explains why economic logic is an indispensable tool in the field of environmental conflict resolution In the final essay Schmidtz brings the volume full circle by considering the nature and limits of our obligations to nonhuman species and how the status of nonhuman species ought to enter into our deliberations about what sort of life is worth living Whitewater Rescues Charlie Walbridge, 2024-04-16 Read more than 80 of the most compelling true stories of canoeing kayaking and rafting rescues ever submitted to the American Whitewater Accident

Reinventing World War II Barbara A. Biesecker,2024-08-09 By the 1970s World War II had all but disappeared from US popular culture But beginning in the mid eighties it reemerged with a vengeance and for nearly fifteen years World War II was ubiquitous across US popular and political culture In this book Barbara A Biesecker explores the prestige and rhetorical power of the Good War revealing how it was retooled to restore a new kind of social equilibrium to the United States Biesecker analyzes prominent cases of World War II remembrance including the canceled exhibit of the Enola Gay at the National Air and Space Museum in 1995 and its replacement Steven Spielberg s Saving Private Ryan Tom Brokaw s The Greatest Generation and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Situating these popular memory texts within the culture and history wars of the day and the broader framework of US political and economic life Biesecker argues that with the notable exception of the Holocaust Memorial Museum these reinventions of the Good War worked rhetorically to restore a strong sense of national identity and belonging fitted to the neoliberal nationalist agenda By tracing the links between the popular retooling of World War II and the national state fantasy and by putting the lessons of Foucault Derrida Lacan and their successors to work for a rhetorical political analysis of the present Biesecker not only explains the emergence and strength of the MAGA movement but also calls attention to the power of public memory to shape and contest ethnonational identity today This book will interest rhetoricians and historians as well as students and scholars in the fields of US politics and communication studies

The Elements of Justice David Schmidt,2006-01-09 What is justice Questions of justice are questions about what people are due However what that means in practice depends on the context in which the question is raised Depending on context the formal question of what people are due is answered by principles of desert reciprocity equality or need Justice therefore is a constellation of elements that exhibit a degree of integration and unity Nonetheless the integrity of justice is limited in a way that is akin to the integrity of a neighborhood rather than that of a building A theory of justice offers individuals a map of that neighborhood within which they can explore just what elements amount to justice
